STAGE 1 — GLOSSARY

🏰 STAGE 1 — ELEMENTARY

Empire English • CEFR A2 • Rank: Citizen Built from: `curriculum/01-cefr-roadmap.md` $4+
`curriculum/stage1/00-stage1-unit-map.md`

من وصف يومك إلى حكاية ماضيك وخططك وعالمك.

WELCOME BACK, CITIZEN — أهلاً برجوعك

You are not starting again. You arrive with A1: you can introduce yourself, describe your routine, handle simple needs, and keep a short exchange alive. Stage 1 opens the timeline and gives that foundation range.

إنت مش راجع للصفر. الأساس موجود؛ المرحلة دي بتخليك تتحرك للماضي والمستقبل، وتقارن، وتنصح، وتتعامل مع مواقف أطول باستقلال أكبر.

By the end of Stage 1, you will be able to tell a simple story, make and discuss plans, compare choices, give advice, and handle ordinary travel, food, health, phone, and small-talk situations in English.

Your final evidence will not be a certificate alone. You will complete an extended A2 exchange and record a standard milestone sample that can sit beside your Day-1 and Stage-0 recordings.

YOUR RANK — رُتبتك

Rank	Citizen — المواطن
CEFR	A2 — Elementary
Entry	A1 achieved through Stage 0 or placement evidence
What it means	you can complete familiar everyday tasks and connect short accounts across time

The rank path is deliberate: Recruit (A1) → Citizen (A2) → Legionary (B1) → Confident (B2, the Coronation) → Sovereign (C1).

A Citizen does more than survive a conversation. You begin to participate in it — with a past, a plan, an opinion, a reason, and a response to the other person.

الرُّتْبَة معناها إنك بقيت تستخدم اللغة في حياتك، مش بس تنفذ تمرين عنها.

THE ROADMAP — خريطة المرحلة

10 units • 50 lessons • about 10–14 weeks at roughly 7 guided hours a week.

Unit	Theme	What you take from it
1	The Past (1) — Was & Were	locate people, places, states, and experiences in the past
2	The Past (2) — Regular Verbs	say what happened and produce the three -ed endings
3	The Past (3) — Irregulars & Questions	ask, negate, and tell a connected simple story
4	Future Plans	distinguish plans from predictions, offers, and instant decisions
5	Making Comparisons	compare options, choose the best, and explain degree
6	Food, Quantity & Restaurants	manage amounts, containers, questions, and a polite meal order
7	Health & Advice	describe symptoms, advise warmly, and separate advice from necessity
8	Travel & Transport	get around, request help, buy a ticket, and narrate a trip
9	People, Feelings & Everyday Situations	describe people, say how, contrast usual with temporary, and sustain small talk
10	Putting It Together	retrieve the stage, complete the A2 exchange, and record your milestone

The grammar spine: past was/were → regular and irregular past → did/didn't → going to/will → comparatives and superlatives → count/uncount quantity → should/have to/must/can't → adverbs and the simple/continuous contrast.

This stage is built around time. The first three units unlock the past because telling a story is the largest A2 jump. The future follows, then the tools to compare, quantify, advise, and act in everyday domains. Every unit retrieves language from earlier ones before adding its own layer.

Vocabulary target: roughly 1,000–1,500 words cumulative, taught in context and collected in the generated glossary at the back of this book.

Accent Lab priorities:

- the three past -ed endings: /t/, /d/, /ɪd/
- /θ/ and /ð/ consolidation

- consonant clusters without an inserted vowel
- stress in longer words
- sentence rhythm, linking, and a light introduction to weak forms
- personal weak sounds identified from recordings, not guessed from a generic list النطق هنا هدفه الوضوح. بنقارن تسجيلك بتسجيلك، ونشتغل على الصوت اللي فعلاً بيأثر عليك.

THE ARABIC FADE — الدعم العربي بيخف

Stage 1 begins with moderate Arabic support, around 40%, and fades across the course. This is not removal of help for its own sake. Familiar lesson structure, examples, tables, and repeated English instructions gradually take over work that translation once did.

لو الشرح بقى إنجليزي أكثر، ده مش لأن الدعم اختفى. ده لأنك بقيت قادر تستقبل جزء أكبر من اللغة باللغة نفسها.

When a precise Arabic contrast prevents a durable error, the lesson uses it. When English is already clear, the lesson lets English carry the meaning. The fade is planned, not random.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK — إزاي تستخدم الكتاب

Every teaching lesson keeps the same route, while review, milestone, and assessment lessons adapt the middle to the task.

Section	What you do there
 Your Conquest	name the ability you are building
 Why this matters	connect the language to a real reason to use it
 Warm-up	retrieve earlier language before adding more
 Watch & Listen	meet the language inside a complete situation
 Decode it	notice the form, meaning, and high-value contrast
 Your Arsenal	collect the words and functional phrases
 Accent Lab	perceive, cue, produce, record, and compare
 Train	practise accurately before the speaking load rises
 Your Turn	connect the lesson into meaningful speech
 Your Orders	carry one small action into real life
 Remember	compress the lesson into what must survive
 Self-check	verify and correct without waiting for a teacher

Four rules make Stage 1 work:

1. Retrieve before rereading. The effort to remember is part of the learning.
2. Connect sentences. A2 grows through because, but, so, then, and follow-up questions, not longer lists.
3. Record before you feel ready. Listening back turns a vague impression into specific evidence.
4. Never miss twice. One missed day is human; returning the next day protects the habit.

★ القاعدة الذهبية: الاستمرار أهم من الشدة. ارجع بسرعة، حتى لو رجعت بعشر دقائق بس.

WHAT GETS RECORDED — إيه اللي بيتسجل

Each unit ends in a speaking task. Those recordings have three jobs:

- give the coach evidence for focused feedback
- let you compare current speech with your own earlier speech
- build the proof timeline for milestone points

Recording for learning is not permission to publish. Storage, comparison, and any public use follow the consent tier in the before/after protocol. You can participate in the course without granting marketing use.

التسجيل دليل ليك وأداة تعليم. استخدامه خارج ده محتاج موافقة واضحة ومنفصلة.

HOW YOU ARE ASSESSED — التقييم

- Entry: A1 evidence through the Stage-0 exit or placement process.
- End of every unit: a short quiz plus a speaking task. These are formative checks; they direct feedback and the review queue.
- Unit 10 mock: the exact shape of the final exchange, completed without a pass/fail label.
- Stage-1 summative: a mixed quiz and an extended exchange — narration, role-play, and Q&A — scored on Fluency, Accuracy, Pronunciation, Range, and Interaction at the committed A2 threshold.
- A2 milestone sample: a separate standard-prompt recording for fair Day-1 → Stage-0 → A2 comparison.

A green quiz is not proof of speaking ability. A strong speech is not proof that every grammar target is stable. The determination uses the required evidence together.

التقييم مش كمين. شكله معروف، ومعاييره ثابتة، والنتيجة بتبدأ بالدليل قبل الاسم.

AN HONEST PROMISE — وعد صادق

We promise structured practice toward clear, confident, intelligible communication. We do not promise a native accent, effortless fluency in a number of days, or progress without sustained use.

مانوعدكش بلكنة أصلية ولا بطلاقة سريعة. نوعدك بمسار واضح، تدريب حقيقي، ودليل تقدر تسمعه بنفسك.

What Stage 1 can honestly deliver: you can narrate familiar past events, discuss straightforward plans, compare and choose, talk about amounts, describe symptoms and give advice, manage predictable travel and phone tasks, and sustain a short everyday conversation. You will still pause, make errors, ask for repetition, and need support in unfamiliar situations. That is not a failed B1; it is a real A2.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Stage overview for the coach. 10 units, 50 lessons, ~100 guided hours, normally 10–14 weeks. Entry is evidenced A1. Arabic begins around 40% and fades to roughly 10–20% in the final units; do not restore translation merely because productive struggle appears. Stage structure: U1–U3 build the past, U4 future, U5 comparison, U6 quantity/food, U7 health/advice, U8 travel, U9 everyday interaction, and U10 retrieval + clinic + mock + summative. Non-negotiables: every requested recording, the Accent Lab, retrieval before support, and interaction evidence. A correct monologue is not a conversation; reward asking back, clarification, repair, and response to new information. Pronunciation honesty: clear and intelligible, never “native.” Use tracker evidence to personalise the Unit-10 clinic and compare each learner only with their own earlier sample. Proof protocol: the extended A2 exchange and standard milestone prompt are separate files. Use the assessment suite for determination and the before/after protocol for comparable capture, storage, and granular consent. Course participation never implies publication permission. Persistent errors to recycle: did/didn't + base; missing be in going to; double comparison; much/many; should + base; don't have to against can't; good against well; simple against temporary continuous; meaning-changing can/can't clarity. The predictable dip: learners often say they are getting worse when the Arabic fades and output grows. Show them two recordings, name the increased task difficulty, and compare like with like before changing the plan.

NEXT → UNIT 1: THE PAST — WAS & WERE

Your first campaign opens the timeline: where you were, how things were, what existed, and how a past experience felt.

Empire English 🏰 · Stage 1 — Elementary · من دراسة الإنجليزي لاستخدامه

STAGE 1 · UNIT 1

THE PAST (1): WAS & WERE

👑 UNIT 1 — THE PAST (I): WAS & WERE

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 1 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit1-was-and-were.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 1 you'll talk about the past — say where you and others were, describe a place from your memory, say how an experience felt, and ask someone about theirs.
مهمتك في الوحدة دي: تتكلم عن اللي فات، وتوصف مكان من ذكرياتك، وتقول إحساسك عن تجربة.

Why this is your first A2 campaign: in Stage 0 you could describe now. Everything else — stories, memories, explanations, excuses — needs the past. This unit opens all of it with a verb that has only two forms.

ده أكبر فرق بين المستوى اللي فات والمستوى ده.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	I was, you were	use was/were · past time expressions (yesterday, last week, ... ago)
L02	wasn't · weren't · Were you...?	negatives · questions by inversion · short answers
L03	There was / There were	describe what existed in a past place · singular vs plural
L04	How was it?	opinion adjectives · because + a reason · natural reactions
L05	Weekend account (milestone) 🎙️	a connected 5–7 sentence past account + record your milestone

Grammar spine: was / were — affirmative, negative, questions, short answers — plus there was / there were. Accent Lab: /w/ in was-were · the weak was /wəz/ · the final /t/ in wasn't-weren't · linking there-wuz-a · stress on opinion words. Mindset: momentum into a new stage — a new level is exactly where people quietly stop, so lock your daily slot again. Arabic support: moderate (~40%), fading to ~30% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-1 weekend account — the first recording where you talk about your past.
- A pair worth keeping: play your Stage-0 graduation clip, then this one.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (~30 min each, L05 ~35) plus this wrapper. Grammar spine is was/were in every form. The Arabic dial drops sharply from Stage 0 — explain in English first and reserve Arabic for the two errors that actually cost marks. The two errors to hunt all unit: subject agreement (we was) and existential plural agreement (there was two windows). Both are habits rather than misunderstandings, so they need repetitions in warm-ups, not more explanation. The thing that most raises their score is because + a reason, introduced in L04. Insist on it even when the surrounding grammar is imperfect — connected speech is the A2 threshold. L05 is a proof asset. Capture every learner's recording with consent and hold it beside their Stage-0 graduation clip; that pair is the clearest evidence of progress the programme produces.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: was/were choice · negative and question forms · there was vs there were · match How was...? to a reaction.
- Speaking task: the L05 weekend account, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold).
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + each learner's flagged weak sound) and the proof timeline.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 2 — THE PAST (2): REGULAR VERBS

the -ed ending and its three sounds — building directly on the past you just unlocked.

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: use was/were to say where someone was · use past time expressions · produce 3–4 true past sentences. First lesson of a new stage — name the level-up out loud. They arrive from Stage 0 able to talk about now; they leave this unit able to talk about before. That is the single biggest jump in A2. Watch for: the classic agreement error "we was". Fix it gently today; it recurs all unit. Support: hand them the conjugation card + one time word. Stretch: add a feeling and a reason — "I was tired because I worked a lot." Arabic ~40% — noticeably less than Stage 0. Explain in English first, then gloss the tricky part in Arabic.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Use was and were to say where you and other people were.
- Use past time words: yesterday · last night · last week · two days ago.
- Say 3–4 true sentences about your own past. 🗣️

من النهاردة بتتكلم عن اللي فات، مش بس عن دلوقتي.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Almost every real conversation includes the past. "How was your day?" · "Where were you?" · "I was at work." Without the past tense you can only describe this exact moment — and that is not how people talk.

ده أكبر قفزة في المستوى الجديد. الفرق بين إنك تقول "أنا في الشغل" وإنك تحكي يومك كله.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

From Stage 0, say these out loud in the present:

- I am at home. · She is a teacher. · They are busy.

Now hold that thought — today we move all three into the past.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Fast retrieval of present to be from Stage 0. Do not teach yet; you are activating the pattern they already own so the past forms land as a change, not as new material.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Listen to three people answer the same question (🔊 in the portal).

Q: Where were you yesterday? A1: I was at work all day. A2: I was at my sister's house in Alexandria.
A3: We were at home. It was a quiet day.

Notice: every answer uses was or were — never am or is.

English	بالعربي
Where were you yesterday?	كنت فين امبارح؟
I was at work.	كنت في الشغل
We were at home.	كنا في البيت
It was a quiet day.	كان يوم هادي

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. First for meaning, second with learners underlining every was/were. Ask what changed from the warm-up — let them discover am/is → was and are → were before you show the table.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The past of to be has only two forms. That is all.

Subject	Present
I	am	was
he / she / it	is	was
you / we / they	are	were

القاعدة كلها في سطر واحد: am / is بيبقوا was، و are بيبقى were. مفيش استثناءات.

Past time expressions — put them at the start or the end of the sentence:

- yesterday · Yesterday I was at work.
- last night / week / month / year · I was in Cairo last week.
- ... ago · We were there two days ago.
- this morning · This morning I was tired.

كلمات الزمن دي هي اللي بتوضح إن الكلام عن الماضي. حطها في أول الجملة أو في آخرها — الاتنين صح. ومن غيرها السامع مش هيعرف إنت بتتكلم عن امتى.

⚠️ خلي بالك: بنقول we were, مش we was. الغلطة دي أشهر غلطة في المستوى ده.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Teach the two-form table in English — it is genuinely simple and they can handle it at A2. Reserve Arabic for the we was warning, which is the error that actually costs them marks. Watch for: learners over-applying was to plurals. Drill we/they were three extra times.

🔪 YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
was / were	كان / كانوا	I was busy. They were late. yesterday	امبارح	Yesterday I was at home. last night / week	امبارح بالليل / الأسبوع اللي فات	She was here last night.
... ago	فات / من	two days ago tired / busy / happy	تعبان / مشغول / مبسوط	I was tired.
at work / at home	في الشغل / في البيت	He was at work.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the /w/ in was and were. Round your lips before the sound. Arabic speakers often soften it toward a /v/.

- Feel it: was · was · was — lips forward, then relax.
- Compare: was ✓ → vas ✗

Target 2 — the weak was /wəz/. In a real sentence, was is almost never stressed. The adjective carries the stress:

I was tired. · She was late. · They were happy.

Say it fast and let was shrink. That single habit makes you sound far more natural.

Record & compare: "Yesterday I was tired, but today I'm fine."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Drill /w/ with rounded lips, then contrast a stressed was (unnatural) against the weak /wəz/ (natural). Praise any shrinking of the vowel — that is the A2 rhythm win.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — was or were?

1. I _____ at the office yesterday.
2. They _____ very tired last night.
3. She _____ my English teacher last year.
4. We _____ at my mother's house.
5. It _____ a long day.

Exercise 2 — add a time expression. Rewrite each sentence with a past time word.

- I am at home. → _____
- They are busy. → _____

Exercise 3 — true for you. Complete honestly.

- Yesterday I was _____.
- Last weekend I was _____.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: was · were · was · were · was. Ex2: accept any correct past form plus a time expression. Ex3: circulate and check was/were choice, not content.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Say three true sentences about where you were: yesterday, last night, and last weekend.

 Record them. Keep the recording — you will compare it at the end of the unit.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct was/were with a past time expression, intelligible. Note each learner's weaker target (/w/ or the weak form) for the Unit-1 clinic in L05.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post a voice note: "Yesterday I was _____. Last weekend I was _____."
- Lock your daily 20-minute slot again — a new stage is where people quietly stop.

REMEMBER — افكر

- am / is → was · are → were. Two forms, no exceptions.
- Never we was — always we were.
- was is weak in a sentence; the adjective takes the stress.
- (was/were returns in every warm-up this unit.)

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) was · 2) were · 3) was · 4) were · 5) was

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: make past to be negative · ask past questions with inversion · give short answers · hold a short past Q&A. Watch for: learners keeping statement word order — "You were at home?" with rising tone only. Accept it as a stepping stone, then model the inversion. Support: give the short-answer cards to read from. Stretch: add a follow-up — "Why? Where were you?" Arabic ~40%. The form is simple; spend the time on the Q&A drill, not on explanation.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Say what wasn't true: I wasn't at home.
- Ask past questions: Were you at work?
- Answer briefly and naturally: Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't. 🎧

هتتعرف تنفي، وتساءل، وترد بسرعة — ثلاث حاجات بتخليك تعمل محادثة حقيقية عن اللي فات.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

A conversation is not one person making statements. It is questions and answers. Once you can ask about the past, you can start a conversation instead of only responding to one.

اللي بيسأل هو اللي بيقود الكلام.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

Answer out loud, from L01: Where were you yesterday?

Then say one sentence with were, and one with was.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Two or three learners answer aloud. Listen specifically for we was and correct it here, quickly, before the new forms build on top of it.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

A short exchange between two friends (📞 in the portal).

A: Were you at the party last night? B: No, I wasn't. I was at home with my family. A: Oh! Was it a long day at work? B: Yes, it was. I was really tired.

Notice: the question puts were before you — that swap is the whole grammar of this lesson.

English	بالعربي
Were you at the party?	كنت في الحفلة؟
No, I wasn't.	لا، ماكنتش
Was it a long day?	كان يوم طويل؟
Yes, it was.	أيوه، كان

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time, learners mark where the verb sits in the question versus the statement. Make the inversion visible before naming it.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) Negative — just add not, then contract it.

Full	Contracted
I was not at home	I wasn't at home
They were not ready	They weren't ready

في الكلام العادي بنستخدم wasn't و weren't دايماً. الصيغة الكاملة تستخدمها بس لو عايز تأكيد قوي.

2) Question — swap the subject and the verb.

Statement	Question
You were at work	Were you at work?
It was cold	Was it cold?

⚠️ القاعدة: الفعل الأول، بعدين الفاعل. مش بنستخدم do ولا did مع الفعل ده خالص.

3) Short answers — never a bare yes or no.

- Were you tired? → Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't.
- Was she there? → Yes, she was. / No, she wasn't.

بنكرر الفاعل والفعل في الرد. "Yes" لوحدها بتبان جافة شوية، والرد الكامل بيبان مؤدب أكثر.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Three short blocks, each with an immediate oral drill. Watch for: learners answering "Yes, I were" — the short answer must agree with the subject, same as the statement.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
wasn't / weren't	ماكانش / ماكانوش	I wasn't ready.
Were you...?	كنت...؟	Were you at home?
Was he / she / it...?	كان...؟	Was it good?
Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't.	أيوه كنت / لأ ماكنتش	short answers really	فعلاً / قوي	I was really tired. ready / late / cold	جاهز / متأخر / برد	We weren't late.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the final /t/ in wasn't and weren't. Do not swallow it. The /t/ is what tells the listener the sentence is negative — drop it and you have said the opposite of what you meant.

- was ↔ wasn't · were ↔ weren't
- Say it slowly, then at speed, keeping the /t/ audible.

Target 2 — rising intonation on yes/no questions.

Were you at work? ↗ · Was it cold? ↗

The voice goes up at the end. A flat tone sounds like a statement, and your listener will not know you asked anything.

 Record & compare: "Were you at home last night? No, I wasn't."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The final /t/ is the priority — a dropped /t/ inverts the meaning. Then drill the rising tone in pairs, exaggerated first, then natural.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ

Exercise 1 — make it negative.

1. I was at the meeting. → _____
2. They were happy. → _____
3. It was expensive. → _____

Exercise 2 — make it a question.

1. You were at university. → _____
2. She was your teacher. → _____
3. They were at home. → _____

Exercise 3 — short answers.

1. Were you busy yesterday? → Yes, _____ / No, _____
2. Was the food good? → Yes, _____ / No, _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: wasn't at the meeting · weren't happy · wasn't expensive. Ex2: Were you at university? · Was she your teacher? · Were they at home? Ex3: Yes, I was / No, I wasn't · Yes, it was / No, it wasn't.

YOUR TURN — دورك

With a partner, run a mini-interview. Ask three past questions and answer theirs.

Useful openers: Were you...? · Was it...? · Where were you...?

 Record one exchange — your question and their answer.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: one correct question, one correct short answer, one negative, all intelligible. Pair a confident learner with a hesitant one.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Ask a classmate a Was/Were question in the community channel, and answer someone else's.
- Say your three sentences from L01 again, but make one of them negative.

REMEMBER — افكر

- wasn't · weren't — and the final /t/ is what makes it negative.
- Questions swap the verb and the subject. No do, no did.
- Short answers repeat the subject and verb: Yes, I was.
- (These forms come back in Unit 3 with did/didn't.)

SELF-CHECK — صحّح لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) I wasn't at the meeting · 2) They weren't happy · 3) It wasn't expensive
- Ex2: 1) Were you at university? · 2) Was she your teacher? · 3) Were they at home?
- Ex3: 1) Yes, I was / No, I wasn't · 2) Yes, it was / No, it wasn't

THERE WAS / THERE WERE — DESCRIBING A PAST PLACE

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 1 · Lesson 3 🕒 ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L02 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit1-was-and-were.md · S1-U1-L03

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback 1. Objectives: describe what existed in a past place with there was/were · use its negative and question forms · describe a real place from their own past. Watch for: plural agreement — "there was two windows" is the error to hunt. Drill with obviously plural nouns. Support: give a sentence frame plus a word bank. Stretch: add a feeling — "It was small but I was happy there." Arabic ~40%. This lesson is emotionally warm — people enjoy describing a childhood place. Use that.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Say what existed somewhere in the past: There was a small bed.
- Use the plural: There were two windows.
- Describe a real place from your own past in 3–4 sentences. 🗣️

هتوصف مكان من ماضيك — بيتك القديم، مدرستك، أو مكان زرتة.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

This is how people tell stories. "There was a small café near our house..." Describing a place is the frame that memories hang on, and it is one of the most common things you will ever be asked to do in English.

لما تحكي عن ذكرى، أول حاجة بتوصفها هي المكان.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01 and L02, say one sentence with was, one with weren't, and one question.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Rapid chain round the group. Keep it to one sentence each so the pace stays high.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Someone describes the room they grew up in (🏠 in the portal).

There was a small bed near the window. There were two old chairs and a wooden desk. There wasn't a television — we watched TV in the living room with everyone. It was a simple room, but I was happy there.

Notice: there was for one thing, there were for more than one.

English	بالعربي
There was a small bed.	كان فيه سرير صغير
There were two chairs.	كان فيه كرسيين
There wasn't a television.	ماكانش فيه تليفزيون
It was simple.	كان بسيط

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice; second time learners count how many things were singular and how many plural. That counting is what makes the agreement rule stick.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The rule is only about the noun that follows.

	Use	Example
one thing	there was	There was a chair.
more than one	there were	There were three chairs.

القاعدة بتبص على الاسم اللي بعدها: مفرد يبقى there was، جمع يبقى there were. مالهش دعوة بالفاعل.

Negative and question — same pattern as L02:

- There wasn't a lift in the building.
- There weren't any shops nearby.
- Was there a garden? → Yes, there was.
- Were there many people? → No, there weren't.

Quantity words that pair with it: a lot of · some · any · many · two, three...

في العربي بنقول "كان فيه" مع المفرد والجمع، فمفيش حاجة في لغتك بتنبيهك للفرق ده. عشان كده الغلطة دي بتتكرر كتير مع المتعلمين العرب. الحل إنك تبص على الاسم اللي بعد الفعل قبل ما تتكلم: لو أكثر من واحد، لازم there were.

⚠️ أشهر غلطة: "there was two windows". لو الاسم جمع، لازم there were. اسمع نفسك وانت بتتكلم.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Teach the table in English, then use Arabic only for the agreement warning. Drill five quick prompts with obviously plural nouns (windows, chairs, people, books, cars) — the error is a habit, not a misunderstanding, so it needs repetitions rather than explanation.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
There was / There were	كان فيه	There was a garden.
There wasn't / weren't	ماكانش فيه	There weren't any shops.
a lot of / some / any	كتير / شوية / أي	There were a lot of people. near / next to	جنب / قريب من	There was a café near us. old / small / simple	قديم / صغير / بسيط	It was a simple room. garden / building / shop	جنيئة / عمارة / دكان	There was a garden.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — linking there was into one smooth sound. Native speakers do not say three separate words. They say something close to "there-wuz-uh":

There was a... → there-wuz-a · There were a lot of... → there-wer-a-lot-of Target 2 — keep the singular and plural clearly different. Because was and were both shrink in fast speech, learners often blur them into the same sound. Keep the vowel distinct: was /wəz/ against were /wɜr/.

🎧 Record & compare: "There was a bed, and there were two chairs."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Drill the linking first, then immediately contrast the two forms in one sentence so the distinction survives the linking.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ*Exercise 1 — was or were?

1. There _____ a big tree in front of the house.
2. There _____ four people in the car.
3. There _____ a lot of noise.
4. There _____ two schools in our street.

Exercise 2 — make it negative.

1. There was a lift. → _____
2. There were any shops. → _____

Exercise 3 — ask the question.

1. (a garden) → _____
2. (many people) → _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: was · were · was · were. Ex2: There wasn't a lift · There weren't any shops. Ex3: Was there a garden? · Were there many people? Check agreement on every single answer.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Describe a real place from your past — your old home, your school, a place you visited. Use at least three sentences with there was or there were, and finish with how you felt about it.

Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: three sentences with correct there was/were agreement, intelligible. This one often produces genuinely warm recordings — worth keeping with consent.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post three sentences about a place you remember: "There was... / There were..."
 - Put one English cue somewhere in your room — a sticky note, a label, anything.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Look at the noun: singular → there was, plural → there were.
 - There wasn't · There weren't · Was there...? · Were there...?
 - Link it: there-wuz-a.
 - (there was/were comes back in Unit 8 for travel, and in Unit 10.)

SELF-CHECK — صحّح لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) was · 2) were · 3) was · 4) were
 - Ex2: 1) There wasn't a lift · 2) There weren't any shops
 - Ex3: 1) Was there a garden? · 2) Were there many people?

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 5 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback 1. Objectives: ask and answer How was...? · describe an experience with opinion adjectives · react naturally. Push for because + a reason here — it is the bridge from single sentences to connected A2 speech, and it is the one thing that most raises their fluency score. Support: one adjective plus one reaction is enough. Stretch: add because and a follow-up question. Arabic ~35% — down a notch. Reactions must be learned as sound, not translation.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Ask "How was your weekend?" and answer it properly.
- Describe an experience with opinion words: great · boring · tiring · delicious.
- React like a real person: Really? · That's great! · That's a pity. 🗣️

هتتعلم تسأل عن تجربة، وترد بإحساسك، وتتفاعل — مش بس تقول "fine".

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

"How was your weekend?" is probably the most common question in everyday English. Answering it with one word ends the conversation. Answering it with an opinion and a reason continues it.

الرد بكلمة واحدة بيوقف الكلام. الرد بإحساس وسبب بيفتحه.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

From L03, describe one place in two sentences using there was and there were.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Quick pair round. Listen for lingering plural-agreement slips and correct in passing.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two colleagues on a Sunday morning (📞 in the portal).

A: Hi! How was your weekend? B: It was great, thanks! I was with my family in Alexandria. A: Really? That's nice. How was the weather? B: It was hot, but the sea was beautiful. How was yours? A: Not bad. It was a bit boring, actually — I was at home all weekend. B: Oh, that's a pity.

Notice: every answer has an opinion word, and the other person always reacts before asking again.

English	بالعربي
How was your weekend?	إيه أخبار الويكند؟
It was great, thanks.	كان جميل، شكرًا
Really? That's nice.	جدًا؟ حلو
It was a bit boring.	كان ممل شوية
That's a pity.	يا خسارة

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time, learners mark the three reactions. Point out that B answers and asks back — that reciprocity is what makes it a conversation.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) The question is just was/were plus how.

- How was your weekend / your day / the food / the trip?
- How were the people / your exams?

نفس الفعل اللي اتعلمته، بس بنحط how قبله.

2) The answer is was/were plus an opinion word.

Positive	Negative	Neutral
great · fun · delicious · beautiful	boring · tiring · difficult · terrible	okay · not bad · quiet

It was tiring. · The food was delicious. · It was not bad.

3) Soften or strengthen it.

- a bit + negative word — It was a bit boring. (politer)
- really + any word — It was really good.

4) Add because + a reason. This is the step that makes you sound A2 rather than A1:

It was tiring because I worked on Saturday. It was great because I was with my family.

الفرق بين المستوى الأول والثاني هو السبب. لما تقول إحساسك وبعديها تقول ليه، بتبقى بتتكلم كلام متصل، مش جمل مقطعة. وده بالظبط اللي بيرفع تقييمك في الطلاقة. حتى لو السبب بسيط جدًا، قوله — المهم إنك تربط الجملتين بكلمة واحدة.

5) React before you reply.

They say	You react
something good	Really? • That's great! • That's nice.
something bad	Oh, that's a pity. • I'm sorry to hear that.

التفاعل مهم زي الرد نفسه. لو سكّ، الكلام بيوقف عندك.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Move fast — the grammar is already known. The new content is because, the softener a bit, and the reactions. Drill the reactions chorally so they become automatic sounds.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
How was...?	كان عامل إيه...؟	How was your day? great / fun	جميل / ممتع	It was great! boring / tiring	ممل / متعب	It was tiring. delicious	لذيذ	The food was delicious.
a bit / really	شوية / قوي	a bit boring
because	لأن	because I was busy
That's a pity.	يا خسارة	reaction

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — stress the opinion word, hard. The feeling lives in the adjective, so that is where your voice rises and lengthens:

It was GREAT! · It was a bit BORing. · The food was deLicious.

Say the sentence flat and it sounds insincere — as if you did not mean it.

Target 2 — the reaction "Really?" Stress the first syllable and let the tone rise: REALy? ↗

Flat and it sounds sarcastic. Rising and warm, it sounds interested.

Record & compare: "It was great, because I was with my family." — then "Really? That's nice!"

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Have them say "It was great" twice — once flat, once stressed — and ask which one they would believe. Then drill "Really?" until it sounds warm rather than flat.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — choose the opinion word.

1. I worked twelve hours. It was _____. (tiring / delicious)
2. The restaurant was excellent. The food was _____. (boring / delicious)
3. I was at home alone all day. It was a bit _____. (fun / boring)

Exercise 2 — add because and a reason.

1. My weekend was great _____.
2. Monday was difficult _____.

Exercise 3 — react.

1. "My weekend was wonderful!" → _____
2. "I was sick last week." → _____

Exercise 4 — full exchange. Write your own three-line dialogue: question, answer with a reason, reaction.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: tiring · delicious · boring. Ex2: accept any sensible reason with correct was/were. Ex3: Really? That's great! · Oh, that's a pity. / I'm sorry to hear that. Ex4: check the reaction is present — learners skip it first time.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

Talk for about one minute about a recent experience — a weekend, a trip, a day at work. Use was/were, an opinion word, and at least one because.

Then ask a partner "How was your...?" and react to their answer.

 Record your minute.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: a coherent mini-answer with an opinion and a reason, plus one natural reaction. The reason is the thing to insist on — accept imperfect grammar around it.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post: "My weekend was ___ because ___."
- React to one classmate's post — a real reaction, not just an emoji.

 REMEMBER — افكر

- How was...? plus an opinion word.
- because + a reason is what turns a sentence into a conversation.
- Soften with a bit, strengthen with really.
- Always react before you reply.
- (Opinion words and reactions come back in Unit 5 and Unit 9.)

 SELF-CHECK — صحّح لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) tiring · 2) delicious · 3) boring
- Ex3: 1) Really? That's great! · 2) Oh, that's a pity.

 · Prerequisite: L01–L04 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit1-was-and-were.md` · S1-U1-L05

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 5 · Model 4 · Checklist 4 · Accent clinic 4 · Rehearse 7 · Record 4 · Feedback 2 · Assign 1. Objectives: give a connected 5–7 sentence past account · ask a partner about their weekend and react · record the Unit-1 milestone. This is the first "I can talk about my past in English" moment. Make it feel big — it is a visible level-up from Stage 0 and it pairs well as a mid-journey proof clip. Support: five sentences with the card in hand. Stretch: add a because reason and a question back. Arabic ~30% — fading. Instructions and reassurance only.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (MILESTONE)

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Give a connected account of your weekend in 5–7 sentences.
- Combine everything from this unit: was/were · there was/were · time words · feelings.
- Ask someone about their weekend and react.
- Record your Unit-1 past account. 🎤

النهاردة تجمع كل حاجة اتعلمتها في الوحدة في حكاية واحدة متصلة.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن (سلسلة)

Rapid chain — one each, no pausing: was/were → a question → there was/were → How was it?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Fast retrieval round the whole group. This is the testing effect doing the consolidation for you, so keep the pace uncomfortable rather than comfortable.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A clean model account (📞 in the portal).

Last weekend was really good. On Friday I was at my parents' house in Cairo. There were a lot of people — all my cousins were there. My mother cooked, and the food was delicious. On Saturday I was tired, so I was at home all day. It was a quiet weekend, but I was happy.

Seven sentences. Every one uses was, were, or there were.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once for enjoyment, once for structure. Ask them to count the sentences — seven feels achievable, which matters more than the grammar right now.

THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست الحكي الكويس

1.  When — Last weekend... / On Friday...
2.  Where you were — I was at...
3.  Who with — I was with... / ...were there
4.  What was there — There was... / There were...
5.  How it was — It was... because...
6.  A question back — How was your weekend?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Break the model into these six boxes on the board, then hand out the card. Learners who have the card in front of them produce noticeably longer accounts.

ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your one weakest sound from this unit:

- /w/ in was · were — lips rounded, no /v/.
- Weak was /wəz/ — let it shrink so the adjective can carry the stress.
- Final /t/ in wasn't · weren't — it is what makes the sentence negative.
- Opinion stress — It was GREAT.

 Record & compare just your weakest one, three times.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Personalised, using the flag you noted in L01–L04. One sound each, not four.

YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

Rehearse with the checklist and a partner, then record.

Give your weekend account in 5–7 sentences — when, where, who with, what was there, how it was — and finish by asking your partner about theirs.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min recording + 2 feedback. Rehearse in pairs first; the second attempt is always markedly better, so record that one. Success check (Unit-1): connected 5–7 sentence past account, intelligible, correct was/were (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation at A2). Compare privately against their Stage-0 graduation clip — the jump is usually obvious and worth telling them about.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your weekend account.
- Complete the Unit-1 quiz.
- Listen to your Stage-0 recording, then to today's. Notice the difference.

REMEMBER — افكر (UNIT 1 WRAP)

- am/is → was · are → were. Two forms.
- wasn't · weren't — keep the final /t/.
- Questions swap the verb and subject. Short answers repeat them.
- there was for one thing, there were for more.
- because + a reason is what makes it sound A2.
- (All of it returns in Unit 2 with regular past verbs.)

SELF-CHECK — UNIT 1 MINI-QUIZ

1. We ___ at home yesterday. → were

🎉 UNIT 1 COMPLETE — أول وحدة في المستوى الجديد

You can now talk about the past. A month ago you could only describe this moment; now you can tell someone about your weekend, your childhood room, and how you felt about both.

Next → Unit 2: The Past (2) — Regular Verbs. The -ed ending, and the Accent Lab focus that comes with it. 🏰

THE PAST (2): REGULAR VERBS

👑 UNIT 2 — THE PAST (2): REGULAR VERBS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 2 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit2-past-regular-verbs.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 2 you'll say what you did — put -ed on any regular verb, pronounce all three endings correctly, spell them right, and narrate your day in order. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: تحكي عملت إيه، بترتيب، وبنطق وإملاء صح.

Why this follows Unit 1: was and were describe states — where you were, how you felt. This unit gives you actions, and actions are what stories are made of. One ending unlocks thousands of verbs.

قاعدة واحدة، وكل الأفعال العادية بتبقى تحت إيدك.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	Yesterday I worked	verb + -ed for all persons · ago
L02	The -ed sound ★	hear and produce /t/ · /d/ · /ɪd/ · sort any verb into its group
L03	Spelling rules	stopped · studied · lived — doubling, y→ied , drop- e
L04	Sequencing a day	first · then · after that · finally · narrate 4–6 sentences in order
L05	"What did you do yesterday?" (milestone) 🎙️	a 6–8 sentence narration + record your milestone

Grammar spine: past simple regular (affirmative) · -ed spelling · ago · sequence words. Accent Lab: ★ the three -ed endings — this is the flagship pronunciation lesson of the stage. Mindset: habit-stacking — attach English to something you already do every day. Arabic support: ~40% at L01, fading to ~30% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-2 "my day" narration — the first recording where you tell rather than describe.
- The three -ed endings, which every past sentence you ever say will use.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L02 and L05 run ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. L02 is the highest-value lesson in the stage. Arabic speakers insert a full vowel into every -ed, so worked becomes three syllables. Because regular verbs appear in every past sentence they will ever speak, that one habit repeats a hundred times a day. Teach perception before production — an ending they cannot hear yet is an ending they can only guess at. The errors to hunt, in order: dropping -ed entirely (L01), the inserted vowel (L02), y→ied and the doubling rule (L03), and endings collapsing once sentences get longer (L04–L05). Do not hold L05 hostage to perfect endings. They need many more reps across later units; the milestone is the narration. L05 is a proof asset. Capture it with consent and hold it beside the Unit-1 recording — states against actions is an easy difference for a learner to hear in themselves.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: form the regular past · choose the -ed sound group · spelling rules · order a scrambled sequence.
- Speaking task: the L05 narration, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold), with a specific eye on endings.
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + each learner's -ed group error) and the proof timeline.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 3 — THE PAST (3): IRREGULAR VERBS & QUESTIONS

the verbs that refuse -ed, plus did / didn't and the questions that turn narration into conversation.

Do not chase pronunciation yet; that is L02's whole job. Support: hand them the verb bank plus the frame. Stretch: add a time expression and a because reason. Arabic ~40%. Unit 1 gave them a past tense with two forms; this one gives them a past tense for every verb, which is a much bigger door.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Put -ed on a regular verb to talk about the past: work → worked.

في الوحدة اللي فاتت اتعلمت تقول إنت كنت فين. دلوقتي هتقول إنت عملت إيه.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

was and were only describe states. This lesson gives you actions — and actions are what stories are made of.

One ending on the end of a verb, and any regular verb moves into the past. You do not memorise a new form for each verb, and nothing changes for he or she.

قاعدة واحدة بتفتحلك آلاف الأفعال، ودي أسهل قاعدة في الإنجليزي كله فاستغلها.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From Unit 1: Where were you yesterday? Answer in one sentence.

Now notice what you could not say yet — what you actually did.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Two or three answers aloud, then name the gap explicitly. Learners engage far better with a rule when they have just felt its absence.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Someone describes an ordinary evening (📺 in the portal).

Yesterday I worked until six. Then I cooked dinner and watched TV with my family. My brother called me at ten. I finished the day early — I wanted to sleep.

Notice: every action verb ends in -ed. Six verbs, one ending.

English	بالعربي
I worked until six.	اشتغلت لحد ستة
Then I cooked dinner.	بعد كده عملت العشا
He called me.	كلمني
I finished early.	خلصت بدري

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners count the -ed verbs. Do not correct pronunciation of the endings yet — noticing the pattern is today's win.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The rule is one line: regular verb + -ed.

Present	Past
work	worked watch	watched
cook	cooked
call	called
finish	finished

And the form is the same for every person. Say all five aloud and hear that nothing changes:

I worked • you worked • he worked • we worked • they worked

Unlike the present tense, there is no extra -s for he or she. This is the simplest tense in English.

مفيش تغيير حسب الفاعل زي المضارع، وده بيوفر عليك مجهود كبير.

Compare with the present:

- I work every day. → habit, now
- I worked yesterday. → finished, in the past

الفكرة اللي لازم تستقر في دماغك إن الـ ed دي علامة وقت، مش مجرد حرفين في آخر الكلمة. لما بتقولها، إنت بتقول للسامع إن الحدث خلص وانتهى. وعشان كده لو نسيته، الجملة بتتحول من حاجة حصلت امبارح لحاجة بتعملها كل يوم، والمعنى بيتغير تمامًا. ودي أهم نقطة في الدرس، لأنها بتتكرر مع كل فعل هتتعلمه بعد كده.

⚠ الغلطة المتوقعة النهاردة: إنك تنسى الـ ed. ساعتها السامع بي فهمها عادة، مش امبارح.

Using ago — count backwards from now. It goes after the period of time, never before it:

- ✅ *two days ago • a week ago • three years ago
- ❌ ago two days*

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Teach the single form first and make them say all five persons aloud — the sameness is genuinely reassuring at this level. Then contrast present against past, then ago word order.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
worked / finished	اشتغلت / خلصت	I worked late. cooked / cleaned	طبخت / نظفت	She cooked dinner. watched / listened	اتفرجت / سمعت	We watched a film. called / talked	كلمت / اتكلمت	He called me. studied / visited	درست / زرت	I visited my aunt.
... ago	فات	two days ago
until	لحد	I worked until six.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

A first taste of the three -ed sounds. Say these and listen to how the endings differ:

worked · played · visited

They are not the same sound. One is a /t/, one is a /d/, and one adds a whole syllable.

Today, one rule only: do not add an extra vowel. worked is one syllable — not "work-ed".

النقطة الوحيدة النهاردة: ماتزودش حركة في آخر الفعل. الكلمة تفضل مقطع واحد.

Record & compare: "Yesterday I worked and cooked."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Deliberately shallow — the full three-way sort is L02. Today just kill the inserted vowel, which is the habit that makes -ed verbs hard to understand.

TRAIN — تدرب

Exercise 1 — make it past.

1. I _____ (work) on Saturday.
2. She _____ (cook) a big meal.
3. They _____ (watch) the match.

4. We _____ (finish) at nine.

Exercise 2 — present or past?

1. I _____ English every morning. (study — habit)
2. I _____ English for two hours yesterday. (study — past)

Exercise 3 — put ago in the right place.

1. I visited Cairo (three years) → _____
2. She called me (ten minutes) → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. Three things you did yesterday.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: worked · cooked · watched · finished. Ex2: study · studied. Ex3: three years ago · ten minutes ago. Ex4: check the ending is present in writing — that is the target, not the sound.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Say three true things you did yesterday, then add one thing you did a long time ago.

 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: three correct regular past forms, intelligible, -ed audible as a consonant. Note who inserts a vowel — they are your L02 priority group.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post: "Yesterday I ____, ____, and ____." using three regular verbs.
- Stack the habit: attach your twenty minutes to something you already do daily — after coffee, after the commute, after prayer. A new habit needs an old one to lean on.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Regular verb + -ed, and the form is the same for every person.
- Do not drop the ending: worked, not work.
- ago comes after the time: two days ago.

- Keep it one syllable — no extra vowel.
 - (The three -ed sounds are next lesson.)

✓ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 4 · Perceive 6 · Decode 7 · Accent Lab 8 · Guided 5 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1 · Assign 1. Objectives: hear and produce the three endings · sort verbs into the three groups · use them correctly in sentences. This is the highest-value pronunciation lesson in the stage. Arabic speakers add a full vowel to every -ed, so worked becomes "work-ed" — three syllables where there should be one. It affects every regular verb they will ever say, so it is worth the extra five minutes. Perception before production. Do not let them produce until they can reliably hear the difference; producing an ending you cannot hear just installs a guess. Support: master killing the extra vowel first, then /t/ against /d/. Ignore /Id/ until those land. Stretch: self-correct inside connected speech. Arabic ~35% — the voiced/voiceless idea needs Arabic, the drilling does not.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Hear the difference between worked /t/, played /d/, and visited /Id/.
- Sort any regular verb into the right sound group.
- Say past verbs so a listener understands them the first time. 🎧

نفس الحروف ed- بتتنطق بتلات طرق مختلفة. ودي مش تفاصيل — دي الفرق بين إن حد يفهمك من أول مرة أو لا.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

English writes the past one way and says it three ways. Most Arabic speakers add a full vowel to every ending, so worked comes out as three syllables instead of one.

والمشكلة إن الأفعال دي بتيجي في كل جملة ماضي، فالغلطة بتتكرر مية مرة في الكلام. وأصعب حاجة إنك ماتسمعهاش في نفسك، فبتفضل تتكرر من غير ما تحس.

Regular verbs appear in almost every past sentence you will ever speak. Fix this once and all of them get clearer at the same time — which is why this lesson gets its own star, and five extra minutes.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01, say five regular verbs in the past — any five.

Keep them in your head; you are about to sort them.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Collect five on the board from the group. They become the sorting material, which makes the rule feel discovered rather than delivered.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف (LISTEN ONLY)

Three groups. Just listen and feel the difference (🔊 in the portal).

Group 1: worked · watched · stopped · helped · talked Group 2: played · cleaned · listened · called · stayed Group 3: visited · wanted · started · needed · waited Group 1 ends in a /t/. Group 2 ends in a /d/. Group 3 adds a whole extra syllable, /ɪd/.

Count the syllables: worked = 1 · played = 1 · visited = 3.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Perception only — hold them back from repeating. Play each group twice, then mix and have them point to a group. They must be able to hear it before they try to say it.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The ending you use depends on the sound just before it.

If the verb ends in...	the -ed is	Examples
a voiceless sound (k, p, s, sh, ch, f)	/t/	worked · stopped · watched · helped a voiced sound or a vowel (l, n, r, v, b, g, y...)	/d/	played · cleaned · called · listened
/t/ or /d/	/ɪd/	visited · wanted · started · needed

يعني إيه voiced و voiceless؟ حط إيدك على رقبتك وقول s طويلة — مفيش رعشة، فده صوت مهموس. بعدين قول z — هتحس رعشة، فده صوت مجهور. والقاعدة إن آخر الفعل بيقرر على الـ ed- تمشي معاه.

Your mouth already does this — it is easier to keep the voicing the same than to switch it mid-word.

يعني إنت مش بتحفظ قاعدة، إنت بتلاحظ حاجة بقك بيعملها لوحده.

⚠️ الجروب الثالث بس هو اللي بياخد مقطع زيادة، لأن الفعل خالص بـ t أو d. في أي حالة تانية مفيش حركة.

Two identical consonants cannot sit together, so a vowel has to separate them. Everywhere else, the ending is a single consonant with no vowel at all.

The quick test: can you say the ending without opening your mouth again? If yes, it is /t/ or /d/. If the word would jam, it is /ɪd/.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Teach voiced/voiceless with the hand-on-throat test in Arabic — it is a physical idea and lands instantly.

Then let them predict the group for five new verbs before you confirm. Emphasise that /ɪd/ is the narrow case, not the default.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك (RECALL)

Group	Sound	Verbs
after voiceless	/t/	worked · watched · stopped · helped · talked · finished after voiced / vowel	/d/	played · cleaned · called · listened · stayed · studied after t / d	/ɪd/	visited · wanted · started · needed · waited · decided

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق (THE SORT)

Step 1 — sort these fifteen verbs into the three columns. Say each one as you place it.

cooked · played · wanted · walked · cleaned · started · helped · listened · visited talked · called · needed · finished · stayed · waited

Step 2 — say each column as a chain, keeping the rhythm even:

- /t/ · cooked, walked, helped, talked, finished
- /d/ · played, cleaned, listened, called, stayed
- /ɪd/ · wanted, started, visited, needed, waited

Step 3 — the mixed sentence. This is the real test:

I worked, then I played with my son, and later I visited my mother.

Three verbs, three different endings, one breath.

Record & compare the mixed sentence. Listen for the extra vowel you are trying to remove.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~8 min. The full sort, out loud, then the mixed sentence with record-and-compare. Circulate during step 1 — the sorting is where you hear who has the rule and who is guessing. Answers: /t/ cooked, walked, helped, talked, finished · /d/ played, cleaned, listened, called, stayed · /ɪd/ wanted, started, visited, needed, waited.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — which sound? Write /t/, /d/ or /ɪd/.

1. stopped _____ 2. decided _____ 3. cleaned _____ 4. watched _____ 5. waited _____ 6. studied _____

Exercise 2 — count the syllables.

• worked _____ · wanted _____ · played _____ · started _____

Exercise 3 — say it, then check. Read aloud, then verify each ending:

She called me, I waited, and then we walked home.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Ex1: /t/ · /ɪd/ · /d/ · /t/ · /ɪd/ · /d/. Ex2: 1 · 2 · 1 · 2. Ex3: called /d/, waited /ɪd/, walked /t/ — all three groups in one sentence.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Retell yesterday using at least three verbs from different groups.

Record it, then listen back once and mark any ending you added a vowel to.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: three endings from three groups, produced correctly in connected speech. Log each learner's habitual wrong group — that flag drives the L05 clinic.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post a voice note with one verb from each group, and say which sound each one is.
 - Two minutes a day beats twenty minutes on Friday. These endings need reps, not study.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Voiceless → /t/ · voiced or vowel → /d/ · after t/d → /ɪd/.
 - Only the third group adds a syllable.
 - worked is one syllable. visited is three.

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 7 · Accent Lab 3 · Train 7 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback —. Objectives: spell the regular past correctly (doubling · y→i · drop-e) · write 4–5 correct sentences · self-check with the rule card.

Do not overload. Most learners take "just add -ed" immediately. Spend your time on y→ied and the doubling rule, which produce nearly all the errors. Support: rule card plus worked examples in front of them. Stretch: a 4–5 sentence mini-diary of last weekend. Arabic ~35%. The doubling rule needs Arabic; the practice does not.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Spell the past correctly: stop → stopped · study → studied · live → lived.
- Know which rule applies before you write.
- Write 4–5 correct past sentences and check them yourself. 🗣️

النطق ظبطناه في الدرس اللي فات. النهاردة الكتابة.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Everything you write gets read by someone — a work message, a comment, an exam. A slip like "stoped" reads as beginner even when your speaking is solid.

والحاجة الحلوة إن القواعد ثلاثة بس، وأغلب الأفعال مش محتاجة أي واحدة فيهم.

Three small rules, and then everything else is simply +ed.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

Say and spell three regular past verbs from L01 and L02.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Spelling aloud, letter by letter. It surfaces exactly who guesses.

 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Read this short paragraph and underline every past verb.

Last weekend I stopped working early. I studied for two hours, then I tidied my room. Later I lived the quiet life — I cooked, I watched a film, and I planned my week.

Notice: stopped has two ps. studied and tidied end in -ied. lived dropped its e. cooked and watched just added -ed.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Learners underline, then group the verbs by what happened to the spelling before you name the rules. The categories are visible in the data.

 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Rule 1 — double the last letter when the verb ends consonant · vowel · consonant and the last part is stressed.

stop → stop ped	plan → plan ned
stop = C-V-C	stop carries the stress

القاعدة بتشغل لما الفعل يخلص بـ ساكن + علة + ساكن، والمقطع الأخير عليه نبرة.

Why the letter doubles: it protects the short vowel inside. Written "stoped", a reader would say it with a long vowel, like "hoped". The double letter is a signal that the vowel stays short.

Rule 2 — y becomes ied after a consonant.

- study → studied · try → tried · tidy → tidied
- But: after a vowel, keep the y — play → played · stay → stayed

خلي بالك: الفرق كله في الحرف اللي قبل ال y. لو ساكن، ال y بتتحول لـ i وبكتب ied. لو حرف علة، بنسيبها زي ما هي ونضيف ed عادي. بص على الحرف اللي قبلها قبل ما تكتب، وماتخمنش.

Rule 3 — drop the silent e.

- live → lived · arrive → arrived · decide → decided الـ الساكنة في الآخر بتوقع، عشان ماينفعش نكتب ee ورا بعض. فبنشيلها ونحط ed مكانها.

Everything else — just add -ed. work → worked · clean → cleaned · visit → visited

Most verbs land here, so the three rules above are the exceptions rather than the norm.

وأسهل طريقة إنك تحفظ مثال واحد لكل قاعدة، وترجع له دائماً وقت الشك بدل ما تخمّن.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Teach Rule 1 with the Arabic explanation of why the letter doubles — learners who understand it stop guessing. Rules 2 and 3 are mechanical and need only examples.

 YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

Rule	English	بالعربي	Example
double	stop → stopped	وقف	I stopped early. double	plan → planned	خطّط	We planned the trip.
y → ied	study → studied	درس	She studied all night.
y → ied	try → tried	حاول	I tried twice.
keep y	play → played	لعب	They played football. drop e	live → lived	عاش	He lived in Cairo.
drop e	arrive → arrived	وصل	We arrived late.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق*Changing the spelling does not change the sound.

- stopped* still ends in /t/ — the extra p is silent.
- studied* still ends in /d/.
- decided* still ends in /ɪd/, because the verb ends in d.

الحرف المزدوج مش بيتنطق مرتين. الإملاء اتغيرت، الصوت زي ما هو.

 Record & compare: "I stopped, I studied, and I decided." — /t/, /d/, /ɪd/.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Short and pointed. Learners commonly start pronouncing the doubled letter once they see it.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ

Exercise 1 — spell the past.

1. stop → _____ 2. study → _____ 3. live → _____
 2. play → _____ 5. plan → _____ 6. try → _____

1. arrived _____ 2. tidied _____ 3. watched _____ 4. planned _____

Exercise 3 — find and fix the mistake.

1. I stoped at the shop. → _____
 2. She studyed all evening. → _____
 3. We arrivved late. → _____

Exercise 4 — write four sentences about last week, one for each rule.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: stopped · studied · lived · played · planned · tried. Ex2: drop e · y→ied · just -ed · double. Ex3: stopped · studied · arrived. Ex4: peer-check with the rule card before you collect.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Write four sentences about last week, using a different spelling rule in each, then read them aloud.

 Record one of them — the one you found hardest to spell.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct spelling across the rule types, and the L02 sounds still intact.

📋 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your four sentences, one per rule, plus a voice note.
 - Track your reps: one tick on a paper or a note for every day you practise. Seeing the row of ticks is what keeps it going.

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Narrate your day in 4–6 connected sentences.
- Follow someone else's sequence and put the events in order. 🎧

عندك الأفعال، وعندك النطق والإملاء. ناقص إنك تربطهم في حكاية مترتبة.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

الفرق بين حد بيقول جمل متفرقة وحد بيحكي فعلاً هو الترتيب.

Say "First I worked, then I cooked" and your listener walks through the time with you, step by step, at no effort. Drop the linking words and they have to reassemble the order themselves — which makes you harder to follow even when every single word is correct.

Sequence words are cheap to learn and they instantly make you sound organised.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

From L02 and L03: say four regular past verbs, with the right ending and the right spelling.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Fast round. Correct endings in passing — the reps are the point.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Listen to someone describe yesterday, then put the events in order (📁 in the portal).

First I cleaned the kitchen. Then I studied for an hour. After that I called my brother. Later I watched a film. Finally I finished my report and stopped for the night.

Events: studied · cleaned · watched · called · finished — what was the real order?

English	بالعربي
First...	الأول...
Then...	بعدين...
After that...	بعد كده...
Later...	بعد شوية...
Finally...	وفي الآخر...

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play once; learners number the events. Play again to confirm. The ordering task forces them to actually process the sequence words rather than skim past them.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Where the sequence words go: at the front of the sentence, with a comma.

First, I cleaned the kitchen. Then, I studied.

In speech the comma is a small pause, and that pause is what makes you easy to follow.

Word	Use it for
First	the opening action
Then • After that • Next	each following action
Later	something further away in time
Finally	the last action

⚠️ خلي بالك: then بتربط خطوة بخطوة، لكن finally بتتقال مرة واحدة بس في آخر الحكاية. لو قلتها في النص السامع هيفتكر إنك خلصت، وبعدين يتلخبط لما تكمل.

استخدم First مرة واحدة في الأول، وبعدها كرر then و after that زي ما تحب — مش لازم تنوع في كل جملة، والتكرار هنا مش عيب.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Keep it brief — the words are transparent. The two things worth saying are the front position with a pause, and that finally is single-use.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
first	الأول	First, I woke up.

after that	بعد كده	After that, I studied. next	وبعدها	Next, I called him. later	بعد شوية	Later, I watched TV.
finally	وفي الآخر	Finally, I stopped.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Rhythm: the beat lands on the verb, not on the sequence word.

First I CLEANED the kitchen, then I STUDIED.

Give a small pause after the sequence word, then hit the verb. Sequence words are signposts — say them lightly and move on.

النبرة على الفعل، والوقف الصغيرة بعد كلمة الترتيب.

Record & compare: "First I worked, then I cooked, and after that I rested."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Model a version with the stress wrongly on then — it sounds robotic, and hearing that makes the correct rhythm obvious.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — put the story in order. Number 1–5.

- _____ Then I studied for an hour.
- _____ Finally, I watched a film.
- _____ First, I cleaned my room.
- _____ Later, I cooked dinner.
- _____ After that, I called my sister.

Exercise 2 — join these into one sequence. Add sequence words.

I woke up. I walked to work. I finished at five. I visited my aunt.

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

First I worked. Finally I cooked. Then I studied. Finally I slept.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: 2 · 5 · 1 · 4 · 3. Ex2: accept any correct ordering with at least three sequence words. Ex3: finally appears twice — only the last action keeps it.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Narrate your yesterday in 4–6 sentences, using at least three sequence words and correct -ed endings.

 Record it.TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: a coherent ordered narration, 4–6 sentences, endings intact under the pressure of longer speech. Endings often slip once sentences get longer — note who, for L05.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post a 4–6 sentence "my day yesterday" using sequence words.
- Stack it: do your English right after a fixed daily anchor, not "sometime today".

 REMEMBER — افكر

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 5 · Model 4 · Checklist 4 · Accent clinic 4 · Rehearse 7 · Record 5 · Feedback 2 · Assign —. Objectives: narrate 6–8 sentences with correct regular past, endings and sequencing · ask a partner about their day · record the Unit-2 narration. Celebrate that they can now narrate. The endings will not be perfect and that is fine — keep re-drilling in later units rather than holding this milestone hostage to them. Support: six sentences with the card. Stretch: add a because reason and a question back. Arabic ~30% — fading. Instructions and encouragement only.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (MILESTONE)

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Narrate what you did in 6–8 connected sentences.
- Keep the -ed endings right while you speak at length.
- Ask someone about their day and respond.
- Record your Unit-2 narration. 🎤

النهاردة تجمع كل حاجة: الأفعال، النطق، الإملاء، والترتيب — في حكاية واحدة.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن (سلسلة)

Rapid chain, no pausing: a regular verb → its -ed sound → a spelling rule → a sequence word.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Fast retrieval across all four lessons. Keep the pace slightly uncomfortable — that is what makes it consolidate.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A clean narration (📞 in the portal).

First, I started work at eight. I worked until two, and then I walked home because the traffic stopped completely. After that I cooked lunch and called my mother. Later I studied English for thirty minutes. Finally I watched one episode and finished the day early. It was a normal day, but a good one.

Eight sentences. Count the endings: how many /t/, how many /d/, how many /ɪd/?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once for flow, once for endings. The counting task keeps L02 alive inside a fluency lesson, which is where endings usually collapse.

🧩 THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست الحكي الكويس

1. ✅ Three or more regular verbs in the past
2. ✅ Correct endings — /t/ · /d/ · /ɪd/
3. ✅ Two or more sequence words — first · then · after that · finally
4. ✅ A time or a feeling — at eight · it was tiring
5. ★ A reason with because
6. ★ A question back — What did you do yesterday?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Put the checklist on the board and hand out the card. Learners holding the card produce visibly longer and better-ordered narrations.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your weakest ending group from this unit:

- /t/ after voiceless — worked · watched · stopped · helped
- /d/ after voiced or a vowel — played · cleaned · called · studied
- /ɪd/ after t or d — visited · wanted · started · needed

Then say the mixed sentence three times: "I worked, I played, I visited." 🎧 Record & compare your weakest group only.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Personalised from the flags you logged in L02 and L04. One group each, not all three.

YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

Rehearse with the checklist and a partner, then record.

Narrate what you did yesterday in 6–8 sentences — three or more regular verbs, correct endings, at least two sequence words — and finish by asking your partner about their day.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. Rehearse in pairs first and record the second attempt. Success check (Unit-2): connected 6–8 sentence narration, correct regular past, endings mostly accurate (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation at A2). Give feedback at group level on endings — naming individuals here deflates a milestone.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your narration.
- Complete the Unit-2 quiz.
- Play your Unit-1 recording, then this one. Unit 1 was states; this is actions.

REMEMBER — افكر (UNIT 2 WRAP)

- Regular verb + -ed, same form for every person.
- Three endings: voiceless → /t/ · voiced or vowel → /d/ · after t/d → /ɪd/.
- Three spellings: double · y→ied · drop e — everything else just takes -ed.
- first · then · after that · finally turn sentences into a story.
- (All of it returns in Unit 3 with irregular verbs and questions.)

SELF-CHECK — UNIT 2 MINI-QUIZ

1. Yesterday I ____ (work) late. → worked
2. The -ed in wanted is → /ɪd/
3. The -ed in cleaned is → /d/
4. stop in the past → stopped

5. study in the past → studied

6. Which word comes last in a sequence? → finally

🎉 UNIT 2 COMPLETE — بقيت تحكي

You can now say what you did, in order, with the endings a listener expects. Two units ago you could only describe this moment.

Next → Unit 3: The Past (3) — Irregular Verbs & Questions. The verbs that refuse to take -ed, and how to ask "What did you do?" 🏰

Empire English 🏰 — من جمل متفرقة لحكاية كاملة

THE PAST (3): IRREGULAR VERBS & QUESTIONS

👑 UNIT 3 — THE PAST (3): IRREGULAR VERBS & QUESTIONS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 3 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit3-past-irregular-and-questions.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 3 you'll tell stories — use the ten most common irregular verbs, ask and answer past questions, say what didn't happen, and narrate a real event. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: تحكي حكاية حقيقية، وتسأل غيرك عن ماضيه.

Why this closes the block: Unit 1 gave you past states, Unit 2 gave you past actions with -ed. This unit adds the verbs that refuse -ed, and — more importantly — the ability to ask. That is what turns narration into conversation.

بعد الوحدة دي تبقى خلصت الماضي بكل صيغه.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	Irregular verbs (1)	went · had · did · saw · ate — and why they take no -ed
L02	Irregular verbs (2)	bought · got · came · made · took · the silent gh
L03	did · didn't	ask and negate the past — the base verb after did
L04	Telling a story	One day · Suddenly · In the end · a 5–7 sentence true story
L05	Last holiday (milestone) 🎙️	a 7–9 sentence narration + a live follow-up + record your milestone

Grammar spine: irregular past · did / didn't for questions and negatives · story connectors. Accent Lab: main-verb stress · the vowels in went · saw · ate · bought · weak did against crisp didn't · narrative rhythm.

Mindset: environment design, then your input diet — one show, not five. Arabic support: ~35% at L01, fading to ~25% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-3 story — the first recording where you tell something that happened to you.
- The did/didn't rule, which makes every past question you will ever ask correct.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L03 and L05 run ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. This unit closes the past-tense block begun in Unit 1 — the single biggest milestone of A2. L03 is the priority lesson. Keeping the past form after did — "Did you went?" — is the most common A2 error there is, and it appears in every past question a learner will ever ask. Drill it to reflex. The mental model that fixes it: the past is said once in the sentence, and did already said it. Expect over-regularisation in L01–L02 (goed, eated). It is evidence the -ed rule landed, not evidence of failure — correct warmly and re-expose. Ten irregulars is the right number for A2; resist handing out a fifty-verb table. In L04, correct almost nothing mid-story. Stories are the fluency engine; interrupting them teaches hesitation. Note the two patterned errors and give them as delayed group feedback. L05 is a proof asset, and the best one so far — play it beside the learner's Stage-0 clip.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: irregular past forms · spot the "Did you went?" error · wh- past questions · order a scrambled story.
- Speaking task: the L05 narration, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold), with an eye on did + base verb and irregular accuracy.
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + weak irregulars and endings) and the proof timeline.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 4 — FUTURE PLANS be going to and will — the stage pivots from what happened to what is coming.

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: use five high-frequency irregular past forms · mix regular and irregular in one account · recognise that irregulars take no -ed. Expect "goed" and "eated", and do not treat them as failure. Over-regularising is a sign the learner has internalised the -ed rule and is applying it faithfully. Correct warmly and re-expose; frequency builds the memory, not explanation. Support: verb card in hand. Stretch: combine with regular verbs and a sequence word. Arabic ~35%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Use five past forms that break the rule: went · had · did · saw · ate.
- Mix them with the -ed verbs you already know.
- Say three true past sentences using at least two of them. 🎤

في الوحدة اللي فاتت كل الأفعال كانت بتأخذ -ed. النهاردة هتقابل الأفعال اللي بترفض القاعدة.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Irregular verbs are few in number but they are the most used verbs in the language. go, have, see and eat appear in almost everything anyone says, so you cannot tell a story without them.

The good news is that A2 needs only about ten of them, and they stick through hearing and repetition rather than through memorising a table.

بتتخفظ بالسمع والتكرار، مش بالحفظ من ورقة.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From Unit 2, say four regular past verbs with their correct endings.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Quick round. Keeps the -ed endings alive while you introduce verbs that refuse them.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Someone describes a good day (📺 in the portal).

Yesterday I went to work early. At one o'clock I had lunch with a friend. After work I saw a film with my wife, and we ate dinner at a small restaurant. I did nothing else — it was enough.

Notice: not one of those verbs ends in -ed. They change shape completely.

English	بالعربي
I went to work.	رحت الشغل
I had lunch.	اتغديت
I saw a film.	شفت فيلم
We ate dinner.	اتعشينا

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners try to guess each present form. The guessing exposes the irregularity far better than a table does.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

These five verbs have their own past form. There is no rule — there is a list.

Present	Past
go	went have	had do	did see	saw
eat	ate

ماتحاولش تلاقي قاعدة، لأن مفيش. الأفعال دي شكلها بيتغير تمامًا، ولازم تتحفظ زي ما هي. وأسرع طريقة إنك تقولها في جمل حقيقية عن نفسك، مش تكررهما لوحدها — العقل بيمسك الكلمة أحسن لما تكون في سياق.

And they never take -ed:

- ✓ I went to work. → ✗ I goed to work.
- ✓ We ate dinner. → ✗ We eated dinner.

لو قلت "goed" أو "eated"، ده معناه إنك فهمت قاعدة الـ ed- صح وبتطبقها. المشكلة بس إن الأفعال دي استثناء. الحل التكرار، مش المراجعة.

Careful with did. It is the past of do, and it is also the question word you will meet in L03:

- I did my homework. → the verb
- Where did you go? → the question helper (L03)

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Present the list, drill it orally, then contrast against a regular verb so the difference is felt. Flag did as doing two jobs but do not teach the question use yet — that is L03.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
go → went	رحت	I went home. have → had	كان عندي / اتغديت	I had lunch. do → did	عملت	I did my work. see → saw	شفت	I saw my friend. eat → ate	اكلت	We ate together. early / late	بدري / متأخر	I went early. enough	كفاية	It was enough.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — stress the main verb. In a past sentence the verb carries the beat:

I WENT to work. · We ATE dinner. · I SAW a film.

Target 2 — keep these three vowels clean and distinct:

Verb	Sound	Watch out
went	/e/ — short, like bed	not "wint"
saw	/ɔ:/ — long and open	not "so"
ate	/eɪ/ — like eight	not "at"

الفروق الصغيرة في حروف العلة دي هي اللي بتخلي الكلمة تتفهم من أول مرة.

 Record & compare: "I went out, I saw a friend, and we ate together."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Verb stress first, then the three vowels as minimal contrasts. saw is usually the weakest.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — past form.

1. go → _____ 2. see → _____ 3. eat → _____ 4. have → _____ 5. do → _____

Exercise 2 — find and fix the mistake.

1. Yesterday I goed to the market. → _____

2. We eated at eight. → _____

3. I seed him yesterday. → _____

Exercise 3 — regular or irregular? Put each past form in the right column.

worked · went · cooked · saw · had · watched · ate

Exercise 4 — true for you. Two sentences using two different irregular verbs.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: went · saw · ate · had · did. Ex2: went · ate · saw. Ex3: regular — worked, cooked, watched · irregular — went, saw, had, ate.

🎤 YOUR TURN — دورك

Say three true sentences about yesterday, using at least two irregular verbs.

🎤 Record them.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: two set-1 irregulars used correctly. Log who over-regularises — they need exposure, not a rule.

📋 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post: "Yesterday I went ___, had ___, and saw ___."
- Design your environment: put one English cue where you cannot avoid seeing it — a phone wallpaper, a note on the mirror, a label on the fridge.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- went · had · did · saw · ate — no -ed, ever.
- There is no rule for these. There is a list, and repetition.
- goed and eated mean your -ed rule is solid — now learn the exceptions.
- Stress the verb; keep went · saw · ate distinct.
- (Five more irregulars next lesson.)

✅ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: went · saw · ate · had · did
- Ex2: 1) went · 2) ate · 3) saw
- Ex3: regular — worked, cooked, watched · irregular — went, saw, had, ate

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: use five more irregular past forms · narrate a short sequence with sets 1 and 2 · self-check against the card. Ten irregulars is plenty for A2. Resist the urge to hand out a fifty-verb table — add more only as they surface naturally. Fluency with ten beats recognition of fifty. Support: reference card plus a frame. Stretch: a five-sentence mini-story with sequence words. Arabic ~35%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Use five more irregular pasts: bought · got · came · made · took.
- Tell a short sequence mixing all ten irregulars you now know.
- Check your own forms against the card instead of guessing. 🎧

خمسة كمان، وبكده يبقى عندك عشرة أفعال شاذة — وده كفاية تحكي بيهم أي حكاية في المستوى ده.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

These ten verbs cover most of what you actually do in a day — go, buy, take, make, come. A very small amount of memorising opens a large amount of speech.

What matters is using them often, not studying them often. Repetition in speech is what fixes them.

استخدمهم كتير، مش تحفظهم كتير.

Ten verbs, and you can describe most of an ordinary day.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01, use each of these in a sentence: went · had · saw · ate · did.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. All five, out loud, fast. This is the frequency that makes them stick.

 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

A trip to the market (📺 in the portal).

On Friday I went to the market and bought vegetables and fruit. I got a good price because I came early. Then I took a taxi home and made lunch for my family. They ate everything.

Notice: six irregular verbs in four sentences. This is normal — irregulars are everywhere.

English	بالعربي
I bought vegetables.	اشتريت خضار
I got a good price.	خدت سعر كويس
I came early.	جيت بدري
I took a taxi.	خدت تاكسي
I made lunch.	عملت الغدا

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice; learners count the irregulars. The density is the point — it justifies the drilling.

 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Set 2 — five more forms to know by heart.

Present	Past
buy	bought get	got come	came
make	made take	took

زي المرة اللي فاتت: مفيش قاعدة، دي قائمة. بس خد بالك إن بعضهم بيتشابه في الشكل، وده بيساعد في الحفظ جدًا — لما تلاقي مجموعة بتتغير بنفس الطريقة، احفظهم مع بعض مش واحد واحد.

A pattern that helps — some irregulars change in similar ways:

- buy → bought · think → thought · bring → brought — the -ought family
- come → came · become → became — vowel swap only

⚠️ خلي بالك من got: الفعل ده معناه واسع جدًا في الإنجليزي — got a price, got home, got a message — ماتترجمهاش حرفيًا كل مرة، خده كوحدة مع الكلمة اللي بعده.

Your ten so far: went · had · did · saw · ate · bought · got · came · made · took

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Present set 2, then show the -ought family — grouping is what turns a list into memory. Warn about got being semantically wide; learners try to translate it one-to-one and get stuck.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
buy → bought	اشتريت	I bought bread. get → got	خدت / وصلت	I got home late. come → came	جيت	She came early. make → made	عملت	He made coffee. take → took	خدت	We took a taxi.
price	سعر	a good price
everything	كل حاجة	They ate everything.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the /ɔ:/ in bought. Long, open, and no /g/ sound at the end. The gh is silent.

bought = "bort" • not "bowght", not "bogt"

Target 2 — keep the clusters clean in made and took. One syllable each. Do not add a vowel: took, not "to-ok".

Target 3 — the verb still carries the beat:

I BOUGHT vegetables and MADE lunch.

النقطة الأهم: ال gh في bought ماتنطقش خالص.

Record & compare: "I bought it, I took it home, and I made dinner."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The silent gh is the single highest-value fix here; learners routinely voice it.

تدرب — TRAIN

Exercise 1 — past form.

1. buy → _____ 2. take → _____ 3. come → _____ 4. make → _____ 5. get → _____

Exercise 2 — complete with a set-1 or set-2 verb.

1. I _____ a new phone last week.
2. She _____ to my house at eight.
3. We _____ a taxi because we were late.
4. He _____ a cake for her birthday.

Exercise 3 — chain the story. Add one sentence each, using a different irregular verb:

On Saturday I went to the mall...

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: bought · took · came · made · got. Ex2: bought · came · took · made. Ex3: run it round the group; each learner must use a verb nobody has used yet.

🎤 YOUR TURN — دورك

Narrate something real and small — something you bought, made, or somewhere you went — in 3–4 sentences.

🎤 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: three or more irregulars from either set, used correctly in connected speech.

📋 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post 3–4 sentences about something you bought or made recently.
- Reps compound. Ten verbs this week, ten more soon — and the first ten will already feel automatic.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- bought · got · came · made · took.
- The gh in bought is silent.
- got is wide — learn it with the word that follows it.
- Ten irregulars now cover most of an ordinary day.
- (Next: how to ask about all of this with did.)

✅ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: bought · took · came · made · got
- Ex2: 1) bought · 2) came · 3) took · 4) made

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 7 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback 1. Objectives: ask past questions with did + base verb · make negatives with didn't · hold a past mini-interview. This is the number-one A2 error: keeping the past form after did — "Did you went?" It is worth more drilling than anything else in the unit, because it appears in every past question they will ever ask. Drill the rule until it is reflex, not knowledge. Support: question frames and short-answer cards to read from. Stretch: add wh- follow-ups. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Ask about the past: Did you go? · What did you do?
- Say what did not happen: I didn't go.
- Interview someone about their day and answer back. 🗣️

عندك الأفعال. ناقص إنك تسأل بيها.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Until now you have only been telling. The moment you can ask, you are having a conversation.

And there is a gift buried in this lesson: because the verb returns to its simple form after did, one rule covers every verb, regular and irregular alike. You do not need to recall a single past form to ask a past question.

يعني القاعدة دي بتلغي صعوبة الأفعال الشاذة كلها في السؤال.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01 and L02, say five irregular past verbs in full sentences.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Fast round. You want the past forms fresh, because the lesson is about removing them.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two friends catching up (📞 in the portal).

A: What did you do yesterday? B: I went out with my cousin. We had dinner in Zamalek. A: Did you see Ali there? B: No, I didn't. He didn't come — he was working. A: Where did you go after that? B: Nowhere. I got home early.

Notice: after did and didn't, the verb goes back to its simple form — see, not saw. come, not came.

English	بالعربي
What did you do?	عملت إيه؟
Did you see Ali?	شفت علي؟
No, I didn't.	لا
He didn't come.	هو ماجاش
Where did you go?	رحت فين؟

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time, learners mark every verb that follows did/didn't and notice none of them is a past form. Let them find it.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The one rule: did carries the past, so the verb does not.

✅ Correct	❌ Wrong
Did you go ?	Did you went ?
Did you see him?	Did you saw him?
I didn't eat .	I didn't ate .
She didn't take it.	She didn't took it.

⚠️ دي أشهر غلطة في المستوى ده كله. فُكّر فيها كده: كلمة did هي اللي شايلة الماضي، فالفعل بعدها مش محتاج يشيله تاني. الماضي بيتقال مرة واحدة في الجملة.

Questions — put did first:

- Did you go? → Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.
- What did you do?* • Where did you go?* • Who did you see?*

Negatives — didn't + simple verb:

- I didn't go to work. • We didn't have time.

And the bonus: because the verb loses its past form, you do not need to remember whether it was regular or irregular. Did you go? and Did you work? follow the identical pattern.

يعني القاعدة دي بتلغي كل صعوبة الأفعال الشاذة في السؤال والنفي، وده مكسب كبير بجهد صغير.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Teach the "past is said once" idea — it is the mental model that stops the error. Then drill conversion: you say an affirmative, they turn it into a question and a negative. Twenty reps beats an explanation.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
Did you...?	إنت...؟	Did you eat?
Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.	أيوه / لأ	short answers
What did you do?	عملت إيه؟	What did you do?
Where did you go?	رحت فين؟	Where did you go?
Who did you see?	شفت مين؟	Who did you see?
I didn't...	أنا ما...ش	I didn't go. nowhere	مكانش في حاجة	I went nowhere.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — did is weak inside a wh- question. It shrinks almost to /dəd/ and runs into the next word:

What did you → "whaddya" · Where did you → "wheredya"

That is not lazy speech — it is normal speech. Saying each word fully makes you sound like a textbook.

Target 2 — didn't is the opposite: keep the final /t/ clear. It is what makes the sentence negative.

I didn't go. — drop the /t/ and your listener hears the opposite.

النقطة المهمة: did يتخف في السؤال، لكن didn't لازم تتنطق واضحة.

 Record & compare: "What did you do yesterday? I didn't go out."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Model the reduced whaddya — learners are often surprised it is correct. Then contrast with a crisp didn't.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ

Exercise 1 — fix the mistake.

1. Did you went to the party? → _____
2. I didn't saw him. → _____
3. Where did she took the bus? → _____

Exercise 2 — make it a question.

1. You saw the film. → _____
2. He came late. → _____
3. They ate together. → _____

Exercise 3 — make it negative.

1. I bought the tickets. → _____
2. She had breakfast. → _____

Exercise 4 — short answers.

1. Did you sleep well? → Yes, _____ / No, _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: Did you go · I didn't see · Where did she take. Ex2: Did you see the film? · Did he come late? · Did they eat together? Ex3: I didn't buy the tickets · She didn't have breakfast. Ex4: Yes, I did / No, I didn't.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Interview a partner. Ask three past questions — one yes/no and two wh- — then report one of their answers back to the group.

Record one exchange.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: did/didn't + simple verb, correct throughout, plus one short answer. Any surviving "Did you went" goes on the L05 clinic list.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post a past question to a classmate, and answer one, using did or didn't.
- Never miss twice. One skipped day is nothing. Two in a row is how the habit dies.

REMEMBER — افكر

- did / didn't + the simple verb. The past is said once.
- Did you go? — never Did you went?
- Short answers: Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.
- did goes weak in questions; didn't stays crisp.
- This rule works for regular and irregular verbs alike.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) Did you go to the party? · 2) I didn't see him · 3) Where did she take the bus?
- Ex2: 1) Did you see the film? · 2) Did he come late? · 3) Did they eat together?
- Ex3: 1) I didn't buy the tickets · 2) She didn't have breakfast
- Ex4: Yes, I did / No, I didn't

TELLING A STORY: A SMALL EVENT FROM YOUR WEEK

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 3 · Lesson 4 🕒 ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L03 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit3-past-irregular-and-questions.md · S1-U3-L04

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 5 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: tell a 5–7 sentence true story · use story language · ask one past question about a peer's story. Stories are the A2 fluency engine. Prioritise communication and flow. Correct only the two patterned errors — did + past form, and dropped endings — and do it as delayed feedback at the end, never mid-story. Support: story-skeleton card and the connector list. Stretch: add direct speech or a feeling. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Tell a true story in 5–7 sentences.
- Use story language: One day · Suddenly · In the end.
- Listen to someone's story and ask a past question about it. 🎧

عندك الأفعال والسؤال والنفي. النهاردة تحكي.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Storytelling is the most useful skill in real conversation. People do not speak in separate sentences — they tell you things that happened. Once you can do that, you can join any gathering and say something that belongs to you.

A story is not a grammar exercise. It is what conversation is actually made of, and it has a shape you can rely on.

والشكل ده هو اللي بتستند عليه لما تحكي.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L03: ask the person next to you two past questions with did.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Pairs. Keeps did + simple verb alive right before it gets used under pressure.

🔦 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

A small, ordinary story (📺 in the portal).

One day last week I went to work by bus. The bus was very late, so I waited for thirty minutes. Suddenly I saw an old friend at the bus stop — we didn't meet for five years! We talked and took the bus together. In the end I arrived late, but I was happy.

The shape: a beginning (when), a middle (what happened), and an end (how it finished).

English	بالعربي
One day...	مرة...
The bus was late.	الأتوبيس أتأخر
Suddenly...	وفجأة...
In the end...	وفي الآخر...

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play once for enjoyment, once for shape. Have them name the three parts. The shape is what they will lean on when they tell their own.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

A story has three parts, and each part has its own words.

Part	Words you use	Job
Beginning	One day · Last week · Yesterday	set the scene
Middle	Then · After that · Suddenly · Because	what happened
End	In the end · Finally · So	how it finished

Suddenly هي أهم كلمة في الحكاية، لأنها بتقول للسامع إن فيه حاجة غير متوقعة جاية. حطها قبل المفاجأة، وهتلاقي الناس بتركز معاك.

Two things a good story always has:

1. Past verbs throughout — do not drift into the present halfway.
2. A reason somewhere — because tells us why it mattered.

⚠️ خلي بالك: لما تتحمس في الحكى، بيحصل إنك ترجع للمضارع في النص. خليك في الماضي من الأول للآخر.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Keep it short — the words are transparent. Spend your words on Suddenly as a listener signal, and on tense consistency, which is where longer speech breaks down.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
One day...	مرة...	One day I lost my keys.
Suddenly	فجأة	Suddenly it started to rain.
In the end	في الآخر	In the end I found them. so	ف	It was late, so I ran. wait → waited	استنيت	I waited an hour. lose → lost	ضيّعت	I lost my phone. find → found	لقيت	I found it.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Narrative rhythm: beat on the verbs, pause at the connectors.

One day, || I WENT to work || and the bus WAS late. Suddenly, || I SAW my friend.

The small pause after a connector does two jobs: it gives the listener a moment to follow, and it gives you a moment to plan the next sentence. Use it deliberately.

الوقفه الصغيره دي مش ضعف — دي وقت بتاخده لنفسك تفكر في الجملة اللي جاية.

🎧 Record & compare: the first two sentences of the model, with the pauses.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Frame the pause as a fluency tool, not hesitation. Learners who accept it stop filling silence with "ummm".

 TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — put the story in order. Number 1–5.

- _____ Suddenly, my phone rang.
- _____ In the end, I got there on time.
- _____ One day I woke up late.
- _____ It was my boss.
- _____ So I took a taxi.

Exercise 2 — add the missing story words.

_____ last month I travelled to Alexandria. The train was full, _____ I stood for an hour. _____ a man offered me his seat. _____ it was a good trip.

Exercise 3 — fix the tense.

One day I went to the market. I buy some fruit and I see my neighbour.

Exercise 4 — plan yours. Write only three notes: beginning, what happened, end.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: 3 · 5 · 1 · 4 · 2. Ex2: One day · so · Suddenly · In the end. Ex3: bought and saw — the classic mid-story drift. Ex4: notes only; stop anyone writing a full script, or they will read it aloud instead of telling it.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

Tell your own true story in 5–7 sentences, from your notes — not a script.

Then listen to a partner's story and ask one past question about it.

 Record your story.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: a coherent 5–7 sentence story, connectors present, past tense held throughout. Give feedback on the two patterned errors only, and only after everyone has finished.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your story as a voice note, and ask a question about a classmate's.
- Input diet: pick one English show or podcast at your level and stay with it. One familiar source beats five you keep switching between.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Three parts: beginning · middle · end.
- One day · Suddenly · In the end — cheap words, big effect.
- Stay in the past the whole way through.
- The pause after a connector is your thinking time.
- (Storytelling comes back in Unit 8 for trips, and in Unit 10.)

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 3 · 5 · 1 · 4 · 2
- Ex2: One day · so · Suddenly · In the end
- Ex3: I bought some fruit and I saw my neighbour

UNIT SPEAKING TASK: "TELL ME ABOUT YOUR LAST HOLIDAY" (+ REVIEW)

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 3 · Lesson 5 — UNIT MILESTONE · closes the past-tense block 🕒 ~35 min · 📞

Recorded + live (assessment-style) · Prerequisite: L01–L04 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit3-past-irregular-and-questions.md · S1-U3-L05

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 5 · Model 4 · Checklist 4 · Accent clinic 4 · Rehearse 7 · Record 5 · Feedback 2 · Assign —. Objectives: narrate 7–9 sentences with regular and irregular past · answer a live follow-up question · record the Unit-3 story. This closes the past-tense block — Units 1, 2 and 3 together. It is the biggest single milestone in A2. Compare informally against their Stage-0 clip; the growth is large and learners rarely notice it themselves. Support: seven sentences with the card. Stretch: direct speech plus two follow-up answers. Arabic ~25% — nearly all English now.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (MILESTONE)

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Narrate a past experience in 7–9 sentences.
- Mix regular and irregular verbs, with connectors.
- Answer a follow-up question live, without preparing it.
- Record your Unit-3 story. 🎤

ده أكبر إنجاز في المستوى ده: ثلاث وحدات كاملة عن الماضي، بتتجمع في حكاية واحدة.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخْن (سلسلة)

Rapid chain: an irregular verb → a did question → a didn't negative → a connector.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Fast retrieval across all three past units. Keep the pace high.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A clean holiday narration (📞 in the portal).

Last summer I went to the North Coast with my family. We took the car and left very early, so we didn't sit in traffic. One day we went to the beach and ate fish at a small restaurant — it was delicious. Suddenly the weather changed and it rained, so we came back to the hotel. I didn't swim much, but I had a really good week. In the end it was the best holiday of the year.

Nine sentences. Count them: how many irregular verbs? How many negatives?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once for flow, once for the count. The counting keeps accuracy visible inside a fluency task.

THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست الحكاية الكاملة

1.  Set the scene — when and where
2.  Three or more past verbs, regular and irregular
3.  One negative with didn't
4.  Two connectors — so · but · suddenly · in the end
5.  A feeling or an opinion
6.  Answer a follow-up question without preparing it

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Board the checklist and hand out the card. Point at item 6 — the unrehearsed answer is what distinguishes a speaker from a reciter, and it is what the rubric rewards.

ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your weakest past sound from these three units:

- -ed endings — /t/ · /d/ · /ɪd/
- irregular vowels — went · saw · ate · bought
- weak did in questions, crisp didn't in negatives
- narrative rhythm — beat on the verb, pause at the connector

 Record & compare your weakest one only.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Personalised from your flags across U1–U3. One target each.

YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

Rehearse with the checklist and a partner, then record.

Tell me about your last holiday or day off in 7–9 sentences. Then answer one question I ask you about it, live.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. Ask each learner one genuine follow-up — Who did you go with? Why didn't you swim? — and let them answer unscripted. Success check (Unit-3): connected 7–9 sentence narration with mostly-correct past forms, plus a handled follow-up (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation at A2). Play them their Stage-0 graduation clip afterwards if you have it — three months of past tense is audible.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your story.
- Complete the Unit-3 quiz.
- Listen to your Unit-1 recording, then this one. Unit 1 was where you were. This is what happened.

REMEMBER — افكر (UNITS 1–3 WRAP)

- was / were for states · -ed for regular actions · a list for irregulars.
- did / didn't + simple verb. The past is said once.
- One day · Suddenly · so · but · In the end hold a story together.
- Stay in the past from the first sentence to the last.
- (The past block is now complete. Unit 4 turns to the future.)

SELF-CHECK — UNIT 3 MINI-QUIZ

1. Yesterday I ____ (go) to Cairo. → went
2. I ____ (buy) a new phone. → bought
3. ____ you see him? → Did
4. She ____ come to the party. (negative) → didn't
5. Did you ____ dinner? (eat) → eat (not ate)
6. Which word warns of a surprise? → Suddenly

🎉 UNIT 3 COMPLETE — الماضي خالص كله

Three units ago you could only describe now. You can now say where you were, what you did, what you didn't do, ask someone about their past, and tell a story with a beginning and an end.

Next → Unit 4: Future Plans. going to and will — the stage turns from behind you to ahead of you. 🏰

Empire English 🏰 — ثلاث وحدات، وبقية تحكي

FUTURE PLANS

👑 UNIT 4 — FUTURE PLANS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 4 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit4-future-plans.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 4 you'll talk about what's coming — state plans with be going to, ask about other people's, and use will to decide, offer and predict. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: تتكلم عن خططك، وتساءل غيرك، وتقرر وتتوقع.

The stage pivots here. Units 1 to 3 were all past. This unit turns you around to face forward — and it does it with a structure you already own: am · is · are from Stage 0, with going to bolted on.

يعني ده مش زمن جديد، ده تركيب على حاجة إنت عارفها.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	I'm going to...	plans and intentions · future time expressions · hearing gonna
L02	Asking about plans	inversion, wh - questions, short answers · What about you?
L03	I'll...	will for deciding now · offering · predicting · 'll and won't
L04	going to vs will	one question decides it: had you decided before you spoke?
L05	My plans for next month (milestone) 🎤	6–8 sentences with both forms + record your milestone

Grammar spine: be going to (statements, questions, negatives) · will / 'll / won't · choosing between them.

Accent Lab: linking going to → gonna (recognise it) · the contraction 'll · won't against want · the two question tunes. Mindset: goal-setting — one concrete A2 target, said out loud to a real person. Arabic support: ~35% at L01, fading to ~25% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-4 plans recording — the first time you talk about a future you intend to make happen.
- The past and the future, both available to you, four units into the stage.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L05 ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. Teach will by function, not as "the future tense" (L03). Learners who meet it as a tense confuse it with going to permanently. Learners who meet it as deciding now · offering · predicting keep them apart naturally, which is what L04 then formalises. The L04 rule that actually holds: the difference is when the decision happened, not when the action happens. Decided before you spoke → going to. Decided as you spoke → will. Every other framing of this pair leaks somewhere. Do not chase perfection on the contrast. Native speakers overlap the two constantly, and a wrong choice is almost never misunderstood. Reward correct meaning over correct form, or you will make learners hesitant about the most useful tense they have. Two pronunciation items with real consequences: a swallowed 'll makes a future sound like a present, and won't mistaken for want reverses the meaning.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: be going to forms · question inversion and short answers · the three jobs of will · choose going to or will and say why.
- Speaking task: the L05 plans narration, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold), judging form choice by meaning.
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + each learner's flagged sound) and the proof timeline.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 5 — MAKING COMPARISONS bigger · better · the best — and how to say that one thing is not like another.

Empire English 🏰 · Stage 1 · Citizen rank · consistency beats intensity

"I'M GOING TO..." — PLANS & INTENTIONS

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: talk about plans with be going to · use future time expressions · state 3–4 real plans. The stage pivots here. Three units of past, and now the future. Say that out loud — learners feel the shape of a course and it motivates them. The structural insight worth teaching: they already own am/is/are from Stage 0. going to is bolted onto something they can already do, so this is assembly, not new grammar. Support: the frame plus a verb bank. Stretch: add a reason with because. Arabic ~35%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Say your plans: I'm going to study tonight.
- Use future time words: tomorrow · next week · this weekend.
- State 3–4 real plans of your own. 🎤

ثلاث وحدات كنا في الماضي. من النهاردة بنبص لقدام.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Plans are half of ordinary conversation. What are you doing this weekend? · When are you going to travel? · I'm going to look for a new job.

والحاجة الحلوة إن التركيب ده مش جديد عليك. إنت عندك am / is / are من المستوى اللي فات، وكل اللي بنعمله إننا نضيف عليها going to والفعل. يعني مش قاعدة جديدة، ده تركيب بيتبني على حاجة إنت عارفها خلاص، وعشان كده هتلاقيه أسهل من اللي فات.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

Say three sentences about yesterday, using the past.

Now notice: you have no way yet to say what happens tomorrow.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Deliberately create the gap before filling it. Learners take a structure faster when they have just felt its absence.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Someone talks about their week ahead (📅 in the portal).

This weekend I 'm going to visit my parents in Tanta. Next week I 'm going to start a new course, and I 'm going to look for a better job. My sister 's going to travel to Dubai next month. We 're going to miss her.

Notice: am/is/are changes with the person, but going to never changes, and the verb after it stays simple.

English	بالعربي
I'm going to visit my parents.	هزور أهلي
I'm going to start a course.	هبدأ كورس
She's going to travel.	هي هتسافر
We're going to miss her.	هنوحشنا

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners mark am, is, are and see that only that word moves.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The formula: am / is / are + going to + simple verb.

Subject
I	am (I'm)	going to	study
he / she / it	is ('s)	going to	travel
you / we / they	are ('re)	going to	start

الجزء الوحيد اللي بيتغير هو am / is / are حسب الفاعل. أما going to والفعل بعدها فتايبين مهما كان الكلام عن مين.

Use it for things you have already decided. going to carries the sense of a plan — you have thought about it, maybe arranged it:

- I'm going to buy a car next year. → I have decided
- We're going to get married in June. → it is arranged

Future time expressions go at the start or the end:

- tomorrow · tonight · next week / month · this weekend · in two days

⚠️ خلي بالك: الفعل بعد going to يفضل في صيغته الأصلية. بنقول going to study, مش going to studied ولا going to studying.

Negative: put not after am/is/are — I'm not going to work tomorrow.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Build the formula on the board with the three subject rows, drill orally, then the negative. The "already decided" meaning matters for the L04 contrast with will, so plant it now.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
I'm going to...	أنا هـ...	I'm going to study. tomorrow / tonight	بكرة / الليلة	tomorrow morning
next week / month	الأسبوع / الشهر الجاي	next week
this weekend	الويكند ده	this weekend visit / travel	أزور / أسافر	I'm going to travel. start / finish	أبدأ / أخلص	She's going to start. look for	أدور على	look for a job

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — link it into one smooth phrase. Nobody says four separate words:

I'm going to study → "I'm-gonna-study"

Target 2 — gonna is what you will HEAR. In fast speech going to becomes gonna. You do not have to say it that way, but you must be able to recognise it, or you will miss the future tense in real conversation.

إنت مش مطالب تقول gonna، بس لازم تعرفها وقت السمع. أغلب الناس بتقولها كده في الكلام العادي.

Target 3 — the stress goes on the main verb, not on going:

I'm gonna STUDY tonight. · She's gonna TRAVEL.

 Record & compare: "I'm going to study tonight and I'm going to finish early."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Frame gonna as receptive first — it removes the anxiety of "am I allowed to say this?" and fixes a real listening gap.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — am, is or are?

1. I _____ going to call him tonight.
2. She _____ going to start school in September.
3. They _____ going to move to a new flat.
4. We _____ going to be late.

Exercise 2 — make the sentence.

1. (I / visit / my uncle / tomorrow) → _____
2. (she / not / work / next week) → _____

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I'm going to studied tonight. → _____
2. He going to travel next month. → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. Three real plans, with a time word in each.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: am · is · are · are. Ex2: I'm going to visit my uncle tomorrow · She's not going to work next week. Ex3: going to study · He's going to travel — the missing is is the frequent one.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Say three or four real plans — this week, this month, this year — each with a time expression.

 Record them.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct be form + going to + simple verb, with a time expression.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post three plans: "Next week I'm going to ____."
- Set your A2 goal. One concrete, real-world target — not "improve my English" but something you could point at: order a meal in English, pass an interview, hold a ten-minute call.

REMEMBER — افكر

- am / is / are + going to + simple verb.
- Only am/is/are changes. going to never does.
- Use it for things you have already decided.
- You will hear gonna — recognise it.
- (Next: how to ask other people about their plans.)

SELF-CHECK — صحّح لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) am · 2) is · 3) are · 4) are
- Ex2: 1) I'm going to visit my uncle tomorrow · 2) She's not going to work next week
- Ex3: 1) I'm going to study tonight · 2) He's going to travel next month

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: ask about plans with be going to · use wh- forms · give short answers. This is the same inversion they learned in Unit 1 with was/were. Name that link explicitly — it converts a new lesson into a familiar move and takes half the time. Support: question frames to read from. Stretch: ask a follow-up and report the answer to the group. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Ask about plans: Are you going to travel?
- Ask for detail: What · Where · When are you going to...?
- Answer briefly: Yes, I am. / No, I'm not. 🗣️

عرفت تقول خططك. دلوقتي تسأل غيرك عن خططه.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Asking about someone's plans is one of the friendliest things you can do in a language. It is how invitations start, how arrangements get made, and how a conversation moves forward instead of stalling.

ولاحظ إن الحركة دي إنت عارفها خلاص: نفس القلب اللي عملته في الوحدة الأولى مع was/were. الفعل بيتقدم قبل الفاعل، وخلاص.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخّن

From L01, say two of your own plans out loud.

Then ask the person next to you — however you can — what their plan is.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Let them attempt the question before it is taught. Whatever they produce becomes the material you correct against.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two colleagues talking about the holiday (📞 in the portal).

A: Are you going to travel in Eid? B: Yes, I am. I 'm going to go to Hurghada with my family. A: Nice!
When are you going to leave? B: On Thursday. What about you? Are you going to stay in Cairo? A:
 No, I'm not. I 'm going to visit my grandmother in Assiut.

Notice: the question moves are to the front — You are going becomes Are you going.

English	بالعربي
Are you going to travel?	هتسافر؟
Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.	أيوه / لأ
When are you going to leave?	هتمشي امتي؟
What about you?	وإنت؟

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners mark the position of are in the statement versus the question. Also flag What about you? — it is the cheapest conversation-extender they will learn.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Yes/no questions — move am/is/are to the front.

Statement	Question
You are going to travel	Are you going to travel?
She is going to work	Is she going to work?

نفس القاعدة بالظبط اللي اتعلمتها في الوحدة الأولى: الفعل الأول، بعدين الفاعل.

Wh- questions — put the question word first, then invert:

- What are you going to do this weekend?
- Where are you going to go?
- When are you going to start?
- Who are you going to travel with?

Short answers — repeat the be verb, never the whole sentence:

- Are you going to come? → Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.
- Is he going to help? → Yes, he is. / No, he isn't.

⚠️ خلي بالك: في الرد القصير بنقول "Yes, I am" وما بنقولش "Yes, I'm". الاختصار ما يجيش في آخر الجملة خالص.

And one phrase worth more than any grammar here: What about you? — it hands the conversation back.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Anchor to the Unit-1 inversion, then drill wh- forms. The "Yes, I'm" error is universal; correct it on the spot, every time.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
Are you going to...?	هت...؟	Are you going to eat?
What are you going to do?	هتعمل إيه؟	What are you going to do?
Where / When	فين / امتى	When are you going to go?
Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.	أيوه / لأ	short answers
What about you?	وإنت؟	hands it back leave / stay	أمشي / أفضل	Are you going to stay?

🎤 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — are you melts together. In natural speech it is barely two words:

Are you going to... → "əyə-gonna..."

You do not need to produce it, but you must recognise it — otherwise a perfectly normal question will sound like noise to you.

Target 2 — rising intonation on yes/no, falling on wh-.

Are you going to travel? ↗ What are you going to do? ↘

السؤال بـ yes/no نبرته بتطلع، والسؤال بـ -wh نبرته بتنزل. الفرق ده بيوصل للسامع نوع السؤال قبل الكلمات.

Record & compare: both questions, with the two different tunes.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The two-tune contrast is quick and memorable. Exaggerate both, then bring to natural.

تدرب — TRAIN

Exercise 1 — make it a question.

1. You are going to study tonight. → _____
2. She is going to call him. → _____
3. They are going to move house. → _____

Exercise 2 — add the question word.

1. _____ are you going to travel? (place)
2. _____ are you going to leave? (time)
3. _____ are you going to do? (activity)

Exercise 3 — short answers.

1. Are you going to come? → Yes, _____ / No, _____
2. Is he going to drive? → Yes, _____ / No, _____

Exercise 4 — fix it. "Yes, I'm." → _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: Are you going to study tonight? · Is she going to call him? · Are they going to move house? Ex2: Where · When · What. Ex3: Yes, I am / No, I'm not · Yes, he is / No, he isn't. Ex4: Yes, I am.

🎤 YOUR TURN — دورك

Interview a partner about their plans. Ask one yes/no question and two wh- questions, then finish with "What about you?"

🎤 Record one exchange.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: correct inversion, one wh- question, and a proper short answer.

📋 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Ask a classmate about their plans in the community channel, and answer one question.
- Say your goal out loud to someone. A goal you have told a real person is much harder to abandon.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- Move am/is/are to the front — the same move as Unit 1.
- What · Where · When · Who + inversion.
- Yes, I am. — never Yes, I'm.
- What about you? keeps a conversation alive.
- Yes/no rises ↗ · wh- falls ↘.

✅ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) Are you going to study tonight? · 2) Is she going to call him? · 3) Are they going to move house?
- Ex2: 1) Where · 2) When · 3) What
- Ex3: 1) Yes, I am / No, I'm not · 2) Yes, he is / No, he isn't
- Ex4: Yes, I am.

Empire English 🏰 السؤال هو اللي بيكمل الكلام —

"I'll..." — DECISIONS, OFFERS & PREDICTIONS WITH WILL

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 4 · Lesson 3 🕒 ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L02 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit4-future-plans.md · S1-U4-L03

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback — Objectives: use will for decisions, offers and predictions · use the contraction 'll · use won't. Teach will by FUNCTION, not as "the future tense". Learners who meet it as a tense confuse it with going to forever. Learners who meet it as deciding now · offering · predicting keep the two apart naturally — which is what L04 then formalises. Support: the three function cards. Stretch: predict something about next year and justify it. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Decide on the spot: I'll take this one.
- Offer help: I'll carry that for you.
- Predict: I think it'll rain. 🗣️ going to مش مجرد "زمن المستقبل". دي بتستخدم في ثلاث مواقف محددة، ولو فهمتهم مش هتخلط بينها وبين will خالص.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

will is the most social future in English. It is what you say when you decide in the moment, when you offer to help someone, and when you guess about what is coming.

يعني دي اللي بتستخدمها في المواقف الحياتية السريعة: في مطعم، في محل، ولما حد يحتاج مساعدة.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

From L01 and L02, say a plan and ask a partner about theirs.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Quick pairs. You want going to fresh, because will is about to sit beside it.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Three short moments (📞 in the portal).

- 1 — deciding now Waiter: Are you ready to order? Customer: Yes — I 'll have the chicken, please.
- 2 — offering A: These bags are heavy. B: Don't worry, I 'll help you.
- 3 — predicting A: Do you think it 'll rain tomorrow? B: No, I think it 'll be sunny. But it won't be hot.

Notice: in none of these had the speaker planned anything in advance. They decided, offered, or guessed as they spoke.

English	بالعربي
I'll have the chicken.	هاخذ الفراخ
I'll help you.	هساعدك
I think it'll rain.	أظن هتمطر
It won't be hot.	مش هتكون حرارة

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play each moment separately and name its function before moving on. Three clean examples beat one long dialogue here.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Form is easy: will + simple verb, and it never changes for the person.

I / you / he / she / we / they	will go • 'll go negative	won't go

ولا حتى حرف واحد بيتغير حسب الفاعل. أسهل من going to بكثير من ناحية الشكل.

The three jobs of will:

Job	When	Example
Decision	you decide now , while speaking	I'll take this one.
Offer / promise	you offer help	I'll call you later.
Prediction	you guess about the future	I think it'll be fine.

Contractions are the normal form. In speech, I will is almost always I'll:

- I'll · you'll · he'll · she'll · we'll · they'll · won't ⚠️ خلي بالك: won't دي اختصار will not، ومش ليها علاقة بكلمة want. النطق مختلف تمامًا.

With predictions, add I think: I think it'll rain. It softens the guess and sounds natural.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Form first — it is trivially easy and gives them a quick win. Then the three functions with an oral example each. Do not contrast with going to yet; that is L04's whole job.

✂️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
I'll...	هـ... هـ	I'll call you. won't	مش هـ... هـ	I won't be late.
I think... will	أظن هـ... هـ	I think he'll come.
I'll have...	هاخد... هـ	I'll have tea.
I'll help you	هساعدك	offering
Don't worry	ماتقلقش	Don't worry, I'll do it.
maybe	يمكن	Maybe it'll rain.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the contraction 'll is tiny. Do not skip it. It is a single /l/ sound joined to the pronoun:

I'll = "ail" · he'll = "heel" · we'll = "weel" · they'll = "thail"

Learners often drop it entirely and say "I go" — which sounds like the present.

Target 2 — won't has a long /ou/.

won't = "wohnt" — long, like don't. It is not want /wɒnt/.

الفرق بين won't و want بيغيّر المعنى تمامًا، فخذ بالك من حرف العلة.

 Record & compare: "I'll call you tonight, but I won't be late."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Drill 'll attached to each pronoun, then the won't/want contrast — that pair causes real misunderstandings.

 TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — which job? Write decision, offer or prediction.

1. I'll get the door for you. _____
2. I think she'll pass the exam. _____
3. OK, I'll take the blue one. _____

Exercise 2 — contract it.

1. I will help you. → _____
2. He will not come. → _____
3. We will see. → _____

Exercise 3 — respond with will.

1. "This box is very heavy." → _____
2. "Are you ready to order?" → _____
3. "Do you think the traffic will be bad?" → _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: offer · prediction · decision. Ex2: I'll help you · He won't come · We'll see. Ex3: accept any natural offer, order and prediction — function matters more than wording.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

Use will three times, once for each job: decide something, offer something, predict something.

 Record all three.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: three correct 'll forms across the three functions, contraction audible.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post three sentences: one decision, one offer, one prediction.
- Visualise the win. Picture yourself using English successfully — a real conversation you want to have. Then say which one it is.

REMEMBER — افكر

- will + simple verb. Never changes for the person.
- Three jobs: decide now · offer · predict.
- Say the contraction: I'll, not I.
- won't is long — do not confuse it with want.
- (Next lesson: which one to choose, will or going to.)

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) offer · 2) prediction · 3) decision
- Ex2: 1) I'll help you · 2) He won't come · 3) We'll see

Empire English 🏰 — will بتاعة اللحظة، مش بتاعة التخطيط

GOING TO VS WILL — CHOOSING WHICH

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 4 · Lesson 4 ⌚ ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L03 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit4-future-plans.md · S1-U4-L04

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: choose between the two forms · switch between them in one conversation · justify the choice. The distinction is about WHEN THE DECISION HAPPENED, not about time. going to = decided before you spoke. will = decided as you spoke. Every other explanation of this pair leaks; this one holds. Do not chase perfection. Native speakers overlap them constantly and a wrong choice is almost never misunderstood. Reward correct meaning over correct form. Support: the two-card sort. Stretch: a dialogue that uses both naturally. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Choose going to or will and know why.
- Use both in the same conversation.
- Hear the difference when other people use them. 🎧

الفرق بينهم مش في الوقت — الاتنين عن المستقبل. الفرق في القرار اتخد امتى.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

This is the one A2 choice that makes you sound like you are thinking in English rather than translating. And it is far simpler than most books make it.

And if you pick the wrong one, you will almost never be misunderstood — so speak comfortably and let the accuracy arrive with time.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

Say one sentence with going to and one with will.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Both forms in the room before the contrast starts.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Listen for the moment the decision happens (📞 in the portal).

A: What are you doing tonight? B: I 'm going to study — I have an exam on Sunday. A: Oh, I didn't know. Do you want some help? B: Really? Then I 'll come to your place at seven. A: Perfect. I 'll make some coffee.

Notice the shift. studying was already planned, so B used going to. Coming at seven and making coffee were decided in that moment, so both used will.

English	بالعربي
I'm going to study.	كنت ناوي أدرس
Then I'll come at seven.	يبقى هاجي سبعة
I'll make some coffee.	هعمل قهوة

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time, stop after each future form and ask: had they decided this before the conversation started? That single question is the whole lesson.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

One question decides it: had you already decided before you started speaking?

The decision	made before now	made right now
Feels like	a plan	a reaction
Example	I'm going to travel in June.	I'll take this one.

اسأل نفسك: القرار كان موجود قبل ما أفتح بقي؟ لو أيوه، استخدم going to. لو لا، وقررت في اللحظة، استخدم will. سؤال واحد بيحل الموضوع كله، ومش محتاج تحفظ قوائم.

The classic pair:

- (phone rings) I'll get it! → decided this second
- I'm going to call the bank tomorrow. → decided earlier, it is on your list

Two more places each one owns:

Use for	Use for
arrangements — We're going to get married in June	offers — I'll help you evidence you can see — Look at those clouds, it's going to rain	promises — I won't tell anyone

⚠️ حالة تستاهل تتحفظ: لما تشوف دليل بعينك — سحاب أسود، حد بيوقع — بنستخدم going to مش will. لأن الدليل موجود قبل ما تتكلم.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Lead with the single question, then the classic I'll get it against I'm going to call. Add the evidence case last — it is the one exception learners find genuinely surprising.

✂️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
I'll get it!	أنا هفتح	decided now
I'm going to...	كنت ناوي...	already planned
Look! It's going to...	بص! ه...	evidence
I promise	أوعدك	I promise I'll come.
I've decided	قررت	I've decided — I'm going to move.
Then I'll...	يبقى ه...	reacting

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Switching between the two changes your rhythm, and that is worth practising as a pair:

going to is long — three beats melted into "gonna". 'll is short — one sound clipped onto the pronoun.

I'm gonna study tonight, so I'll call you tomorrow.

Say that sentence until the long form and the short form sit comfortably beside each other. In real speech you will switch between them constantly.

جرب الجملة دي كتير — فيها الشكليين ورا بعض، وده اللي بيحصل في الكلام الطبيعي.

Record & compare: the mixed sentence above.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. One mixed sentence, many repetitions. Switching is the skill; either form alone is already secure.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ

Exercise 1 — going to or will?

1. (the doorbell rings) — I _____ get it!
2. I've bought the tickets. We _____ leave on Friday.
3. Look at the sky — it _____ rain.
4. "I'm tired." — Sit down, I _____ finish the work.
5. She _____ start university in September.

Exercise 2 — why? For each answer above, write decided before or decided now.

Exercise 3 — respond naturally.

1. "This bag is so heavy." → _____
2. "What are your plans for the summer?" → _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: 1) 'll · 2) 're going to · 3) 's going to · 4) 'll · 5) 's going to. Ex2: now · before · before (evidence) · now · before. Ex3: an offer with will, a plan with going to.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Have a short conversation with a partner about the weekend. Use going to for what you have already planned, and will for anything you decide during the conversation itself.

Record the exchange.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: both forms used, and used for the right reason. Ask one learner why they chose each — the reasoning matters more than the form.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post two sentences: one plan with going to, one offer or prediction with will.
- Progress check: you now handle the past and the future in English. Two units ago neither was available to you.

REMEMBER — افكر

- One question: had you decided before you spoke?
- Yes → going to · No → will.
- Evidence you can see → going to: It's going to rain.
- Offers and promises → will: I'll help.
- A wrong choice is almost never misunderstood — keep talking.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) I'll · 2) We're going to · 3) it's going to · 4) I'll · 5) She's going to
- Ex2: now · before · before · now · before

 · Prerequisite: L01–L04 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit4-future-plans.md` · S1-U4-L05

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 5 · Model 4 · Checklist 4 · Accent clinic 4 · Rehearse 7 · Record 5 · Feedback 2 · Assign —. Objectives: talk about plans for 6–8 sentences using both forms · answer a follow-up · record the Unit-4 milestone. Point out what they can now do: past and future, both. At the start of this stage they had only the present. That is a genuinely large amount of grammar in four units. Support: six sentences with the card. Stretch: a prediction plus a reason. Arabic ~25% — nearly all English.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (MILESTONE)

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Talk about your plans in 6–8 sentences.
- Use going to for what is planned and will for what you decide or predict.
- Answer a question about your plans, live.
- Record your Unit-4 milestone. 🎤

إنت دلوقتى بتتكلم عن الماضى والمستقبل. أربع وحدات بس وده اللي اتغير.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن (سلسلة)

Rapid chain: a going to plan → a wh- question about plans → an offer with will → a prediction.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Fast retrieval across all four lessons.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A clean plans narration (📞 in the portal).

Next month is going to be busy. I 'm going to start a new English course on the fifth, and I 'm going to look for a part-time job at the same time. My brother 's going to visit us in the middle of the month, so we 're going to spend a few days together. I think it 'll be tiring, but I 'll manage. I 'm not going to travel this month — I 'll save the money instead. In the end I hope it 'll be a good month.

Eight sentences. Which are going to, and which are will? Why is each one that way?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once for flow, once for the sort. The why is what proves L04 landed.

THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست خطتك

1.  A time frame — next month · in two weeks
2.  Three or more plans with going to
3.  One negative — I'm not going to...
4.  One prediction with will — I think it'll be...
5.  A reason with because or so
6.  Answer a follow-up question unprepared

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Board it and hand out the card. Item 4 is the one learners skip — a plan list with no prediction misses half the unit.

ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your weakest from this unit:

- linking going to → gonna, with the stress on the main verb
- the contraction 'll — audible, not swallowed
- won't with its long vowel, distinct from want
- the two question tunes — yes/no rises ↗, wh- falls ↘

 Record & compare your weakest one only.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Personalised from your L01–L04 flags. One target each.

YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

Rehearse with the checklist and a partner, then record.

Talk about your plans for next month in 6–8 sentences — what you are going to do, one thing you are not going to do, and one prediction. Then answer one question I ask you.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. Ask a real follow-up — Why aren't you going to travel? Who are you going to go with?

Success check (Unit-4): 6–8 connected sentences, both future forms used appropriately, one handled follow-up (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation at A2). Judge the choice of form by meaning, not by matching a key.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your plans.
- Complete the Unit-4 quiz.
- Commit to one plan this month and say it in English to someone. A plan spoken in English starts to feel real.

REMEMBER — افكر (UNIT 4 WRAP)

- am/is/are + going to + verb for plans already decided.
- will / 'll for deciding now, offering, and predicting.
- The test: had you decided before you spoke?
- Evidence you can see → going to: It's going to rain.
- You will hear gonna; say the 'll.

SELF-CHECK — UNIT 4 MINI-QUIZ

1. I ___ going to travel next week. → am
2. (the phone rings) — I ___ get it! → 'll
3. Look at the clouds — it ___ rain. → 's going to
4. ___ you going to study tonight? → Are
5. Yes, I ___. (short answer) → am
6. I ___ be late, I promise. (negative) → won't

🎉 UNIT 4 COMPLETE — الماضي والمستقبل بقوا عندك

Four units ago you could describe only the present moment. You can now talk about what happened, what you did not do, what you are going to do, and what you think will happen.

Next → Unit 5: Making Comparisons. Bigger, better, the best — and how to say one thing is not like another. 🏰

MAKING COMPARISONS

👑 UNIT 5 — MAKING COMPARISONS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 5 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit5-making-comparisons.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 5 you'll compare and choose — say what's bigger, better and the best, say what falls short, and give a reasoned preference. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: تقارن، وتقول رأيك، وتقول عليه.

Why this matters more than it looks: the past and future units gave you facts. This unit gives you opinion. Once you can say "I prefer this because it's cheaper and not as far", you can take part in real decisions instead of only reporting them.

ودي أول وحدة بتخليك تتكلم عن رأيك، مش بس عن اللي حصل.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	Comparatives (-er)	bigger than · the spelling rules · than, not from
L02	Longer & irregular	more expensive · better · worse · the syllable test
L03	Superlatives	the biggest · the most beautiful · the is obligatory
L04	as...as · too · enough	equality and degree · too before, enough after
L05	Compare two cities (milestone) 🎙️	6–8 sentences + a justified preference + record it

Grammar spine: comparatives · superlatives · irregulars · (not) as...as · too · enough. Accent Lab: /ð/ in than · word stress in long adjectives · the -est syllable · weak as ... as · too against to. Mindset: the only fair comparison is you-today against you-on-Day-1. Arabic support: ~35% at L01, fading to ~25% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-5 comparison — the first recording where you argue a position.
- The habit of giving a reason, which raises every score you will ever get.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L05 ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. Three predictable errors, each with a cause worth naming: 1. than → *from (L01). Direct transfer from أكبر من. Block it actively from the first sentence; a warning alone will not do it. 2. The double comparative — more cheaper, more better (L02). Over-application of the new form. Teach the syllable test rather than a list of "long adjectives", so they have a rule they can apply. 3. The missing *the before a superlative (L03). Arabic needs no article in أحسن مطعم, so the omission is structural, not careless. Accept no superlative without the, every single time. The word-order split in L04 is the one thing to drill physically: too before the adjective, enough after it. Hands showing left and right beats explaining it twice. In L05, weight the reasoning above the forms. A learner who justifies a preference well is performing at A2 even with a wrong comparative inside it.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: -er against more · superlatives with the · as...as · too against enough word order.
- Speaking task: the L05 comparison, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold), judging the justified preference first.
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + each learner's flagged sound) and the proof timeline.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 6 — FOOD, QUANTITY & RESTAURANTS

countable and uncountable, how much · how many, and holding a real restaurant conversation.

Empire English 🏰 · Stage 1 · Citizen rank · consistency beats intensity

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: form -er comparatives · use than · make 3 correct comparisons. The spelling rules are the same three from Unit 2 — doubling, y→i, and just-add. Say that; it turns new material into a second use of something already learned. Watch for: than replaced by from, which is direct transfer from Arabic — أكبر من. It is the single most predictable error in this unit. Support: adjective bank plus the frame. Stretch: two comparisons in one sentence with but. Arabic ~35%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Compare two things: Cairo is bigger than Alexandria.
- Spell the -er form correctly.
- Make three real comparisons of your own. 🗣️

هتقارن بين حاجتين — وده حوار بنعمله كل يوم بالعربي بدون ما نحس.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Comparing is how people explain choices. Which phone is better? Which city is cheaper? Why did you pick that one? You cannot justify a decision in English without it.

والغلطة اللي بتحصل لكل المتعلمين العرب هنا إننا بنقول "أكبر من"، فبنترجمها لـ "bigger from".

English uses a completely different word — than — and it has no connection to from. Watch for this from your very first sentence, because it sets hard and fast.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From Unit 4, say one plan with going to and one prediction with will.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Keeps the future alive; the unit switches topic but the review queue does not.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two people comparing where they live (📞 in the portal).

A: Cairo is much bigger than Alexandria, but Alexandria is cooler in summer. B: True. And it's cheaper than Cairo — the flats are smaller, though. A: For me Cairo is busier, so Alexandria feels quieter and calmer.

Notice: every comparison word ends in -er, and when two things are named, than joins them.

English	بالعربي
bigger than	أكبر من
cheaper than	أرخص من
cooler	أبرد
quieter	أهدى

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners underline every -er word and circle each than. Note that than only appears when the second thing is mentioned.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Short adjective + -er + than.

Adjective	Comparative
big	bigger
cheap	cheaper
old	older
fast	faster

والكلمة اللي بتربط المقارنة هي than، ومعناها "من" في المقارنة بس. ماتستخدمش from أبداً هنا، وأسهل طريقة تفكرها إنك تسمعها في جملة كاملة كتير لحد ما ودنك تستغرب لو قلت غيرها.

The spelling rules are the three you already know from Unit 2:

Rule	Example
C-V-C → double the last letter	big → bigger • hot → hotter
consonant + y → i	easy → easier • busy → busier
everything else	cheap → cheaper

نفس قواعد ed- بالضبط. يعني إنت اتعلمتها مرة، وبتستخدمها ثاني هنا.

You can drop than when the second thing is already obvious:

- Alexandria is cheaper. → cheaper than Cairo, which we just mentioned

Add much to make it stronger: Cairo is much bigger than Tanta.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Teach the form, then link the spelling explicitly back to Unit 2. Drill than five times in isolation — the from substitution needs active blocking, not just a warning.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
bigger than	أكبر من	Cairo is bigger than Tanta. cheaper / more expensive	أرخص / أغلى	It's cheaper than that.
older / newer	أقدم / أحدث	My phone is older. faster / slower	أسرع / أبطأ	The metro is faster. quieter / busier	أهدى / أزعج	This street is quieter.
much	بكتير	much bigger
than	من (في المقارنة)	bigger than

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the /ð/ in than. The tongue tip goes lightly between the teeth and the sound is voiced — your throat vibrates.

- than — tongue between teeth
- dan — tongue behind the teeth (the common substitution)

Same sound as in this, that, the.

Target 2 — than is weak and unstressed. It shrinks to /ðən/ and disappears into the sentence. The adjective takes the stress:

Cairo is BIGger than Tanta.

صوت /ð/ ده موجود كمان في this و that، فلو ضبطته هنا بتكسب في كلمات كتير.

Record & compare: "This one is cheaper than that one."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. /ð/ first with the mirror, then the weak form. Learners who stress than sound robotic; it should almost vanish.

TRAIN — تدرب

Exercise 1 — make the comparative.

1. cheap → _____ 2. big → _____ 3. easy → _____ 4. hot → _____ 5. new → _____

Exercise 2 — complete with a comparative + than.

1. A car is _____ a bicycle. (fast)
2. Winter is _____ summer. (cold)
3. My flat is _____ yours. (small)

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. My brother is taller from me. → _____
2. This bag is more cheap than that one. → _____
3. Today is more hot than yesterday. → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. Compare two cities you know.TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: cheaper · bigger · easier · hotter · newer. Ex2: faster than · colder than · smaller than. Ex3: taller than me · cheaper · hotter — the last two are the "more + short adjective" error, which L02 then contrasts properly.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

Make three real comparisons: two cities, two phones, two foods — anything you actually have an opinion about.

 Record them.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: three correct -er forms with than, /ð/ audible.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post three comparisons about your city, your job, or your phone.
- The only fair comparison is you-today against you-on-Day-1. Not you against a classmate, and not you against a native speaker.

 REMEMBER — افكر

- Short adjective + -er + than.
- than, never from.
- Spelling: the same three rules as -ed — doubling, y→i, just add.
- much makes it stronger: much bigger.
- than is weak; the adjective takes the stress.

 SELF-CHECK — صحّح لنفسك

- Ex1: cheaper · bigger · easier · hotter · newer
- Ex2: 1) faster than · 2) colder than · 3) smaller than
- Ex3: 1) taller than me · 2) cheaper than · 3) hotter than

Two-syllable adjectives are genuinely mixed and not worth policing at A2 — accept either. Watch for the double comparative: "more cheaper", "more better". It comes from over-applying the new form and disappears with correction plus reps. Support: the two-column sort card. Stretch: compare three things in one turn. Arabic ~35%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Compare with long adjectives: more expensive · more beautiful.
- Use the two that break every rule: good → better and bad → worse.
- Choose between -er and more without guessing. 🗣️

في الدرس اللي فات كل الصفات كانت قصيرة. النهاردة الصفات الطويلة، وليها طريقة تانية.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Most of the adjectives you actually want in a real opinion are long ones — interesting, comfortable, important, difficult. Without more you are stuck comparing only sizes and prices.

And long adjectives are actually easier: you change nothing about the word itself. You put more in front and stop — no spelling change, no doubling, no letters swapped. The only difficulty is knowing which form to pick.

الصعوبة الوحيدة إنك تعرف تختار.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01, make two comparisons with -er and than.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Listen for from. If it has survived, block it again now before adding a second pattern.

 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two friends choosing a phone (📱 in the portal).

A: This one is more expensive than that one, but it's better. B: Is it? The cheaper one looks more beautiful to me. A: Maybe, but the battery is worse. And this screen is more comfortable for reading. B: OK, you're right. It's more important to have a good battery.

Notice: the long adjectives do not change at all — more simply goes in front. And better and worse look nothing like good and bad.

English	بالعربي
more expensive than	أغلى من
more beautiful	أجمل
better	أحسن
worse	أسوأ

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners split what they hear into -er forms, more forms and irregulars — three columns, discovered rather than given.

 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Long adjective → more + adjective + than. The adjective itself never changes.

Adjective	Comparative
expensive	more expensive
beautiful	more beautiful difficult	more difficult important	more important

How do you know which form to use? Count the syllables.

Syllables	Use	Example
one	-er	cheap → cheaper
three or more	more	expensive → more expensive
two	either is usually fine	quiet → quieter or more quiet

عُدّ المقاطع، ماتحفظش قوائم.

Two-syllable adjectives genuinely accept both forms, so there is nothing to worry about there.

Two adjectives ignore all of this:

good	better
bad	worse

⚠️ الغلطة المتوقعة: "more better" أو "more cheaper". اختار واحدة بس — إما more أو -er، وعمرك ما تجمع بينهم. والسبب إن الاثنين بيعملوا نفس الشغل، فلو جمعتهم بتبقى بتقول نفس المعنى مرتين في نفس الكلمة، وده اللي بيخلي الجملة تبان غلط على وذن السامع فورًا.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Lead with the syllable test — it is a rule they can apply, unlike "long adjectives". Then the two irregulars, then block the double comparative explicitly.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
more expensive	أغلى	It's more expensive. more beautiful	أجمل	more beautiful than more difficult	أصعب	This is more difficult. more important	أهم	Family is more important. more comfortable	أريح	a more comfortable chair better	أحسن	This one is better.
worse	أسوأ	The traffic is worse.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — long adjectives have a fixed stressed syllable. Put it in the wrong place and the word stops being recognisable.

Adjective	Stress
ex PEN sive	on the middle
BEAU tiful	on the first
DIF ficult	on the first
im PORT ant	on the middle
COM fortable	on the first

Target 2 — more is unstressed. It shrinks and hands the stress to the adjective:

It's more exPENsive.

النبرة في الكلمة الطويلة مش اختيارية — لو حطيتها غلط، الكلمة بتتغير ويمكن ماتتفهمش.

Record & compare: "It's more expensive, but it's more comfortable."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Clap the stress for each adjective, then have them clap it back. Misplaced stress in long adjectives is a bigger intelligibility problem at A2 than any vowel.

TRAIN — تدرب*Exercise 1 — -er or more?

1. cheap → _____ 2. interesting → _____ 3. old → _____ 4. comfortable → _____ 5. difficult → _____

Exercise 2 — good or bad?

2. The traffic today is _____ than yesterday. (bad)

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. This book is more better. → _____
2. Cairo is more big than Tanta. → _____
3. My car is expensiver than yours. → _____

Exercise 4 — mark the stress. ex-pen-sive · beau-ti-ful · im-por-tant

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: cheaper · more interesting · older · more comfortable · more difficult. Ex2: better · worse. Ex3: better · bigger · more expensive. Ex4: exPENSive · BEAUtiful · imPORTant.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Compare two things you actually have an opinion about — two jobs, two cities, two phones — using at least one more adjective and either better or worse.

 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: correct form choice, one long adjective with correct stress, no double comparative.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

The genuinely new thing is the obligatory the, which Arabic does not require — so that is where the drilling goes. Support: the pattern card. Stretch: add in the world · in my city · I've ever... Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

- Never forget the.
- Use the best and the worst. 🎤

المقارنة بين حاجتين خلصت. النهاردة حاجة واحدة على كله.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Superlatives are how people share what they love and recommend things. The best restaurant in Cairo. The worst traffic of the week. The most beautiful place I've seen.

The difference to feel: a comparative needs two things, while a superlative picks one out of a whole group.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

From L01 and L02, compare two things — once with -er, once with more.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Two forms, fast. The superlative is a small step from here and they should feel that.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Someone recommending places (📺 in the portal).

Khan el-Khalili is the oldest market in Cairo, and for me it's the most interesting place in the city. The food there is the best I've tried. The worst thing is the traffic — it's the busiest area at the weekend. But it's still the most beautiful old part of Cairo.

Notice: every single one begins with the. Not one exception.

English	بالعربي
the oldest market	أقدم سوق
the most interesting	الأكثر تشويقاً
the best	الأحسن
the worst	الأسوأ

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners count how many superlatives appear and confirm that the precedes all of them. Make the pattern feel absolute.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The same syllable test as last lesson, plus an obligatory the.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
big	bigger	the biggest cheap	cheaper	the cheapest
expensive	more expensive	the most expensive
beautiful	more beautiful	the most beautiful

يعني القاعدة اللي اتعلمتها امبارح هي نفسها: مقطع واحد ياخذ est-، وثلاثة أو أكثر ياخذوا the most.

The two irregulars again:

	Comparative	Superlative
good	better	the best
bad	worse	the worst

⚠️ دي الحاجة الجديدة الحقيقية: كلمة the إجبارية قبل الـ superlative، مفيش استثناء. في العربي بنقول "أحسن مطعم" من غير أداة، فبنميل ننسى الـ the في الإنجليزي. لازم تتقال دائماً.

Spelling follows the same three rules: big → biggest · easy → easiest · new → newest

Useful phrases that pair with it:

- in the world · in Cairo · in my family · of the year
- the best food I've ever tried

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Frame as transfer, then spend the time on the. Drill by prompting an adjective and requiring the full phrase including the, every time; accept nothing without it.

the worst	الأسوأ	the worst day

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the -est ending is /ɪst/. It is a full extra syllable, and it must be audible:

big-gest · cheapest · oldest — two syllables each

Learners often clip it to "bigges", which loses the ending entirely.

Target 2 — the before a vowel sound becomes /ði/.

the biggest /ðə/ · the oldest /ði/ · the easiest /ði/

Target 3 — in the most, the stress lands on the adjective, not on most:

the most exPENsive

ال-est مقطع كامل، فلازم تسمعه. ولاحظ إن the بتتغير لـ /ði/ قبل حرف علة.

Record & compare: "It's the oldest and the most beautiful part of the city."

too expensive does not mean expensive. It means expensive beyond what works for you.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

TEACHER'S EDITION

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two people looking at flats (📞 in the portal).

A: This flat is as expensive as the other one, but it's not as big as it. B: And it's too far from the metro. My car isn't fast enough for that traffic every morning. A: True. The kitchen isn't big enough either. B: So I prefer the first one, because it's closer and it has enough space.

Notice the positions: too comes before the adjective. enough comes after it.

English	بالعربي
as expensive as	غالي زي
not as big as	مش كبير زي
too far	بعيد أوي
big enough	كبير كفاية

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners mark where too and enough sit relative to the adjective. The positions are the lesson; let them see the pattern before you state it.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) as ... as — the two things are equal.

This phone is as good as that one. → the same

2) not as ... as — the first one is less.

This phone is not as good as that one. → the second is better خد بالك: not as good as معناها الأولى أقل. ودي طريقة مؤدبة تقول إن حاجة أضعف من غير ما تقولها بصراحة.

3) too — more than you want. It goes BEFORE the adjective.

It's too expensive. · It's too far. → a problem

4) enough — as much as you need. It goes AFTER the adjective.

It's big enough. · It isn't fast enough. → sufficient, or not

	Position	Example
too	before the adjective	too small
enough	after the adjective	small enough

⚠ دي الغلطة المتوقعة: "enough big". الترتيب معكوس — too قبل الصفة، وenough بعدها. اتخيل إيدك بتشاور: too على الشمال، enough على اليمين. وثبتت الحركة دي في دماغك، لأن القاعدة دي مالهاش منطق تحفظه، هي مجرد ترتيب لازم يتعود عليه.

With a noun, enough goes before it: enough money · enough time

5) Give a preference: I prefer this one because it's cheaper.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Four short blocks, each with two oral examples. Use hands for the too/enough positions — a physical cue outperforms a second explanation here.

I prefer	أنا أفضل	I prefer this one.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the rhythm of as ... as. Both as words are weak — /əz/. The adjective between them carries everything:

as BIG as · not as GOOD as

Say it as one connected run, not three separate words.

Target 2 — too is long, to is weak.

Word	Sound
too	long /u:/, and stressed — too expensive
to	weak /tə/, unstressed — going to work

الفرق بينهم مهم: too طويلة وعليها نبرة، و to خفيفة ومابتتنطقش كاملة.

 Record & compare: "It's not as big as I wanted, and it's too far."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The weak as is what makes the structure sound native. The too/to contrast prevents a real ambiguity.

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. The bag isn't enough big. → _____

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A clean comparison (📞 in the portal).

I lived in Cairo for ten years, and now I live in Alexandria. Cairo is much bigger and busier, and it's the best city for work — there are more opportunities. But it's more expensive, and the traffic is the worst in Egypt. Alexandria is quieter and the air is better, although it isn't as busy as Cairo, so there is less work. For me Alexandria is more comfortable, and it's not as stressful as Cairo. I prefer Alexandria because I sleep better and the sea is close.

Eight sentences. Find one of each: an -er form, a more form, a superlative, an as...as.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once for flow, once for the hunt. Note how the model concedes a point with but and although — that balance is what makes an opinion sound mature.

THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست المقارنة

1. ✓ Name the two things and where they stand
2. ✓ Two -er comparisons
3. ✓ One more comparison
4. ✓ One superlative with the
5. ✓ A concession — but · although
6. ✓ A preference with a reason — I prefer ... because ...
7. ★ not as ... as* somewhere

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Board it and hand out the card. Item 5 is the one that lifts a list into an argument; point at it.

ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your weakest from this unit:

- /ð/ in *than — tongue between the teeth, and the word stays weak
- long-adjective stress — exPENsive · BEAUtiful · imPORTant
- the -est ending — a full syllable, not clipped
- weak *as ... as — the adjective carries it

Record & compare your weakest one only.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Personalised from your L01–L04 flags. One target each.

YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

Rehearse with the checklist and a partner, then record.

Compare two cities — or two jobs, two phones, two anything you have a real opinion about — in 6–8 sentences, and finish by saying which you prefer and why.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. Ask one follow-up: So would you move back? Success check (Unit-5): 6–8 connected sentences, comparative and superlative forms mostly correct, and a preference with genuine reasons (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation at A2). Weight the reasoning above the forms.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your comparison.
- Complete the Unit-5 quiz.
- Compare your English now to Stage 0. Not to a classmate. Play your Day-1 recording — that is the only comparison that means anything.

REMEMBER — افكر (UNIT 5 WRAP)

- One syllable → -er / the -est · three or more → more / the most.
- than, never from. the before every superlative.
- good → better → the best · bad → worse → the worst.
- too before the adjective · enough after it.
- I prefer ... because ... — the reason is what makes it an opinion.

SELF-CHECK — UNIT 5 MINI-QUIZ

1. Cairo is ___ than Tanta. (big) → bigger
2. This phone is ___ than that one. (expensive) → more expensive
3. It's ___ restaurant in the city. (good) → the best
4. My flat isn't ___ big ___ yours. → as ... as
5. I can't buy it — it's ___ expensive. → too
6. The room isn't big ___. → enough

🎉 UNIT 5 COMPLETE — بقيت تقارن وتفضل

You can now say what is bigger, better, the best, not as good, too expensive or big enough — and, most importantly, why you prefer one over the other. That is opinion, not just description.

Next → Unit 6: Food, Quantity & Restaurants. Ordering, asking for amounts, and handling a real restaurant in English. 🏰

Empire English 🏰 — الرأي ببداً من السبب

STAGE 1 · UNIT 6

FOOD, QUANTITY & RESTAURANTS

👑 UNIT 6 — FOOD, QUANTITY & RESTAURANTS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 6 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit6-food-quantity-restaurants.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 6 you'll handle a restaurant on your own — talk about food and amounts, ask how much and how many, and order politely from start to finish. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: تدير موقف مطعم كامل بالإنجليزي، من أول ما تقعد لحد ما تدفع.

Why this unit feels different: the earlier units gave you language for talking about things. This one gives you language for doing something. At the end you will be able to walk into a café and handle it.

دي أول وحدة نتيجتها مهارة تستخدمها بره الفصل فورًا.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	Countable & uncountable · some/any	which foods take a plural · some against any
L02	much · many · a lot of · a few · a little	say how much without a number
L03	How much? / How many?	ask amounts and prices · containers
L04	At the restaurant	Could I have..., please? · polite intonation
L05	Role-play a meal (milestone) 🎧	the whole transaction + record your milestone

Grammar spine: countable and uncountable nouns · some/any · quantifiers · How much / How many · polite requests with Could. Accent Lab: food-word clusters with no inserted vowel · the reduced of · thirTEEN against THIRty, because it is money · rising intonation on requests. Mindset: real-world reps — ask a price, order a coffee, use it outside the classroom. Arabic support: ~35% at L01, fading to ~25% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-6 restaurant recording — a complete transaction, not a description.
- A skill you can use this week, outside any lesson.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L05 ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. L01's error is structural, not careless.

Arabic pluralises many nouns English treats as uncountable, so "some breads" and "many informations" are transfer. Teach the countable test as "can you count them one by one?" and the container workaround, rather than as a grammatical category to memorise. In L02, give a lot of first. It works with everything, so it is the safe option — and a learner who always has a safe option keeps talking, which is the actual goal. Refine into many/much and a few/a little afterwards. L03's teen-versus-ty stress is not a detail — it is money. Thirteen and thirty differ only in stress placement, and learners are usually unaware they are producing it ambiguously. L04 carries the most important social point in the stage: English politeness lives in grammar and intonation, not in extra words. Give me a coffee is grammatically perfect and socially rude, and learners almost never realise they sound blunt. Demonstrate the same sentence rising and falling and let them hear it. L05 is scored with Interaction included — it is a two-way task, so introduce one unscripted turn ("we don't have any fish today") and see them adapt.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: countable against uncountable · some/any · quantifier choice · How much against How many · make a blunt request polite.
- Speaking task: the L05 role-play, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold) with Interaction included.
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + each learner's flagged sound) and the proof timeline.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 7 — HEALTH & ADVICE saying what hurts, and using should to tell someone what to do about it.

Empire English 🏰 · Stage 1 · Citizen rank · consistency beats intensity

COUNTABLE VS UNCOUNTABLE; SOME / ANY

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 6 · Lesson 1 🕒 ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: Unit 5 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit6-food-quantity-restaurants.md · S1-U6-L01

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: sort food into countable and uncountable · use some and any correctly. Teach it as "can you count them one by one?" not as a grammatical category. Three rices is wrong for the same reason three waters is — you count the container, not the substance. The Arabic transfer to expect: Arabic pluralises many of these freely, so "I bought some breads" and "many informations" are structural, not careless. Support: the sort card. Stretch: name ten fridge items in the right column. Arabic ~35%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Tell which food words take a plural and which never do.
- Use some in statements and any in questions and negatives.
- Talk about what is in your kitchen right now. 🗣️

في الإنجليزي فيه كلمات أكل بتتعد وكلمات مابتتعدش، والفرق ده بيغير الجملة كلها.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Get this wrong and every sentence about shopping, cooking or ordering sounds off. Get it right and a whole unit of quantity language becomes straightforward.

والمشكلة إن العربي بيجمع كلمات كتير الإنجليزي مابيجمعهاش، زي "خبزات" و"معلومات".

So we translate directly and produce breads and informations, which are wrong. This is not carelessness — it is a real difference between the two languages, and it only has to be learned once.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From Unit 5, compare two foods you like.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Bridges the units and keeps comparatives in circulation.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Someone checking the kitchen before shopping (📺 in the portal).

We have some rice and some bread, but we don't have any milk. There are some eggs — four, I think — and some tomatoes. Do we have any sugar? ... No, there isn't any. And we need some water.

Notice: eggs and tomatoes have an -s. rice, bread, milk, sugar and water never do.

English	بالعربي
some rice	شوية رز
some eggs	شوية بيض
We don't have any milk.	مفيش لبن
Do we have any sugar?	فيه سكر؟

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners sort what they heard into two columns. Let the pattern emerge before you name it.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The test: can you count them one by one?

— you can count them	— you cannot
an egg → two eggs	rice
an apple → three apples	bread
a tomato → tomatoes	water · milk · sugar

اسأل نفسك: أقدر أعدّها واحدة واحدة؟ لو أيوه، تبقى معدودة وبتتجمع. لو لا، تفضل زي ما هي. والفكرة إن الحاجات غير المعدودة بنتعامل معاها كمادة واحدة، مش كقطع منفصلة، وعشان كده مالهاش جمع.

Uncountable words follow three fixed habits:

1. No plural. rice, never rices.
2. No a or an. Not a bread — say some bread.
3. They take a singular verb. The water is cold.

To count them, count the container instead:

two bottles of water · three pieces of bread · a kilo of rice

Now some and any:

	Use	Example
✓ statements	some	We have some bread.
✗ negatives	any	We don't have any bread.
? questions	any	Do we have any bread?

⚠ استثناء تستاهل تعرفه: لما تطلب حاجة أو تعرض حاجة، بنستخدم some في السؤال: "Would you like some tea?" — لأن ده عرض، مش سؤال عن وجود الحاجة.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Lead with the counting test, then the three habits, then some/any. The offer exception is worth including — learners meet it constantly and it otherwise looks like a broken rule.

✂ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
rice / bread	رز / عيش	some bread water / milk / sugar	ماية / لبن / سكر	any milk
eggs / apples / tomatoes	بيض / تفاح / طماطم	some eggs vegetables / fruit	خضار / فاكهة	some vegetables
a bottle of	إزارة	a bottle of water
a piece of	حتة	a piece of bread
a kilo of	كيلو	a kilo of rice

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target — consonant clusters in food words, with no vowel pushed inside.

Arabic does not usually allow these clusters, so a vowel tends to slip in:

Word	✓	✗
bread	bred — one syllable	"be-read" fruit	froot — one syllable	"fe-root"
vegetables	VEJ -ta-bulz — three	"ve-ge-ta-bles"
milk	milk — one	"mi-lik"

الحرفين الساكنين في أول الكلمة بيتنطقوا ورا بعض على طول، من غير حركة بينهم.

Note that vegetables is three syllables, not four — the second e disappears entirely.

 Record & compare: "I bought some bread, fruit and vegetables."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. vegetables is the highest-value fix — learners almost universally give it four syllables.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — countable or uncountable?

rice · egg · water · apple · bread · tomato · sugar · milk

Exercise 2 — some or any?

1. We have _____ rice at home.
2. I don't want _____ sugar in my tea.
3. Do you have _____ eggs?
4. Would you like _____ coffee?

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I bought some breads. → _____
2. She drank a water. → _____

3. There are many informations. → _____

Exercise 4 — your kitchen. Three things you have, one thing you don't.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: countable — egg, apple, tomato · uncountable — rice, water, bread, sugar, milk. Ex2: some · any · any · some (the offer). Ex3: some bread · some water / a glass of water · a lot of information.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Say what is in your kitchen: three things you have with some, and one thing you don't with any.

 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct some/any, no plural on uncountables, clusters clean.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post four sentences about your fridge, using some and any.
- Real-world rep: tonight, name everything in your fridge in English, out loud. Nobody has to hear it.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Can you count them one by one? Then they take a plural.
- Uncountables: no plural · no a/an · singular verb.
- Count the container: a bottle of water.
- some in statements · any in negatives and questions · some in offers.
- bread · fruit · milk are one syllable. vegetables is three.

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: choose the right quantifier · use a lot of in statements · use a few and a little. The shortcut worth giving them: a lot of works with everything. Teach that first so they always have a safe option, then refine. A learner who never risks a quantity sentence learns nothing. Watch for: much used in statements — "I have much work". It is grammatically odd rather than wrong-meaning, and a lot of fixes it instantly. Support: the two-column card. Stretch: contrast a few against few. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Say how much of something there is, without a number.
- Use a lot of — which works with everything.
- Tell a few from a little. 🎧

بعد ما عرفت المعدود وغير المعدود، دلوقتي تقول الكمية.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Most of the time you do not give an exact number. You say a lot, a few, not much. That is how quantity actually gets discussed.

والمفتاح هنا إن اختيار الكلمة بيعتمد على اللي اتعلمته في الدرس اللي فات: معدود ولا غير معدود.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01, name three countable and three uncountable foods.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. This lesson stands entirely on that sort, so confirm it holds before adding anything.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two people planning a dinner (📞 in the portal).

A: How is the kitchen? Do we have a lot of food? B: We have a lot of rice and a few eggs, but there isn't much milk. A: How many people are coming? B: Six. So we need a lot of bread and a little more sugar for the tea. A: OK. There aren't many tomatoes either — I'll buy some.

Notice: many and a few go with things you can count. much and a little go with things you cannot. a lot of goes with both.

English	بالعربي
a lot of rice	رز كثير
a few eggs	شوية بيض
not much milk	لبن مش كثير
a little sugar	شوية سكر

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners note which quantifier attaches to which kind of noun — the table below should confirm what they already spotted.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Start with the safe one: a lot of works with everything.

a lot of rice · a lot of eggs · a lot of work · a lot of people

Then the pairs that split:

	Countable	Uncountable
a large amount	many	much
a small amount	a few	a little

- many eggs · a few eggs
- much milk · a little milk

يعني كل كلمة ليها توأم: many/much, و a few / a little. الاختيار بينهم بيرجع للمعدود وغير المعدود.

One habit that matters: much and many live mostly in questions and negatives. In a positive statement, use a lot of:

✓ I have a lot of work.	✗ I have much work.
✓ Do you have much work?	✓ I don't have much work.

⚠ الغلطة المتوقعة إنك تقول "I have much work". مش غلط في المعنى، بس مش كده اللي بيتقال. استخدم a lot of في الإثبات وخلاص.

And a few is not few:

- I have a few friends. → some, and that is fine
- I have few friends. → not many, and that is a complaint

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Give a lot of first as the always-safe option — it removes the fear of the choice. Then the two pairs, then the statement habit. The a few / few contrast is a stretch item; include it only if the group is comfortable.

✂ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
a lot of	كثير	a lot of people
many	كثير (معدود)	many eggs
much	كثير (غير معدود)	not much time a few	شوية (معدود)	a few days
a little	شوية (غير معدود)	a little sugar not much / not many	مش كثير	There isn't much. more	أكثر	a little more

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — of almost disappears. In a lot of it reduces to /əv/, and often to little more than a /v/:

a lot of rice → "a-LOT-ə-rice"

Say all three words fully and you sound like you are reading. The stress belongs on lot.

Target 2 — a few and a little have their own rhythm. Both are three quick beats with the stress in the middle:

a FEW days · a LIT-tle sugar

كلمة of بتخف جدًا في الكلام، والنبرة بتقع على lot.

 Record & compare: "There's a lot of rice but only a little sugar."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The reduced of is what makes the phrase sound natural; it is a quick, high-return fix.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — much or many?

1. How _____ eggs do we need?
2. There isn't _____ water in the bottle.
3. I don't have _____ friends here.
4. We don't have _____ time.

Exercise 2 — a few or a little?

1. I need _____ sugar in my coffee.
2. She stayed for _____ days.
3. Can I have _____ more rice?
4. I have _____ questions.

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I have much homework today. → _____
2. There are much people here. → _____
3. Can I have a few water? → _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: many · much · many · much. Ex2: a little · a few · a little · a few. Ex3: a lot of homework · a lot of people / many people · a little water.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Describe your week using quantity words: something you have a lot of, something you have a few of, and something there isn't much of.

Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: three quantifiers matched correctly to countable or uncountable nouns, with the reduced of audible.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post three sentences about quantities in your life — work, time, friends, money.
- A little every day beats a lot once. That is true of rice, and it is true of practice.

REMEMBER — افكر

Learners find that reassuring rather than confusing once it is named — one phrase, two jobs. Support: container flashcards. Stretch: a full market exchange with a price negotiation. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Ask How much and How many with the right noun.
- Use container words: a bottle · a cup · a piece · a kilo.
- Ask a price and understand the answer. 🗣️

النهاردة تسأل عن الكمية والسعر — وده أهم سؤال في أي محل.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Asking a price is probably the most useful transaction sentence in any language. And containers are how you put a number on things you cannot count.

And notice that How much? does two jobs: it asks about an uncountable amount, and it asks a price. One phrase, two uses.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L02, use a lot of, a few and a little in three sentences.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Fast round; the quantifiers feed straight into today's questions.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

At a small grocery (🛒 in the portal).

Customer: How much is a kilo of tomatoes? Seller: Twenty-five pounds. Customer: OK. And how many eggs are in the box? Seller: Thirty. How much rice do you want? Customer: Two kilos, please. And a bottle of water and three pieces of bread. Seller: That's ninety pounds altogether.

Notice: How much appears twice — once for a price and once for an uncountable amount.

English	بالعربي
How much is a kilo?	الكيلو بكام؟
How many eggs?	كام بيضة؟
a bottle of water	إزازة ماية
altogether	الإجمالي

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners identify which How much is which. Also drill altogether — it appears in every real transaction.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The choice follows the noun, exactly as in L02.

Question	Use with	Example
How many	countable	How many eggs?
How much	uncountable	How much rice?
How much	price	How much is it?

يعني نفس القاعدة: معدود ياخذ many، وغير معدود ياخذ much. والزيادة الجديدة إن السعر كمان بياخذ How much.

Container words let you count the uncountable:

Container	Goes with
a bottle of	water · milk · oil
a cup / glass of	tea · coffee · water
a piece of	bread · cake · cheese
a kilo of	rice · meat · tomatoes
a packet of	sugar · biscuits

Note the plural sits on the container, not the food: two bottles of water, never two waters.

⚠️ خلي بالك: الجمع بيتحط على العلبة أو الوحدة، مش على الأكل نفسه. بنقول three pieces of bread, مابنقولش three breads. والسبب إن اللي بيتعد هو الحطة أو الإزارة، مش المادة نفسها.

Asking a price, three ways:

- How much is it? · How much are they? · How much does it cost?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Frame as transfer, then the containers, then the price forms. The plural-on-the-container rule is the one worth drilling — it is where the L01 uncountable rule actually gets used.

a piece of	حطة	a piece of bread
a kilo of	كيلو	two kilos of rice altogether	الإجمالي	That's 90 altogether.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — numbers have to be unmistakable, because money depends on them. The pairs that cause real trouble:

thir TEEN vs THIR ty	stress at the end vs the beginning
four TEEN vs FOUR ty	same
fif TEEN vs FIF ty	same

The -teen numbers stress the end. The -ty numbers stress the beginning. That stress is the only difference, and getting it wrong changes the price.

النبرة هي الفرق الوحيد بين 13 و30. لو حطيتها غلط، السعر بيتغير.

Target 2 — the question tune. How much is it? falls at the end ٧, like every wh- question.

🎧 Record & compare: "How much is thirteen kilos? ... No, thirty."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The teen/ty contrast is the priority — it has real consequences and learners are usually unaware they are producing it ambiguously.

Exercise 1 — How much or How many?

- _____ sugar do you want?
- _____ people are coming?
- _____ is this bag?

Exercise 4 — say these clearly. 13 · 30 · 14 · 40 · 15 · 50

TEACHER'S EDITION

- Use it in the wild: ask a price in English this week. A shop, a café, anywhere. One sentence is enough.

REMEMBER — افكر

- How many + countable · How much + uncountable · How much for price.
- Containers let you count: a bottle of · a piece of · a kilo of.
- The plural goes on the container: two bottles of water.
- thirTEEN against THIRty — the stress is the price.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) How much · 2) How many · 3) How much · 4) How many
- Ex2: 1) bottles · 2) cup · 3) pieces · 4) kilo
- Ex3: 1) How much rice · 2) three pieces of bread · 3) How many eggs

AT THE RESTAURANT: ORDERING POLITELY

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 6 · Lesson 4 🕒 ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L03 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit6-food-quantity-restaurants.md · S1-U6-L04

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: order with Could I have and I'll have · ask for the menu and the bill · sound polite. Politeness in English is carried by GRAMMAR and INTONATION, not by extra words. Give me a coffee is grammatically perfect and socially rude. Learners rarely realise they are being blunt, so name it directly — it protects them in real situations. Support: the phrase card to read from. Stretch: handle a problem — a wrong order, a missing item. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Order food politely: Could I have the chicken, please?
- Ask for the menu, and ask for the bill.
- Handle the whole visit from sitting down to paying. 🗣️

النهاردة موقف كامل من أوله لآخره — وده أول موقف حياتي بتقدر تديره بالإنجليزي لوحده.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Ordering a meal is a complete, self-contained win. It has a beginning, an end, and a fixed set of sentences — which means you can be genuinely good at it after one lesson.

والأدب في الإنجليزي مش بيتعمل بكلمات زيادة، بيتعمل بالتركيب والنبرة.

"Give me a coffee" is one hundred per cent correct grammar and lands badly. Learners usually have no idea they are coming across as blunt, which is exactly why it is worth saying out loud.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L03, ask a partner two prices.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Price questions reappear in the role-play, so keep them warm.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

A full restaurant visit (📺 in the portal).

Waiter: Good evening. A table for two? Customer: Yes, please. Could we see the menu? Waiter: Of course. ... Are you ready to order? Customer: Yes. Could I have the grilled chicken, please? And I'll have a bottle of water. Waiter: Anything else? Customer: Could we have some bread as well, please? Waiter: Certainly. (later) Customer: That was lovely, thank you. Could we have the bill, please?

Notice: almost every request begins with Could I / Could we, and almost every one ends with please.

English	بالعربي
Could we see the menu?	ممكن نشوف المنيو؟
Could I have the chicken?	ممكن آخذ الفراخ؟
Anything else?	حاجة تانية؟
Could we have the bill?	ممكن الحساب؟

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners count the Could requests. Then say a blunt version aloud — "Give me chicken" — and let them hear the difference for themselves.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The polite request pattern: Could I have ..., please?

Could I have	the chicken, please?
Could we have	the bill, please?
Could I see	the menu, please?

Could هي مفتاح الأدب في الإنجليزي كله، مش في المطعم بس. استخدمها في أي طلب — في الشغل، في محل، مع حد Could ماتعرفهوش. وهي بتشتغل لأنها بتحوّل الأمر لسؤال، فبتسيب للطرف الثاني مساحة يرد.

Two other ways to order, both natural:

Phrase	Feel
I'll have the fish.	deciding now — this is will from Unit 4
I'd like the soup.	slightly more formal, always safe

The four things that make a request polite:

1. Could, not give me
2. please — at the end, or after Could I
3. rising intonation ↗
4. thank you afterwards

⚠ الغلطة الشائعة: "I want the chicken". مش غلط قواعديًا، بس بتوصل مثل أمر. استخدم Could I have أو I'll have.

The visit, in order: A table for two → Could we see the menu? → Could I have...? → Anything else? → Could we have the bill?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Teach Could I have as the workhorse, then the two alternatives. Make the four politeness markers explicit — learners often have the words but flat intonation, which undoes them.

🗡 YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
Could I have...?	ممکن آخذ...؟	Could I have the fish?
I'll have...	هاخذ...	I'll have tea.
I'd like...	عايز... (بأدب)	I'd like the soup.
the menu	المنيو	Could we see the menu?
the bill	الحساب	the bill, please
Anything else?	حاجة ثانية؟	waiter's question
for two	لاتنين	A table for two.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the request must RISE at the end. This is where politeness actually lives:

Could I have the chicken, please? ↗

Say the same words with a falling tone and it becomes an instruction. The words are identical; only the tune changed.

Target 2 — Could has a silent l.

could = /kʊd/ — like good, with a k. Not "kold".

Target 3 — please is one syllable with a long /i:/ and a soft /z/ at the end: pleaz.

النبرة الصاعدة هي اللي بتخلي الطلب مؤدب. نفس الكلمات بنبرة نازلة بتبقى أمر.

 Record & compare: "Could I have the bill, please?" — once rising, once falling. Hear the difference in yourself.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The rise-versus-fall demonstration is the single most valuable thing in this lesson. Have every learner produce both and identify which sounds rude.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — make it polite.

1. Give me a coffee. → _____
2. I want the menu. → _____
3. Bring the bill. → _____

Exercise 2 — put the visit in order. Number 1–5.

- _____ Could we have the bill, please?
- _____ A table for two, please.
- _____ Could I have the chicken, please?
- _____ Could we see the menu?
- _____ Anything else? — No, thank you.

Exercise 3 — complete the order. You want soup, grilled fish and a bottle of water.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: Could I have a coffee, please? · Could I see the menu, please? · Could we have the bill, please? Ex2: 5 · 1 · 3 · 2 · 4. Ex3: check please is present and the tone rises.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Role-play with a partner: one waiter, one customer. Run the whole visit — menu, order, one extra request, then the bill.

Record your order.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: two polite requests with Could, please present, rising intonation audible.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your restaurant order as a voice note — and listen back for the rise.
- Confidence: ordering in English is a small, doable, real win. Take it the next chance you get.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Could I have ..., please? is the polite workhorse — everywhere, not just restaurants.
- I'll have = deciding now · I'd like = always safe.
- I want sounds like an order. Avoid it.
- Politeness lives in the rising tone as much as in the words.
- could rhymes with good; the l is silent.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) Could I have a coffee, please? · 2) Could I see the menu, please? · 3) Could we have the bill, please?
- Ex2: 5 · 1 · 3 · 2 · 4

Empire English 🏰 — الأدب في الثبرة زي ما هو في الكلمات

UNIT SPEAKING TASK: ROLE-PLAY ORDERING A MEAL (+ REVIEW)

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 6 · Lesson 5 — UNIT MILESTONE 🕒 ~35 min · 📞 Recorded + live (assessment-style)
 · Prerequisite: L01–L04 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit6-food-quantity-restaurants.md · S1-U6-L05

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 5 · Model 4 · Checklist 4 · Accent clinic 4 · Rehearse 7 · Record 5 · Feedback 2 · Assign —. Objectives: run a full restaurant exchange · handle quantities and a price · record the milestone. This is the first milestone that is a real-world TRANSACTION rather than a description. Frame it that way: they are not describing a restaurant, they are handling one. That reframing is what makes learners take it outside the classroom. Support: the phrase card, and let them be the customer. Stretch: handle a problem — a wrong dish, a missing item. Arabic ~25% — nearly all English.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (MILESTONE)

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Run a complete restaurant conversation, start to finish.
- Order politely, ask a quantity, ask a price.
- Record your Unit-6 milestone. 🎤

ده أول موقف حقيقي بتديره لوحدهك بالإنجليزي من أول ما تقعد لحد ما تدفع.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخْن (سلسلة)

Rapid chain: some/any → a quantifier → How much or How many → a polite request.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Fast retrieval across the four lessons.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A complete visit, with a small complication (📞 in the portal).

Waiter: Good evening. How many people? Customer: Three, please. Could we sit near the window?
Waiter: Of course. Here's the menu. Customer: Thank you. ... Could I have the grilled chicken, please? And could we have some bread for the table? Waiter: Certainly. Anything to drink?

Customer: Two bottles of water, please. How much is the fresh juice? Waiter: Thirty pounds.

Customer: Then I'll have one as well. (later) Customer: Excuse me — I didn't order this. Could we have the bill, please?

Notice: the customer stayed polite even when correcting a mistake. Excuse me does that work.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once whole, once for the complication. That final turn is the stretch target — polite correction is a genuinely advanced social move at A2.

THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست الموقف الكامل

1.  Open it — A table for three, please
2.  Ask for the menu — Could we see the menu?
3.  Order politely — Could I have ... , please?
4.  A quantity or a container — two bottles of water · some bread
5.  Ask a price — How much is ...?
6.  Close it — Could we have the bill, please?
7.  Handle a problem — Excuse me, I didn't order this

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Board it and hand out the card. Seven steps is a lot to hold, so let them keep the card during the recording — the target is the transaction, not memorisation.

ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your weakest from this unit:

- rising intonation on requests ↗ — this is where politeness lives
- food-word clusters — bread · fruit · vegetables with no vowel inside
- numbers — thirTEEN against THIRty, because it is money
- the reduced of — a lot of · a bottle of

 Record & compare your weakest one only.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Personalised from your L01–L04 flags. If in doubt, choose the intonation — it carries the most social weight.

 YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

Rehearse with a partner, swap roles, then record.

Run the whole restaurant visit as the customer: open, menu, order with a quantity, ask one price, close with the bill.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. You play the waiter and introduce one unscripted turn — "Sorry, we don't have any fish today" — so they have to adapt live. Success check (Unit-6): a complete transaction with two polite requests, one quantity or container, one price question, and audible rising intonation (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation + Interaction at A2). Interaction matters most here — this is a two-way task.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your order.
- Complete the Unit-6 quiz.
- Do it for real. Order something in English this week — a coffee, a sandwich, anything. You are ready for that now, and it is the whole point of the unit.

 REMEMBER — افكر (UNIT 6 WRAP)

- Countable takes a plural; uncountable never does. Count the container.
- some in statements · any in negatives and questions · some in offers.
- a lot of works with everything · many/a few countable · much/a little uncountable.
- How many + countable · How much + uncountable and for price.
- Could I have ..., please? with a rising tone.

 SELF-CHECK — UNIT 6 MINI-QUIZ

1. We don't have ___ milk. → any
2. There are ___ eggs in the box. (12) → a lot of / twelve

3. ___ rice do you want? → How much
 4. ___ people are coming? → How many
 5. Two ___ of water, please. → bottles
 6. Polite version of "Give me the bill" → Could we have the bill, please?

🎉 UNIT 6 COMPLETE — بقيت تدير موقف كامل

Five units ago you could describe the present. You can now walk into a restaurant, read a menu, order politely, ask what something costs, correct a mistake, and pay — entirely in English.

Next → Unit 7: Health & Advice. Saying what hurts, and telling someone what they should do. 🏰

Empire English 🏰 — موقف حقيقي من أوله لآخره

STAGE 1 · UNIT 7

HEALTH & ADVICE

👑 UNIT 7 — HEALTH & ADVICE

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 7 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit7-health-and-advice.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 7 you'll say what's wrong and help someone else — describe symptoms, give advice, separate what's necessary from what isn't, and handle a pharmacy. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: تقول إيه اللي وجعك، وتنصح غيرك، وتفرّق بين اللازم واللي مش لازم.

Why this unit is different in kind: everything before it was about you — your past, your plans, your opinions. This unit is the first time you use English to help another person. That is a social skill, and learners feel the difference.

ودي أول وحدة نتيجتها إنك تنفع حد تاني، مش إنك تعبّر عن نفسك.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	Body & symptoms	have + a symptom · feel + an adjective · My back hurts
L02	should / shouldn't	give advice, and soften it so it helps
L03	have to · must	necessity — and don't have to ≠ shouldn't
L04	Health habits & the doctor	assemble all three in a real pharmacy exchange
L05	Advise a friend (milestone) 🎙️	react, ask, advise with a reason + record your milestone

Grammar spine: have/feel for symptoms · should / shouldn't · have to / don't have to / must. Accent Lab: the /θ/-/ð/ consolidation — health words are unusually thick with them — plus stress on the advice verb, have to → /hæftə/, and the silent l in should · could · would. Mindset: never miss twice · health is the base of consistency. Arabic support: ~30% at L01, fading to ~25% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-7 advice recording — the first time you use English to look after someone.
- A pharmacy exchange you could genuinely handle abroad.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L05 ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. L01's split is the grammar: English uses have for a symptom you possess and feel for a state. Blur them and you get "I have tired" and "I feel headache". It is also the /θ/–/ð/ consolidation point, and that is not arbitrary — throat, teeth, mouth, health, breathe are all in this lexical field. L02's form takes two minutes; spend the rest on softeners. Bare should sounds like an instruction and learners cannot hear that they are being blunt. I think and maybe are the whole social lesson. L03 contains the single most valuable correction in the unit: don't have to *does not mean *shouldn't. It means there is no need. A learner who confuses them turns "You don't have to come" into a rejection. Give it four examples of its own. L04 is integration, not new grammar. Correct the assembly under conversational pressure, not the parts — learners routinely get each piece right in isolation and lose two of them inside a real exchange. L05 is scored with Interaction, and warmth counts. Give them a specific problem to respond to so the advice cannot be generic.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: have against feel · should/shouldn't form · have to against don't have to · soften a blunt piece of advice.
- Speaking task: the L05 advice exchange, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold) with Interaction included.
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + each learner's flagged sound) and the proof timeline.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 8 — TRAVEL & TRANSPORT

tickets, timetables, and asking for directions somewhere you have never been.

Empire English 🏰 · Stage 1 · Citizen rank · consistency beats intensity

BODY & SYMPTOMS: "WHAT'S THE MATTER?"

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 7 · Lesson 1 🕒 ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: Unit 6 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit7-health-and-advice.md · S1-U7-L01

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: name body parts · describe symptoms with have · use I feel + adjective. The pattern split is the lesson: English uses have for a symptom you possess and feel for a state. I have a headache against I feel tired. Learners who blur them produce "I have tired" and "I feel headache". This is also the /θ/-/ð/ consolidation point. Health vocabulary is unusually thick with those sounds — throat, teeth, mouth, health, breathe — which is why the syllabus puts them here. Support: the body diagram. Stretch: describe a symptom you actually had recently. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Name the parts of the body you might need to talk about.
- Say what is wrong: I have a headache.
- Say how you feel: I feel tired. 🎧

لو مرضت بره، الجمل دي هي اللي بتوصل مشكلتك. مش رفاهية.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Being unable to say what hurts is one of the few moments where missing vocabulary is genuinely serious. It is also, at A2, a small and closed set of words — so it is quick to fix.

وفي الوحدة دي بنرجع لصوتين مهمين: /θ/ و /ð/. كلمات الصحة مليانة بيهم — throat, teeth, mouth, health — فدي أحسن فرصة تظبطهم فيها. وكلها كلمات معدودة.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From Unit 6, order something politely with Could I have.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Keeps the polite request pattern alive; it returns in L04 at the pharmacy.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

A phone call to a friend (📞 in the portal).

A: You don't sound well. What's the matter? B: I have a bad cold. My throat hurts and I have a headache. A: Oh no. Do you have a temperature? B: A little. I just feel very tired and weak. A: You should rest. Don't go to work tomorrow.

Notice the two patterns: I have a headache — a thing you possess. I feel tired — a state you are in.

English	بالعربي
What's the matter?	مالك؟
I have a cold.	أنا مبرد
My throat hurts.	زوري بيوجعني
I feel tired.	حاسس بتعب

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners sort what they hear into have sentences and feel sentences. That sort is the grammar of the lesson.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Three patterns cover almost everything.

1) have + a symptom — for a thing you have got:

I have a headache · a cold · a temperature · a sore throat · a stomach ache

2) feel + an adjective — for a state:

I feel tired · sick · dizzy · weak · better

3) ... hurts — for a specific part:

My back hurts. · My tooth hurts.

ولاحظ إن الفعل هنا بيتغير على حسب العضو نفسه، عضو واحد وعضوين مش زي بعض.

⚠️ دي الغلطة المتوقعة: خلط الاثنين. بنقول I feel tired و I have a headache مش I feel ولا I have tired. القاعدة البسيطة: have بتيجي مع اسم، و feel بتيجي مع صفة. headache.

Body parts you will need:

head · throat · stomach · back	tooth → teeth
eye · ear · hand · leg	foot → feet

And the question that opens all of this: What's the matter? or What's wrong?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Teach the three patterns with two oral examples each, then contrast have + noun against feel + adjective directly. Flag the two irregular plurals — teeth and feet — since both are common in health talk.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
a headache	صداع	I have a headache. a cold	برد	She has a cold. a sore throat	التهاب زور	I have a sore throat.
a temperature	حرارة	Do you have a temperature? tired / sick / dizzy	تعبان / تعبان جدًا / دايم	I feel dizzy.
... hurts	بيوجعني	My back hurts.
teeth / feet	سنان / رجلين	My teeth hurt.

🎤 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Two sounds, one tongue position — and health words are full of both.

Sound	Voiced?	Words
/θ/	no — no vibration	throat · teeth · mouth · health
/ð/	yes — throat vibrates	this · the · breathe · there

The tongue tip sits lightly between the teeth for both. The only difference is whether your voice is switched on.

The test: hand on your throat. teeth → still. breathe → vibrating.

نفس مكان اللسان في الاتنين، والفرق بس إن الصوت شغال ولا لأ. حط إيدك على رقبتك وجرب الكلمتين ورا بعض.

Watch for the two substitutions: /θ/ becoming /s/ — "sroat" — and /ð/ becoming /d/ — "dis".

Record & compare: "My throat and my teeth hurt, and I can't breathe well."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Mirror plus hand-on-throat. This pair was introduced back in Stage 0; this is the consolidation, so expect progress rather than a first attempt.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ

Exercise 1 — have or feel?

1. I _____ a headache.
2. I _____ tired today.
3. She _____ a cold.
4. He _____ much better now.

Exercise 2 — complete with a body part.

1. I can't eat — my _____ hurts. (tooth)
2. I sat all day and now my _____ hurts. (back)
3. I can't speak well — my _____ is sore. (throat)

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I have tired. → _____
2. I feel a headache. → _____
3. My tooths hurt. → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. Describe how you feel right now, in two sentences.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: have · feel · has · feels. Ex2: tooth · back · throat. Ex3: I feel tired · I have a headache · My teeth hurt.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

Describe a time you were ill: two symptoms with have, and one feeling with feel.

 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct have/feel split, one body part, /θ/ audible in at least one word.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post two sentences about how you feel today.
- Never miss twice. One low day is normal and human. Two in a row is where a habit quietly ends.

 REMEMBER — افكر

- have + a noun: a headache · a cold.
- feel + an adjective: tired · dizzy · better.
- ... hurts for a part: My back hurts.
- tooth → teeth · foot → feet.
- /θ/ and /ð/ share a tongue position; only the voice differs.

 SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) have · 2) feel · 3) has · 4) feels
- Ex2: 1) tooth · 2) back · 3) throat
- Ex3: 1) I feel tired · 2) I have a headache · 3) My teeth hurt

GIVING ADVICE: SHOULD / SHOULDN'T

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 7 · Lesson 2 🕒 ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L01 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit7-health-and-advice.md · S1-U7-L02

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: give advice with should · advise against with shouldn't · ask for advice. This is a social skill, not only a structure. Being able to advise a friend is one of the first genuinely warm things a learner can do in English, and they usually feel that. Say so. The form is the easy part — no to, no change for person. Spend the time on softeners, because bare should can sound bossy and learners do not hear that. Support: the advice-verb bank. Stretch: two pieces of advice with a reason each. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Tell someone what to do: You should rest.
- Advise against something: You shouldn't work today.
- Ask for advice: What should I do? 🗣️

عرفت تقول إيه اللي وجعك. النهاردة تنصح غيرك — ودي مهارة اجتماعية حقيقية.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Advice is one of the warmest things you can offer in another language. It says I am paying attention to you — and it takes one small word.

والصعوبة مش في التركيب — ده أسهل جزء. الصعوبة إنك تقولها نصيحة مش أوامر.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01, describe two symptoms.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The symptoms become the material the advice responds to.

🔊 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

A friend giving advice (📺 in the portal).

A: I have a terrible headache and I feel dizzy. B: You should drink more water — maybe you're dehydrated. And you shouldn't look at your phone so much. A: What should I do about the headache now? B: I think you should rest for an hour. If it doesn't stop, you should see a doctor. A: OK, thanks.

Notice: the advice is softened. maybe, I think — they make a suggestion instead of an order.

English	بالعربي
You should drink water.	لازم تشرب ماية
You shouldn't work today.	ماينفعش تشتغل النهاردة
What should I do?	أعمل إيه؟
I think you should rest.	أنا شايف إنك ترتاح

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners mark every softener. Then say a bare version — "Drink water. Rest." — so they hear how different it lands.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

Form: should + the simple verb. Nothing else changes, ever.

I / you / he / she / we / they	should rest negative	shouldn't work

مفيش s مع he و she، ومفيش to بعد should. الفعل زي ما هو.

Three uses:

Use	Example
advice	You should see a doctor. advice against	You shouldn't drink coffee at night. asking for advice	What should I do?

Now the part that matters socially — soften it. Bare should can sound like an instruction:

Softer
I think you should...	the most useful one
Maybe you should...	gentle
You could...	a suggestion, not advice

⚠️ خلي بالك: "You should sleep" لوحدها ممكن توصل كأمر. حظ I think أو maybe قبلها، وهتوصل نصيحة مش تعليمات.

Watch the two form errors: ❌ He shoulds rest · ❌ You should to rest

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Form in two minutes — it is genuinely trivial. Spend the remaining four on softeners and have them re-say bare advice with I think in front, aloud.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
You should...	لازم / الأفضل إنك	You should rest.
You shouldn't...	ماينفعش	You shouldn't smoke.
What should I do?	أعمل إيه؟	asking
I think you should...	أنا شايف إنك	softener
Maybe you should...	يمكن الأفضل	softener
see a doctor	تروح لدكتور	You should see a doctor. take medicine	تاخذ دوا	take some medicine

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — the stress goes on the ADVICE VERB, not on should.

You should REST. · You shouldn't WORK today.

should is weak and short. Stress it instead and you sound as if you are arguing.

Target 2 — should has a silent l.

should = /ʃʊd/ — like good with a "sh". Not "shold". Same family as could and would, all with the silent l.

Target 3 — shouldn't keeps its final /t/, exactly like didn't and wasn't.

النبرة على الفعل مش على should. ولاحظ إن الـ l ساكنة في should و could و would.

 Record & compare: "I think you should rest, and you shouldn't go to work."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The silent l generalises across three high-frequency modals, so it is efficient to teach here.

تدرّب — TRAINExercise 1 — advise them.

1. "I have a headache." → _____
2. "I can't sleep at night." → _____
3. "I feel tired all the time." → _____

Exercise 2 — should or shouldn't?

1. You _____ drink water when you have a temperature.
2. You _____ eat heavy food when your stomach hurts.
3. You _____ see a doctor if it doesn't stop.

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. He shoulds rest. → _____
2. You should to see a doctor. → _____

Exercise 4 — soften it. "Sleep more." → _____TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: accept any sensible advice with correct form. Ex2: should · shouldn't · should. Ex3: He should rest · You should see a doctor. Ex4: I think you should sleep more.

YOUR TURN — دورك

A partner tells you a problem. Give two pieces of advice — one with should, one with shouldn't — and soften at least one.

 Record your advice.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: correct form both times, one softener present, stress on the verb.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Reply to a classmate's post with real advice.
- Advise yourself. What should you do every day? Say it out loud as advice, in the second person. It lands differently.

REMEMBER — افكر

- should / shouldn't + simple verb. No to, no -s.
- What should I do? asks for advice.
- I think · maybe turn an order into a suggestion.
- Stress the verb, not should.
- The l is silent: should · could · would.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: express necessity with have to · say something is unnecessary with don't have to · use must. The single most valuable thing in this lesson is that don't have to does NOT mean shouldn't. It means there is no need. Learners assume any negative obligation is a prohibition, and the misunderstanding is genuine — "You don't have to come" heard as "You mustn't come" changes a welcome into a rejection. Support: the three-card sort. Stretch: contrast a rule at their work with a personal choice. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Say something is necessary: I have to work on Saturday.
- Say something is not necessary: You don't have to come.
- Use must for something strong. 🗣️ should كانت نصيحة. النهاردة الكلام عن الضروري واللي مش ضروري — وده فرق مهم

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

This is how you talk about rules, work, and anything outside your control. I have to be there at eight. You don't have to pay. You must take the medicine.

والنقطة اللي بتفرق: don't have to معناها مش ضروري، مش ممنوع.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L02, give a partner one piece of advice with should.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. should fresh in the room makes the contrast with have to land immediately.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two colleagues comparing their weeks (📞 in the portal).

A: I have to work on Saturday this week. The manager asked everyone. B: Really? I don't have to — my shift changed. A: Lucky. And I have to finish the report before Thursday. B: You must be tired. You should ask for a day off. A: I can't. But I don't have to come in early, at least.

Notice: have to is about a rule from outside — the manager, the schedule. should was advice from a person.

English	بالعربي
I have to work on Saturday.	لازم أشتغل السبت
I don't have to.	مش مضطر
You must be tired.	لازم تكون تعبان
I don't have to come early.	مش لازم أجي بدري

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time ask who decided? for each obligation. External source is what distinguishes have to from should.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) have to* + simple verb — it is necessary, usually because of a rule.

I / you / we / they	have to go
he / she / it	has to go

⚠️ خذ بالك: مع she و he بتبقى has to. دي الحاجة الوحيدة اللي بتتغير.

2) don't have to* — it is NOT necessary. You may, if you like.

You don't have to come. → no obligation, you are free He doesn't have to pay. → it is not required

3) must* — strong, and usually written or formal.

You must take the medicine. · Passengers must wear a seatbelt.

The three compared:

	Meaning
You should rest.	advice — my opinion
You have to rest.	necessary — a rule or a real need
You don't have to rest.	not necessary — your choice

⚠️ أهم نقطة في الدرس: $don't have to \neq shouldn't$. الأولى معناها مش ضروري، والثانية معناها ماينفعش. لو خلطتهم، بتقول لحد "ممنوع" وإنت قصدك "مفیش إلزام".

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Build the three-way table on the board and drill it by giving a situation and asking which one fits. The don't have to against shouldn't contrast deserves at least four examples of its own.

✂️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
have to / has to	لازم / مضطر	I have to go. don't have to	مش ضروري	You don't have to wait. must	لازم (قوي)	You must stop smoking. a rule	قاعدة	It's a rule. take a day off	تاخذ يوم أجازة	I have to take a day off.
be on time	تكون في الميعاد	We have to be on time.

🎧 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Target 1 — have to is pronounced /hæftə/. The v becomes an f, and to reduces to /tə/:

I have to go → "I HAF-tə go"

This is not sloppy — it is the standard pronunciation. And has to becomes /hæstə/.

دي مش لهجة عامية، ده النطق الطبيعي. الـ v بتتحول لـ f، ودي مفاجأة لأغلب المتعلمين.

Target 2 — the stress goes on the main verb:

I have to WORK on Saturday.

 Record & compare: "I have to work, but I don't have to start early."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The /f/ substitution surprises learners and immediately improves both their listening and their naturalness. Worth the full four minutes.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — have to or has to?

1. I _____ leave at six.
2. She _____ work on Friday.

Exercise 2 — necessary, or not necessary?

1. You don't have to bring food. → _____
2. You have to show your ID. → _____
3. You mustn't smoke here. → _____

Exercise 3 — should, have to, or don't have to?

1. It's a rule at work — I _____ wear a shirt.
2. You look ill. I think you _____ rest.
3. It's free — you _____ pay.

Exercise 4 — fix the mistake. "He have to go." → _____

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: have to · has to · have to. Ex2: not necessary · necessary · prohibited — use the third to sharpen the contrast. Ex3: have to · should · don't have to. Ex4: He has to go.

🎤 YOUR TURN — دورك

Say two things you have to do this week and one thing you don't have to do. Then give a partner one piece of advice with should.

🎤 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: correct have/has to, one accurate don't have to, and should kept distinct from it.

📋 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post two things you have to do and one you don't.
- "I have to" against "I choose to." Practising English is not an obligation someone placed on you. Say "I choose to" about it once, out loud, and notice the difference.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- have to / has to + simple verb — necessary, usually an outside rule.

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 5 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback —. Objectives: talk about health habits · handle a doctor or pharmacy exchange · combine symptoms, advice and necessity. This is an integration lesson, not a new-grammar lesson. Everything is already known; the skill is assembling it under the pressure of a real exchange. Keep your corrections for the assembly, not the parts. Support: the exchange script to read from. Stretch: ask the pharmacist a follow-up question. Arabic ~25% — nearly all English.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Handle a pharmacy or doctor exchange from start to finish.
- Put symptoms, advice and necessity together in one conversation. 🗣️

النهاردة مفيش قاعدة جديدة. النهاردة بنجمع كل اللي اتعلمناه في موقف واحد حقيقي.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

A pharmacy visit is short, predictable, and entirely within your reach now. It is also the situation where not having the words is most stressful — so having them is worth a lot.

والموقف ده تقريباً ثابت: بتقول عندك إيه، بتسمع نصيحة، بتسأل عن الدواء. جمل محدودة، فمممكن تتقنها.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

From L01–L03: one symptom, one piece of advice, one thing you have to do.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Three patterns, one round. This is exactly what the lesson will ask them to combine.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

At a pharmacy (📞 in the portal).

Pharmacist: Good morning. How can I help you? Customer: Good morning. I have a bad sore throat and a temperature. Pharmacist: How long have you had it? Customer: Since Sunday. I feel very tired too. Pharmacist: You should take these twice a day, after food. And you have to finish all of them — don't stop when you feel better. Customer: Do I have to stay at home? Pharmacist: You don't have to, but you should rest. If the temperature doesn't go down in two days, you should see a doctor. Customer: Thank you very much.

Notice how the pharmacist used all three: should for advice, have to for the necessary part, and don't have to for what is optional.

English	بالعربي
How can I help you?	أقدر أساعدك؟
twice a day, after food	مرتين في اليوم، بعد الأكل
You have to finish all of them.	لازم تكملهم كلهم
Do I have to stay at home?	لازم أقعد في البيت؟

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second time learners label each modal by function. Point out How long have you had it? as receptive only — the present perfect belongs to Stage 2.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

The exchange has a fixed shape. Learn the shape and you can improvise inside it.

Step	What you say
1	I have a ... / I feel ... — your symptom
2	Since Sunday. / For two days. — how long
3	What should I do? / Do I have to ...? — your question
4	Thank you very much. — close it

والترتيب ده بيوفر عليك التفكير، فتركز في الكلام بس.

Health-habit language, for talking about prevention:

- I exercise twice a week. · I try to sleep eight hours.
- I don't eat much sugar. · I should drink more water.

Frequency phrases you will need: once · twice · three times + a day / a week ⚠️ خلي بالك: بنقول once و twice، مش one time و two times. ومن ثلاثة و طالع بنقول three times.

Two useful questions: *How many times a day? · Before or after food?TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. The four-step shape is the deliverable. once/twice is the one genuinely new item — learners reliably produce one time.

 ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق
Connected clarity — the whole exchange, not single words.

Three things to hold together under pressure:

1. /θ/-/ð/ in the health words — throat · teeth · health
2. /hæftə/ for have to
3. rising intonation on your questions — Do I have to stay at home? ↗

اللي بيحصل إن المتعلم يظبط الكلمة لوحدها، وأول ما يدخل في محادثة حقيقية يفقد الاتنين. فالتمرين هنا على الجملة الكاملة، مش على الكلمة.

 Record & compare: "I have a sore throat. Do I have to take anything?"

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Drill the full sentence rather than isolated words. Accuracy under connected-speech pressure is the actual target of this lesson.

1. You _____ finish all the tablets — it's important.
2. You _____ stay at home, but it's better if you rest.
3. I think you _____ drink more water.

Exercise 4 — your habits. Two things you do for your health, and one you should do more.

TEACHER'S EDITION

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Success check: two symptoms in the correct pattern, one have to question with a rising tone, polite close.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A friend responding to a problem (📞 in the portal).

A: I feel terrible. I have a headache every day this week, and I can't sleep. B: That doesn't sound good. How long have you felt like this? A: About five days. B: I think you should see a doctor — five days is a long time. And maybe you should stop drinking coffee after six, because it stays in your body for hours. A: Do you think I have to take a day off? B: You don't have to, but honestly you should rest. You shouldn't work twelve hours when you feel like this. And you should drink much more water. A: Thanks. That helps.

Notice: every piece of advice is softened and one carries a reason. That is what makes it help rather than instruct.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once for warmth, once for structure. Ask which line felt most helpful — it is always the one with because.

THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست النصيحة الكويسة

1. ☒ React first — That doesn't sound good · I'm sorry to hear that

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. You play the friend and give them a real problem — "I've had a stomach ache for three days and I have an important exam tomorrow" — so the advice has to be specific. Success check (Unit-7): a reaction, a question, two correctly-formed pieces of advice with a softener and a reason (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation + Interaction at A2). TRAVEL & TRANSPORT

🏰 UNIT 8 — TRAVEL & TRANSPORT

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 8 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit8-travel-and-transport.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 8 you'll get yourself there and back — find your route, ask a stranger for help politely, buy a ticket, know what is required and what is forbidden, and then tell the story of the trip. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: توصل لأي مكان، وتطلب مساعدة بأدب، وتشتري تذكرة، وتحكي الرحلة بعد كده.

Why this unit feels different: Unit 7 taught you to help someone else. This one is about not needing help — and, when you do need it, asking for it in a way that gets a yes. It is the most portable unit in Stage 1: the language works in every airport on earth.

ودي أكثر وحدة هتستخدمها بره. الكلام اللي جواها بيشتغل في أي مطار وأي محطة.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	Getting around	How do I get to...? · take the / by · get off at
L02	Can / Could I...?	ask permission, make requests — and sound polite doing it
L03	Booking & rules	buy a ticket · have to / don't have to / can't
L04	A past trip	narrate a journey — the past tense finally carrying a real story
L05	Tell me about a trip (milestone) 🎙️	a 7–9 sentence narration + record your milestone

Grammar spine: can/could for requests, permission and past ability · have to and can't for rules · past simple recycled from Units 1–3 inside a real narration. Accent Lab: linking in fixed phrases (get off at → ge-TOF-fat, could you → /kʊdʒə/) · rising intonation on requests · /kən/ against /kænt/ · English stress in place names · narrative rhythm. Mindset: the input diet — put your maps, tickets and travel apps into English. Arabic support: ~30% at L01, fading to ~25% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-8 trip narration — a strong candidate for your mid-A2 proof clip.
- The genuine ability to travel without someone translating for you.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L05 ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. L01's real error set is the two transport patterns. Go by bus takes no article; take the bus does. Crossed, they give ✖ "I go by the bus" — very common, very audible. And on foot breaks the by pattern, so teach it as its own item rather than hoping it lands. L02 is Unit 7's softening lesson in a new setting, and worth naming as such. Should needed I think; requests need could plus a friendly rise. Intonation is the whole lesson — said flat, Could you help me is an order, and learners cannot hear that about themselves until they hear both versions back to back. L03 introduces no new grammar and is still the hardest lesson here. Have to is from Unit 7, can't from Stage 0; the difficulty is assembly under conversational pressure. Protect the three-way meaning check — required / not required / forbidden — because don't have to and can't look alike and mean opposite things. /kən/ against /kənt/ is the priority sound of this unit, and arguably of the stage. A weakly released final /t/ inverts the meaning of the sentence. Test it with eyes-closed pair work; do not accept "close enough", because no other pronunciation error on the list changes what you said. L04 is the spaced-review payoff and should be framed that way. Units 1–3 built the past tense as exercises; here it carries a story the learner wants to tell. Say out loud that this was impossible six weeks ago — they consistently underestimate it. Watch for didn't + past (✖ "I didn't went"), which returns under narrative load even in learners who had it clean in Unit 3. L05's difficulty is integration, not any single part. Under a 7–9 sentence load, two of the three strands slip. Correct the assembly, and ask your follow-up question unscripted.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: transport vocabulary · Can/Could I...? against Could you...? · booking language · have to and can't rules · past-trip verb forms.
- Speaking task: the L05 trip narration, scored on the rubric (A2 threshold).
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker (weekly activity + pronunciation notes) and flags can/can't plus place-name vowels for the review queue.

TRANSPORT & GETTING AROUND: "HOW DO I GET TO...?"

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 8 · Lesson 1 🕒 ~30 min · 📞 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: Unit 7 · Stage-0 directions (U8) Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit8-travel-and-transport.md · S1-U8-L01

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: name common transport and travel places · ask How do I get to...? and follow the answer · describe how you usually travel. Teach the formula, do not parse it. How do I get to...? is one chunk. Learners who try to analyse get to stall; learners who memorise the frame use it on day one. The real error set is the two patterns for transport: go by bus (no article) against take the bus. Cross them and you get ❌ "I go by the bus" — extremely common and very audible. on foot, not by foot. It is the one member of the set that breaks the pattern, so teach it as an exception rather than hoping it lands. Support: transport flashcards + the question frame. Stretch: give a two-step route with sequence words. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Name the transport and the places you need in a station or an airport.
- Ask How do I get to...? and follow the answer.
- Say how you usually travel. 🗣️

الوحدة دي بتخليك تتحرك في بلد مش بلدك من غير ما تستنى حد يساعدك.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Everything in Unit 7 was about your body and your health. This unit is about your feet — being able to arrive somewhere. Ten words and one question frame are the difference between waiting for help and moving.

والحلو إن الردود اللي هتسمعها محدودة وشبه بعضها: خذ كذا، وانزل في كذا. لو عرفت شكل الرد، هتفهمه حتى لو سمعت كلمة متعرفهاش.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From Stage 0, Unit 8: turn left · turn right · go straight · it's near · it's far. Direct a partner from the door to their chair.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. This is deliberate spaced retrieval — those direction words are eight units old and they are exactly what today's answers are built from.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Asking a stranger for a route (📞 in the portal).

A: Excuse me. How do I get to the airport? B: Take the metro to Sadat, then take the number 27 bus. A: And where do I get off? B: Get off at the second stop after the bridge. It's about forty minutes. A: Thank you very much. B: No problem.

Notice the shape of the answer: Take the ... → then take the ... → Get off at Almost every answer you will ever hear is built from those three moves.

English	بالعربي
How do I get to...?	أوصل لـ... إزاي؟
Take the metro.	اركب المترو
Get off at...	انزل في...
It's about forty minutes.	بتأخذ حوالي ٤٠ دقيقة

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. On the second pass learners write only the three route moves, not the words — the point is that the answer has a predictable skeleton.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) The question is one fixed chunk. Memorise it whole.

How do I get to + a place? How do I get to the station? · How do I get to the airport?

2) The answer has three moves.

Move	English
which transport	Take the bus / the metro / the train.
where to change	Then take the number 27.
where to leave	Get off at the third stop.

والتلات حركات دي هي كل الرد، فمش لازم تفهم كل كلمة.

3) Now the part learners get wrong — there are two ways to name your transport, and they do not mix.

Pattern	Example
by + transport, no the	I go to work by bus.	✓ take the + transport	I take the bus to work.	✓
the two crossed	I go to work by the bus.	✗

⚠ دي أشهر غلطة في الدرس: إما by لوحدها من غير the، أو take the. ماينفعش تخلط الاتنين.

4) One exception, and it is worth learning as its own item: walking is on foot, never by foot.

I go on foot. ✓ · I go by foot. ✗

والمشي هو الاستثناء الوحيد في القائمة.

Places you will need: a station · a (bus) stop · a platform · an airport · a taxi rank

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Drill the frame chorally first, then the two transport patterns as a contrast pair, then on foot alone so it does not get absorbed into the by set.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
How do I get to...?	أوصل لـ... إزاي؟	How do I get to the airport? take the bus / metro	اركب الأتوبيس / المترو	Take the metro to Sadat. get off at...	انزل في...	Get off at the next stop. a station / a stop	محطة / موقف	The station is near here.
a platform	رصيف القطر	Platform four.
by bus / by train	بالأتوبيس / بالقطر	I go by train.
on foot	ماشي	I go on foot.
How long does it take?	بتاخذ قد إيه؟	How long does it take?

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Part 1 — three words that become one. Get off at is never said as three separate words:

get off at → ge-TOF-fat — the /t/ jumps forward and joins off.

Say it slowly three times, then at speed. If a listener hears three words, it is too slow to sound natural.

Part 2 — your own city's name in English. This is the one that costs people. English stresses these differently from Arabic:

Place	English says	not
Cairo	KY -roh	KAY-roh
Alexandria	a-lig- ZAN -dree-uh	a-lex-AN-dria
Dubai	doo- BYE	DOO-bye
Doha	DOH -huh	do-HA

ودي مهمة أكثر من شكلها: لو قلت اسم بلدك بالنطق العربي، اللي بيسمعك ساعات مش بياخد باله إنه اسم مكان أصلاً، فالجملة كلها بتتوه.

Record & compare: "How do I get to the airport? I want to get off at the last stop."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Two minutes on the linking, two on place names. Have every learner say their own city out loud — it is the place name they will use most and the one they have never heard said in English.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — by, the, or on?

1. I go to school _____ bus.
2. I take _____ metro every morning.
3. My office is close, so I go _____ foot.
4. She goes to Alexandria _____ train.

Exercise 2 — build the answer. Someone asks "How do I get to the museum?" Give a three-move answer.

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I go to work by the car. → _____
2. How I get to the station? → _____
3. I go by foot every day. → _____
4. Get off in the third stop. → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. How do you usually travel to work or school? Two sentences.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: by · the · on · by. Ex3: by car · How do I get to the station? · on foot · get off at. Ex2 is the one to spend time on — check for all three moves.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Describe how you usually get to work or school: the transport, how long it takes, and one place you pass or change at.

Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct transport pattern (by or take the, not crossed), one travel place, and a linked get off at if it appears.

📋 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post: "I usually go to ___ by ___." plus one How do I get to...? question for the group to answer.
- Switch your maps app to English this week. It is the cheapest input you will ever get: you already know where you are going, so you cannot get lost — you can only learn the words.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- How do I get to...? — one chunk, learn it whole.
- The answer is three moves: take the ... → then take ... → get off at ...
- by bus (no the) or take the bus — never both.
- on foot, not by foot.
- get off at sounds like ge-TOF-fat.

✅ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) by · 2) the · 3) on · 4) by
- Ex3: 1) I go to work by car. · 2) How do I get to the station? · 3) I go on foot every day. · 4) Get off at the third stop.

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback —. Objectives: make polite requests and ask permission with Can/Could I...? and Could you...? · respond to a request · handle common travel requests. The split that carries the lesson: I asks about me — permission. you asks the other person to act — a request. Same modal, two jobs, and learners mix them: ❌ "Could I help me with my bag?" Intonation is not decoration here. Said flat, Could you help me is a command. This is the single most consequential thing in the lesson and it cannot be taught on paper — model the rise, out loud, repeatedly. This is Unit 7's softening lesson again in a new setting. Should needed I think; requests need could plus a friendly rise. Name that link — it is the same social skill twice. Support: the request frames card. Stretch: "Excuse me, could you possibly...?" Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Ask permission: Can I...? · Could I...?
- Ask someone to help: Could you...?
- Answer a request politely — yes or no. 🗣️

جملة واحدة مؤدبة بتفتح أبواب. ودي حاجة بتتعلم مرة وتستخدمها طول عمرك.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

When you travel you need things from strangers: help with a bag, a different seat, a repeated instruction. The words are easy. What decides whether you get help is how the request sounds.

والفرق بسيط ومحسوس: could أدب أعلى من can، والصوت الطالع لفوق في آخر السؤال بيحوّل الطلب من أمر لطلب.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01: three transport words, and one How do I get to...? question with a full three-move answer.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Fast pair work. Today's requests happen in the same station.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two small requests on a train (🚆 in the portal).

A: Excuse me, could you help me with my bag? It's very heavy. B: Of course. Here you go. A: Thank you so much. And can I sit here? B: Sorry, you can't — someone is sitting there. But that seat is free. A: Great, thanks. Could I open the window? B: Sure, no problem.

Notice: could you asks B to do something. can/could I asks whether A is allowed. And notice that the refusal is still friendly — Sorry, you can't plus an alternative.

English	بالعربي
Could you help me?	تقدر تساعدني؟
Can I sit here?	أقدر أقعد هنا؟
Of course. / Sure.	طبعًا
Sorry, you can't.	آسف، مش ممكن

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second pass: learners label each request I or you. That sort is the grammar.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

One rule of form, and it never changes: can and could are followed by the simple verb. No to, no -s.

1) Asking about yourself — permission.

Can I sit here? · Could I open the window?

2) Asking the other person — a request.

Could you help me? · Can you say that again?

⚠️ الفرق كله في الضمير: ا معناها إذن لنفسي، وyou معناها طلب من الشخص الثاني. لو خلطتهم بتقول جملة مالهش معنى زي "❌ Could I help me?"

3) could is more polite than can. Both are correct. Could is safer with a stranger.

Can you help me?	fine — friendly, direct
Could you help me?	more polite — use with strangers
Excuse me, could you possibly help me?	very polite ★

4) The answers, which you need as much as the questions.

Yes	No
Sure. · Of course. · No problem.	Sorry, you can't. · I'm afraid not.

وخذ بالك: الرفض بالإنجليزي بييجي معاه sorry واقتراح بديل. الرفض الجاف لوحده بيبان وحش.

Two form errors to avoid: ❌ Could you to help me? · ❌ Can she helps me?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Two minutes on form — it is trivial. Four on the I/you split and the refusal frame, both of which are where the real errors live.

🗡️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
Could you...?	تقدر...؟ (طلب)	Could you help me?
Can I...? / Could I...?	أقدر...؟ (إذن)	Could I sit here?
Excuse me...	لو سمحت	Excuse me, could you...?
Of course. / Sure.	طبعًا	Sure, no problem.
I'm afraid not.	للأسف لأ	I'm afraid not.
Could you say that again?	تقدر تعيد؟	Could you say that again, please?
Could you speak more slowly?	تقدر تتكلم أبطأ؟	Could you speak more slowly?

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق*Part 1 — the rise. This is the lesson.

A request goes up at the end. Flat means an order.

Could you help me? ➡ — a request Could you help me. ➡ — an instruction

Say the same four words both ways until you can hear yourself switch.

نفس الكلمات بالحرف، والفرق بس في الصوت آخر الجملة. طالع لفوق يبقى طلب، ومستوي يبقى أمر.

Part 2 — could you becomes one word.

could you → /kʊdʒə/ — "koo-juh" could I → /kʊdaɪ/ — the /d/ links straight into /

Native speakers almost never separate them. "Could you" said as two clean words sounds careful, not wrong — but hearing /kʊdʒə/ is what lets you understand the reply.

Record & compare: "Excuse me, could you help me with my bag?" — with the rise.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Do the flat-versus-rising contrast as a whole group, exaggerated, then normal. Learners genuinely cannot hear that they sound blunt until they hear both versions back to back.

TRAIN — تدرب*Exercise 1 — Could I or Could you?

- _____ open the window? (I want to open it)
- _____ pass me the water? (I want them to pass it)
- _____ say that again? (I didn't understand)
- _____ pay by card? (I want to know if it's allowed)

Exercise 2 — make it more polite.

- Give me a pen. → _____
- Speak slowly. → _____
- Move your bag. → _____

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. Could you to help me? → _____
2. Can I helps you? → _____
3. Could I help me with my bag? → _____

Exercise 4 — refuse politely. Someone asks "Can I sit here?" but the seat is taken. Answer in two sentences: refuse, then offer something else.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: Could I · Could you · Could you · Could I. Ex3: drop to · Can I help you? · Could you help me with my bag?
Ex4 matters most — insist on sorry plus an alternative.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

You are at an airport. Make three polite requests: one with Could I...?, one with Could you...?, and one starting Excuse me.

 Record it — and mind the rise.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct I/you split, correct bare verb, and audible rising intonation on at least two of the three.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post two polite requests you might genuinely make while travelling.
- Use one of them in real life this week — in English, to anyone, even in a text. A phrase you have used once is worth ten you have only practised.

 REMEMBER — افكر

- can / could + simple verb. No to, no -s.
- Can/Could I...? = permission for me. Could you...? = a request of you.
- could is politer than can; Excuse me, could you possibly... is politer still.
- Refuse with sorry and an alternative, never bare.
- The rise  is what makes it a request. Flat is an order.

✓ SELF-CHECK — صحّح لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) Could I · 2) Could you · 3) Could you · 4) Could I
- Ex2 (model): 1) Could you pass me a pen? · 2) Could you speak more slowly? · 3) Could you move your bag, please?
- Ex3: 1) Could you help me? · 2) Can I help you? · 3) Could I help me... → Could you help me with my bag?

BOOKING & RULES: BUYING A TICKET; YOU HAVE TO / YOU CAN'T

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 8 · Lesson 3 🕒 ~30 min · 📞 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L02 · Unit 7 (have to)
 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit8-travel-and-transport.md · S1-U8-L03

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback —. Objectives: buy a ticket (price, times, single/return) · state travel rules with have to / can't · handle a short booking exchange. No new grammar. Have to came from Unit 7 and can't from Stage 0. This lesson is assembly under pressure, which is a different skill — expect learners who were accurate in Unit 7 to drop pieces inside a live booking. The three-way meaning check is worth protecting: have to = necessary · don't have to = not necessary · can't = forbidden. Unit 7 taught the first two; today adds the third, and don't have to against can't is the confusion to hunt. can* against can't is the hardest sound in this stage for Arabic speakers — the final /t/ is often released so weakly that the two become identical, which inverts the meaning of the sentence. Drill the minimal pair honestly; do not accept "close enough". Support: the booking-phrases card. Stretch: handle a complication — the train is sold out, get an alternative. Arabic ~30%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Buy a ticket: ask the price, the time, single or return.
- Say what is required and what is forbidden.
- Get through a booking window without switching languages. 🗣️

شباك التذاكر موقف قصير ومتكرر. لو حفظت شكله، بتخلص منه في ثلاثين ثانية.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

A booking is a small, closed conversation — perhaps six lines, and they come in the same order every time. The rules half matters for a different reason: can't and don't have to look similar and mean opposite things.

والخلطة الخطيرة هنا: can't معناها ممنوع، و don't have to معناها مش لازم. لو قلت للواحد ممنوع وإنت قصدك مش لازم، الكلام كله بيتقلب.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L02, two polite requests. From Unit 6 and Stage 0: How much is it? · What time...?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Both come back inside the booking in four minutes' time — that is why they are the warm-up.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

At a ticket window (🖨️ in the portal).

A: Hello. A return ticket to Alexandria, please. B: Sure. What time do you want to travel? A: The morning, if possible. How much is it? B: Two hundred and forty. The next one leaves at nine forty, from platform three. A: Perfect. Do I have to book a seat? B: Yes, you have to — and you can't change the ticket after you buy it. A: Understood. Thank you.

Notice the order: what you want → when → how much → which platform → the rules. It is the same every time, which is exactly why you can prepare for it.

English	بالعربي
A return ticket to...	تذكرة ذهاب وعودة لـ...
What time does it leave?	بتقوم الساعة كام؟
How much is it?	بكام؟
You have to book.	لازم تحجز
You can't change it.	ماينفعش تغيرها

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice; on the second pass learners write the five steps in order. The skeleton is the takeaway, not the vocabulary.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) Buying the ticket — four phrases cover it.

You need	You say
the ticket	A single / a return ticket to Cairo, please.
the time	What time does it leave / arrive ?
the price	How much is it?
the place	Which platform / gate ?

single = one direction. return = there and back.

وأربع جمل بس هما كل اللي محتاجه على الشباك، والباقي بتسمعه مش بتقوله.

2) The rules — three meanings, and they are not interchangeable.

English	Meaning
You have to check in.	necessary — required
You don't have to book.	not necessary — your choice
You can't smoke here.	forbidden

⚠️ أهم نقطة في الدرس: can't ≠ don't have to. الأولى ممنوع، والتانية مش ضروري. الاتنين شكلهم قريب والمعنى عكس بعضه.

3) Form, in one line: have to + simple verb · has to for he/she/it · can't + simple verb, and can't never changes for anybody.

He has to show his passport. · She can't take that bag on the plane.

Asking about a rule:

Do I have to book a seat? · Can I take this bag?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Build the three-row rules table on the board and drill by naming a situation for learners to classify: required, your choice, or forbidden. Four examples of can't against don't have to.

✂ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
a single / a return	ذهاب / ذهاب وعودة	A return to Cairo, please.
What time does it leave?	بتقوم الساعة كام؟	What time does it leave?
a platform / a gate	رصيف / بوابة	Platform three. to book	يحجز	Do I have to book? to check in	يعمل تسجيل وصول	You have to check in online.
You have to...	لازم...	You have to wear a seatbelt.
You can't...	ممنوع...	You can't smoke here.
It's sold out.	التذاكر خلصت	Sorry, it's sold out.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

This is the most important pronunciation minute in Stage 1. can and can't are opposites, and if a listener cannot tell them apart, your sentence means the reverse of what you intended.

	Sound	Note
can	/kən/ in a sentence	weak, almost swallowed can't	/kænt/	fuller vowel and a real /t/

Two things change together: can't has a clearer vowel and a final /t/ you must actually release.

Minimal pair drill — say each pair until a partner can tell them apart with eyes closed:

I can go. — I can't go. You can park here. — You can't park here.

ودي مش تفصييلة صغيرة: لو الت مش طالعة، اللي قصادك بيسمع العكس تمامًا. اقفل الكلمة بالتاء بوضوح.

Also keep numbers clean in a booking — times and prices are the two things nobody can guess from context.

Record & compare: "I can travel on Monday, but I can't travel on Tuesday."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Eyes-closed pair testing is the only honest check. If a partner cannot tell, the learner has not done it, however confident they feel.

TRAIN — تدرّب*Exercise 1 — have to, don't have to, or can't?

1. You _____ show your passport at the airport. (required)
2. You _____ pay for children under six. (not necessary)
3. You _____ use your phone during take-off. (forbidden)
4. He _____ check in online. (required)

Exercise 2 — complete the booking.

1. _____ ticket to Aswan, please. (there and back)
2. What time _____ it leave?
3. _____ is it?
4. Which _____ ?

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. You have to check in online, isn't it? → _____
2. She have to book a seat. → _____
3. You don't have to smoke here. (you mean: forbidden) → _____
4. What time it leaves? → _____

Exercise 4 — role-play. Buy a ticket. Your partner tells you it is sold out. Ask for an alternative.TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: have to · don't have to · can't · has to. Ex2: A return · does · How much · platform. Ex3: ...online, don't you? · She has to... · You can't smoke here. · What time does it leave? Ex4 is the stretch — do not let them settle for "OK, thank you".

YOUR TURN — دورك

Book a ticket in four lines: what you want, when, the price, and one question about a rule. Then state one rule of a place you know — with have to or can't.

 Record it.TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: a coherent booking, one correctly-formed rule, and an audible /t/ on any can't.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post a short booking exchange, or two travel rules for a place you have been.
- Plan your reps like a trip. Know your next three steps before you start — the lesson you will do tomorrow, the one after, and when. Vague plans are how streaks die.

 REMEMBER — افكر

- single = one way · return = there and back.
- What time does it leave? · How much is it? · Which platform?
- have to = required · don't have to = not required · can't = forbidden.
- has to for he/she; can't never changes.
- can /kən/ against can't /kænt/ — release that /t/ or you say the opposite.

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 5 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 4 · Feedback 1. Objectives: narrate a past trip with past simple + sequence + travel vocabulary · say where, how, and what you did · react to a peer and ask a past question. This lesson exists for the spaced-review payoff. Units 1–3 built the past tense in isolation; this is the first time it carries real content the learner cares about. Name that out loud — learners badly underestimate how much past tense they now control, and seeing it work in a story is the proof. Six verbs do most of the work: went · took · stayed · visited · saw · was/were. Four of the six are irregular, which is why the past-tense block came first. The one form error to hunt: past tense marked twice after didn't — ❌ "I didn't went". It reappears under narrative pressure even in learners who had it right in Unit 3. Support: the trip-skeleton card plus the verb bank. Stretch: add a feeling and a superlative — "the best part was...". Arabic ~25% — the story is theirs to tell in English.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Tell the story of a real trip: where, how, who with, what you did.
- Use There was / There were to describe the place.
- Ask someone a question about their trip. 🗣️

النهاردة بتجمع كل الماضي اللي اتعلمته في حكاية حقيقية. دي أول مرة تشوف تعبك بيشغل.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

This is where the past tense stops being an exercise. You built it in Units 1, 2 and 3 — irregular verbs, did/didn't, was/were — and today it carries something you actually want to say.

ولاحظ حاجة: الحكاية دي كنت مستحيل تحكيها قبل ٦ أسابيع.

Telling a story is also the single most useful conversational move there is. It buys you a whole turn.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

Rapid retrieval: five irregular pasts (go · take · see · buy · eat), then two There was / There were sentences about the room you are in.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Both feed straight into the model. Keep it to four minutes — the verbs should be fast by now.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Someone telling a short trip story (🗨️ in the portal).

Last summer I went to Luxor with my brother. We took the night train — it was long, about ten hours, but it was cheap. We stayed in a small hotel near the river. On the first day we visited the temple, and then we saw the tombs. There were a lot of tourists, so it was very busy. We didn't have much time, so we didn't go to the museum. The best part was the train at night — I slept with the window open. I loved it.

Notice three things: the time phrase comes first (Last summer), the sequence words carry you forward (On the first day · then), and the story ends with a feeling, not a fact.

English	بالعربي
Last summer I went to...	الصيف اللي فات رحت...
We took the night train.	ركبنا قطار الليل
We stayed in a hotel.	قعدنا في فندق
The best part was...	أحلى حاجة كانت...

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second pass: learners mark the time phrase, the sequence words, and the feeling — the three things that turn a list of facts into a story.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

A trip story has five slots. Fill them and you have a narration.

#	Slot	Language
1	when + where	Last summer I went to...
2	how + who with	I took the train with...
3	where you stayed	We stayed in / at...
4	what you did	We visited... · we saw... · There were...
5	how it felt	It was amazing. · The best part was...

والخمس خانات دي شكل أي حكاية، مش رحلة بس.

Your six workhorse verbs:

Present	Past
go · take · see	went · took · saw	irregular stay · visit	stayed · visited	regular -ed
is/are	was / were	irregular

Sequence words that hold the story together: First · then · after that · in the end

⚠️ الغلطة اللي بترجع تاني هنا: بعد didn't الفعل بيرجع أساسي. I didn't go، مش I didn't went. الماضي مرة واحدة بس في الجملة.

And the time phrase goes at the front: Last week · Two years ago · When I was a student...

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Board the five slots and leave them up for the whole lesson — learners build directly onto them in Train. Re-drill didn't + base verb even though Unit 3 covered it; narration reliably breaks it.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
I went to...	رحت...	I went to Luxor.
I took the train / a taxi	ركبت القطار / تاكسي	We took the night train.
we stayed in / at...	قعدنا في...	We stayed in a small hotel.
we visited...	زرنّا...	We visited the temple.
There was / There were...	كان فيه...	There were a lot of tourists.
a trip / a journey	رحلة	It was a long journey.
The best part was...	أحلى حاجة كانت...	The best part was the train.
in the end	في الآخر	In the end we went home.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Narrative rhythm — the thing that makes a story sound like a story.

You do not stress every word. You stress the content — the place, the transport, the feeling — and let the small words run underneath:

We TOOK the NIGHT TRAIN to LUXOR.

Say that with all five words equally stressed, then again with only the capitals. The second one sounds like someone telling you something; the first sounds like reading.

Keep the endings clean under speed. When learners speed up, -ed is the first thing to disappear:

stayed /sterd/ · visited /'vɪzɪtɪd/ · walked /wɔ:kt/

Remember the three -ed sounds from Unit 2: /d/, /ɪd/, /t/. Visited has the extra syllable; walked does not.

ولما بتسرع، أول حاجة بتضيع هي آخر الفعل. اسمع نفسك.

Record & compare: "We took the night train and we stayed in a small hotel near the river."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Two minutes rhythm, two on -ed survival at speed. The equal-stress-versus-content-stress contrast is worth doing as a whole group; it lands instantly.

 TRAIN — تدرّب
Exercise 1 — past forms.

1. Last year I _____ (go) to Dubai.
2. We _____ (take) a taxi from the airport.
3. There _____ (be) a lot of people at the station.
4. I _____ (not / visit) the museum.
5. We _____ (stay) with my cousin.

Exercise 2 — put the trip in order.

a) We visited the old city. b) Last April I went to Amman. c) In the end we flew home. d) We stayed in a small flat. e) I took the bus from the border.

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I didn't went to the museum. → _____
2. There was a lot of tourists. → _____
3. We stay in a hotel last week. → _____
4. I went to Luxor last summer with the train. → _____

Exercise 4 — build from the skeleton. Use the five slots to tell a trip in five sentences — one per slot. Then your partner asks you one past question about it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: went · took · were · didn't visit · stayed. Ex2: b, e, d, a, c. Ex3: didn't go · There were · We stayed · by train. Ex4 is the rehearsal for Your Turn — make sure the partner question actually gets asked and answered.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

Narrate a real trip in five or six sentences, using all five slots. End with how it felt.

 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min recording + 1 feedback. Success check: a coherent 5–6 sentence narration, correct past forms (especially after didn't), at least three travel words, and a closing feeling. If they only manage four slots, the missing one is almost always #5 — push for it, because it is what makes it a story.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your 5–6 sentence "my last trip" — and ask one classmate one question about theirs.
- Look back six weeks. You could not have told this story then. Not because you were lazy — because you did not have the tense yet. That is what accumulation looks like.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Five slots: when/where · how/who · where you stayed · what you did · how it felt.
- went · took · saw · stayed · visited · was/were — six verbs carry the whole story.
- After didn't, the verb goes back to base: didn't go.
- There was + singular · There were + plural.
- Stress the content words; keep -ed alive at speed.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) went · 2) took · 3) were · 4) didn't visit · 5) stayed
- Ex2: b → e → d → a → c
- Ex3: 1) I didn't go... · 2) There were a lot of tourists. · 3) We stayed in a hotel last week. · 4) ...by train.

UNIT SPEAKING TASK: "TELL ME ABOUT A TRIP YOU TOOK" (+ REVIEW)

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 8 · Lesson 5 — UNIT MILESTONE 🕒 ~35 min · 📞 Recorded + live (assessment-style)
 · Prerequisite: L01–L04 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit8-travel-and-transport.md · S1-U8-L05

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 5 · Model 4 · Checklist 4 · Accent clinic 4 · Rehearse 7 · Record 5 · Feedback 2 · Assign —. Objectives: narrate a trip in 7–9 sentences mixing past narration, travel language, and a request or a rule · answer a follow-up and ask one · record the Unit-8 milestone. This is a strong candidate for a mid-A2 proof clip. It is personal, integrative, and audibly harder than anything from Stage 0 — put it beside their Unit-0 recording and the distance is obvious to the learner, not just to you. The integration is the difficulty, not the parts. Each learner can do past narration, requests, and rules separately. Under a 7–9 sentence load, two of the three will slip. Correct the assembly. Give them a real follow-up question live — not a scripted one. Handling an unplanned question is the A2 interaction threshold, and it is the part they cannot rehearse. Support: 7 sentences with the checklist card. Stretch: include a request you actually made, a rule of the place, and two follow-up answers. Arabic ~25% — nearly all English.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (MILESTONE)

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Narrate a trip in 7–9 connected sentences.
- Fold in one request you made or one rule of the place.
- Answer a question you did not expect — and ask one.
- Record your Unit-8 milestone. 🎤

دي حكاية كاملة، مش جمل مرصوة. حاول تحكيها كأنك بتحكي لصاحبك.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن (سلسلة)

Rapid chain across the unit: a transport word → a polite request → a travel rule with have to or can't → a past verb.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. One item each, fast, no repeats. This is the retrieval sweep before the load goes up.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A full trip narration (📺 in the portal).

Two years ago I went to Istanbul with two friends. We flew from Cairo — the flight was only two hours. From the airport we took the metro, and we got off at Sultanahmet. We stayed in a small hotel near the mosque. On the first day we visited the old market, and I bought a lamp for my mother. My bag was very heavy, so at the station I asked someone — "Could you help me with my bag?" — and he did. One thing surprised me: you can't take photos inside some of the mosques. There were signs everywhere. The best part was the food. I want to go back.

Notice: nine sentences, and it contains the whole unit — transport, get off at, a request in direct speech, a rule with can't, past narration throughout, and a feeling at the end.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once for the story, once for the checklist. Ask them to find the request and the rule — both are folded in naturally rather than announced, which is the standard.

🧩 THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست الحكاية الكاملة

1. ✓ When and where — Two years ago I went to...
2. ✓ How you travelled — We flew · we took the metro · we got off at...
3. ✓ Where you stayed — We stayed in...
4. ✓ What you did — two things, in sequence
5. ✓ A request or a rule — "Could you...?" or You can't...
6. ✓ How it felt — The best part was... · It was...
7. ★ Handle one question you were not expecting

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Hand out the card. Item 5 is the one they forget, because it is the one that is not chronological — it has to be inserted deliberately.

🎤 ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your weakest from this unit:

- can* against *can't — the final /t/, released properly
- place names — Cairo · Alexandria · Dubai · Doha — English stress

- linking — get off at → ge-TOF-fat · could you → /kʊdʒə/
- rising intonation on a request
- clean -ed at narrative speed

 Record & compare your weakest one only.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Personalised from your L01–L04 flags. One target each. can/can't is the priority if it is still unclear — it changes meaning, and nothing else on this list does.

YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

Rehearse with a partner against the checklist, swap, then record.

Tell the story of a trip you really took, in 7–9 sentences. Include how you travelled, where you stayed, two things you did, one request or one rule, and how it felt. Then answer one question about it.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. Ask your live follow-up after the recording and unscripted — "Would you go back? Who paid?" — so it is genuine interaction. Success check (Unit-8): a connected 7–9 sentence narration with correct past forms, accurate travel language, one request or rule folded in, and a handled follow-up (rubric: Fluency + Accuracy + Pronunciation at A2). Compare it with their Unit-0 clip if you have it. This is the point in Stage 1 where the learner can hear their own progress, and hearing it is worth more than being told.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post your trip narration.
- Complete the Unit-8 quiz.
- Keep your maps app in English. You started that in L01. Two weeks of it and station vocabulary stops being vocabulary and becomes furniture.

REMEMBER — افكر (UNIT 8 WRAP)

- How do I get to...? — and the answer is take the ... → get off at ...
- by bus or take the bus — never crossed. on foot, not by foot.
- Could I...? = permission · Could you...? = a request · and the rise 📈 makes it polite.

- have to = required · don't have to = not required · can't = forbidden.
- Five story slots: when/where · how · where you stayed · what you did · how it felt.
- can /kən/ against can't /kænt/ — release the /t/.

✅ SELF-CHECK — UNIT 8 MINI-QUIZ

1. How do I ___ to the station? → get
2. I go to work ___ bus. → by
3. I go ___ foot. → on
4. ___ you help me with my bag? (a request) → Could
5. ___ I sit here? (permission) → Can / Could
6. You ___ smoke here. (forbidden) → can't
7. You ___ book — there's plenty of space. (not necessary) → don't have to
8. I didn't ___ to the museum. → go
9. A ticket there and back is a ___. → return
10. There ___ a lot of tourists. → were

🎉 UNIT 8 COMPLETE — بقيت تعرف توصل وترجع وتحكي

You can get around a city you have never seen, ask a stranger for help politely, buy a ticket, understand what is required and what is forbidden — and afterwards, tell the whole story in the past tense.

Next → Unit 9: People, Feelings & Everyday Situations. Describing the people around you, saying how you really feel, and handling the small situations that fill an ordinary day. 🏰

Empire English 🏰 — توصل، وتطلب بأدب، وتحكي الرحلة بعد كده —

PEOPLE, FEELINGS & EVERYDAY SITUATIONS

👑 UNIT 9 — PEOPLE, FEELINGS & EVERYDAY SITUATIONS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 9 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit9-people-feelings-everyday.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE CAMPAIGN — حملة الوحدة

Your mission: by the end of Unit 9 you'll hold an everyday conversation — describe people and feelings precisely, say how things happen, contrast ordinary life with what is temporary, manage a phone call, and keep small talk moving by listening and responding. مهمتك في الوحدة دي: متقولش جمل. وخلص؛ اسمع، رد، اسأل، وخلي الكلام يكمل.

Why this unit changes the game: every earlier unit gave you language for a topic. This one teaches the behaviour of conversation itself — asking back, reacting, following up, and closing naturally. That is the line between someone who knows English and someone who uses it.

هنا الإنجليزي يبطل يبقى إجابات منفصلة، ويبدأ يبقى كلام بين شخصين.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	You'll be able to...
L01	Feelings & personality	What's he like? · How is he? · bored / boring
L02	Adverbs of manner	say how — carefully · well · hard — in the right position
L03	Usually vs now	separate a habit from now and from a temporary period
L04	Phone & small talk	open → ask → message → close · answer and ask back
L05	Two-minute chat (milestone) 🎧	sustain real interaction + record your milestone

Grammar spine: adverbs of manner, including good → well · present simple against present continuous, extended from right now to temporary periods · phone and small-talk functions. Accent Lab: feeling intonation · clear adjective and -ly endings · -ing /ɪ/ · natural rhythm in fixed phrases and reactions.

Mindset: thinking in English starts by reaching for a feeling or phrase directly, before translating. Arabic support: ~25% at L01, fading to ~20% by L05.

THE PRIZE — جائزة الوحدة

- Your Unit-9 two-minute chat — the most conversational proof clip in Stage 1.

- The ability to keep a real exchange alive instead of waiting for the next question.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons (L05 ~35 min, the rest ~30) plus this wrapper. L01 has two high-value contrasts. What's he like? asks personality; How is he? asks current state. And -ed describes the feeling while -ing describes its cause. The sentence "I'm boring" is the classic embarrassing A2 error — handle it directly, not delicately. L02's durable correction is good → well. ❌ "I speak English good" is always understood, so it can survive for years without correction. Also make hardly explicit: it means almost not at all and is not the adverb of hard. L03's new content is the temporary continuous. Stage 0 already taught I'm eating now. The extension is This week I'm working from home. Anchor tense choice to visible time markers; it is more usable under pressure than an abstract tense explanation. L04 is chunk-first. Phone calls and small talk use stable phrases. Teach their social shape and fluent delivery, not their grammar. The key small-talk behaviour is answer + ask back. L05 is an interaction assessment. Perfect sentences without reaction are parallel monologues. Give each partner one unpredictable detail, allow retrieval time, and score asking back, reacting, and following up as seriously as tense accuracy.

END-OF-UNIT CHECK — تقييم آخر الوحدة (FORMATIVE)

- Quiz: feeling against personality · -ed/-ing · adjective to adverb, including good/well · simple against continuous · choosing an appropriate phone or small-talk phrase.
- Speaking task: the L05 two-minute chat, scored on the A2 rubric with Interaction foregrounded.
- Feeds: the Cohort Tracker and flags -ing, -ly, and feeling/small-talk intonation for Unit 10.

NEXT CAMPAIGN → UNIT 10 — PUTTING IT TOGETHER

consolidation across the whole stage, real-world missions, and the final A2 milestone recording.

FEELINGS & PERSONALITY: "WHAT'S HE LIKE?"

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 9 · Lesson 1 ⌚ ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: Unit 8 · Stage-0 adjectives · Unit 1 (feelings) Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit9-people-feelings-everyday.md · S1-U9-L01

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 6 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: describe feelings and basic personality · ask and answer How do you feel? and What's he like? · describe someone you know. Two confusions carry this lesson, and both are worth real time. 1) What's he like? against How is he? The first asks about personality — permanent. The second asks about state — right now. Learners answer "What's your brother like?" with "He's fine", which is a non-answer, and they cannot see why. 2) -ed against -ing adjectives. I'm bored means you feel nothing is happening. I'm boring means you are a dull person.* This is the single most embarrassing error at A2 and learners make it constantly. Teach the rule as a direction: -ed is how I feel, -ing is what the thing does to me. Support: feelings and personality flashcards plus the frames. Stretch: add because and a comparison from Unit 5. Arabic ~25% — mostly English now.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Say how you feel, precisely — not just good or bad.
- Describe what someone is like as a person.
- Hear the difference between bored and boring. 🗣️

بلاش تقف عند good و bad. الوحدة دي بتوسّع الكلام عن الإحساس والشخصية.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Most learners have two words for how they feel: good and tired. But feelings are the most common thing people talk about, and English separates feeling something from being something. Get that separation and you also stop making the one mistake that gets a laugh in the wrong way.

والفرق مهم: bored زهقان، و boring شخص ممل.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن

From Unit 1: How was your day? From Unit 7: two words for how your body feels. Answer both about today.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Unit 7 gave them feel + adjective; today extends the adjective list and adds personality.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Two short exchanges (📞 in the portal).

A: How do you feel about the exam tomorrow? B: A bit nervous, honestly. But also kind of excited.
A: You'll be fine. Hey — what's your new manager like? B: She's really kind, and very hard-working.
A bit serious, but friendly when you know her. A: And how is she today? I heard she was ill. B: Much better, thanks.

Notice the two different questions. What's she like? asked about her personality — and the answer was kind, hard-working, serious. How is she? asked about right now — and the answer was better. Different questions, different answers.

English	بالعربي
How do you feel?	حاسس بإيه؟
a bit nervous	متوتر شوية
What's she like?	شخصيتها إيه؟
How is she?	عاملة إيه؟ (دلوقتي)

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. On the second pass learners label each question personality or now. That sort is the lesson.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) Feelings — how you are right now.

I am nervous. · I feel nervous. — both correct, both natural good ones	happy · excited · relaxed · proud

hard ones	sad · nervous · worried · angry · bored · tired

Soften or strengthen with one word: a bit tired · really happy · so excited

2) Personality — what someone is always like.

He is kind. · She is hard-working.

warm	kind · funny · friendly · generous
serious	serious · hard-working · quiet · shy

3) The two questions people confuse.

Question	Asks about	Answer
What's he like?	personality — always	He's funny and kind.
How is he?	state — now	He's fine. · He's much better.

⚠ خد بالك: لو حد سألـك "What's your brother like?" وقلت "He's fine"، تكون ما جاوبتش. هو بيسأل عن شخصيته، مش عن حالته.

4) -ed or -ing? This is the important one.

	Means	Example
-ed	how I feel	I'm bored. · I'm interested.
-ing	what the thing does	The film is boring. · The book is interesting.

⚠ الغلطة المشهورة: "I'm boring" معناها إنك شخص ممل، مش إنك زهقان. اللي بيحس ياخد -ed، واللي بيسبب الإحساس ياخد -ing.

I feel	The thing is bored · tired · excited	boring · tiring · exciting
worried · interested	worrying · interesting

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Two minutes on the adjective sets, two on What...like?, two on -ed/-ing. For the last one, the fastest fix is a forced choice: point at a learner, say "boring", and have them tell you whether that describes the person or the film.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
nervous	متوتر	I'm a bit nervous. excited	متحمس	I'm so excited! worried	قلقان	She's worried about the exam. bored / boring	زهقان / ممل	I'm bored. The film is boring. kind	طيب	He's very kind. funny	بيضحك	My sister is really funny. shy	خجول	He's shy with new people. hard-working	مجتهد	She's hard-working.
What's he like?	شخصيته إيه؟	What's your teacher like?

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Let the voice carry the feeling. At A2 the words are usually right and the delivery is flat, so the feeling never arrives. English marks emotion with pitch and length, not extra words.

I'm so ex-CI-ted! — high, and stretch the stressed syllable I'm a bit wor-ried. — lower, quieter, shorter Say "I'm excited" three times: bored, normal, thrilled. Same three words. If a listener cannot tell them apart, the sentence is not doing its job.

جرب تقول نفس الجملة بتلات إحساسات مختلفة. الكلمات مش بتتغير، الصوت هو اللي بيتغير.

And keep the endings on. These adjectives are long, and the ends are where the meaning sits:

nervous /'nɜːvəs/ · worried /'wʌrɪd/ · interested /'ɪntərəstɪd/ — three syllables, not four

Record & compare: "I'm really excited, but I'm also a bit nervous."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. The three-emotions-same-sentence drill is the one to keep. It works instantly and learners remember it.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — -ed or -ing?

1. That lesson was very _____. (interest)
2. I'm _____ in history. (interest)
3. The journey was _____. (tire)
4. I'm _____ — I need to sleep. (tire)

Exercise 2 — What's he like? or How is he?

1. You want to know about your friend's new flatmate's personality. → _____
2. Your friend has been ill and you want to know about today. → _____

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I'm boring in this class. → _____
2. — What's your sister like? — She's fine, thanks. → _____
3. I'm exciting about the trip. → _____
4. He is a hard-working person and very kindly. → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. Describe one person you know in two sentences: personality, plus one reason with because.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Ex1: interesting · interested · tiring · tired. Ex2: What's he like? · How is he? Ex3: bored · She's funny and kind · excited · kind. Ex3.2 is the one to discuss — ask why "She's fine" does not answer the question.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Say how you feel today and why, then describe one person you know — two personality adjectives and a reason.

 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: a precise feeling (not good), two personality adjectives, correct -ed/-ing if either appears, and audible intonation on the feeling.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post: "Today I feel ____ because _____. My friend is ____ and _____."
 - Name your feeling in English first this week. When something happens, reach for the English word before the Arabic one. That is the actual beginning of thinking in English — not a technique, just a habit of reaching in a different order.
-

REMEMBER — افكر

- I am nervous and I feel nervous are both fine.
 - What's he like? = personality. How is he? = right now.
 - -ed = how I feel · -ing = what the thing does to me.
 - I'm boring means you are dull. Say I'm bored.
 - Pitch and length carry the feeling — flat delivery loses it.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) interesting · 2) interested · 3) tiring · 4) tired
 - Ex2: 1) What's he like? · 2) How is he?
 - Ex3: 1) I'm bored in this class. · 2) She's funny and kind. · 3) I'm excited about the trip. · 4) ...and very kind.

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 9 · Lesson 2 ⌚ ~30 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L01 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit9-people-feelings-everyday.md · S1-U9-L02

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback —. Objectives: form adverbs of manner (-ly plus the irregulars) · say how someone does something · describe how you do daily activities. good against well is the classic. ❌ "I speak English good." It survives to C1 if it is not killed at A2, because it is never misunderstood — so nobody corrects it. Drill well as the adverb until it is automatic. Watch the trap: hardly is not the adverb of hard. He works hard = a lot. He hardly works = almost not at all. Opposite meanings. Teach hard as its own irregular and flag hardly explicitly, or a learner will build it by rule and say the reverse of what they mean. Position matters and is easy: after the verb, or after the whole object. He speaks English well, not ❌ "He speaks well English". Support: the adjective↔adverb card. Stretch: combine with a Unit-5 comparative — "I speak more slowly than my brother." Arabic ~25%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Turn an adjective into an adverb.
- Say how someone does something: carefully · quickly · well.
- Stop saying "I speak English good." 🗣️

الدرس ده بيضيف طبقة على كلامك: مش بس إيه اللي بيحصل، لكن بيحصل إزاي.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

He drives tells me a fact. He drives carefully tells me about him. One word, and the sentence carries information about character, effort, and skill.

والغلطة المستهدفة: "I speak English good". لأنها مفهومة، ممكن تفضل سنين.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01: three feeling adjectives and three personality adjectives, said with matching intonation.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Those adjectives are today's raw material — most of them will take -ly in ten minutes.

 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Describing a colleague (📞 in the portal).

A: What's Omar like at work? B: He's great. He speaks English well — really well, actually — and he works very hard. A: Is he fast? B: He doesn't work quickly, he works carefully. He reads everything slowly and he hardly ever makes a mistake. A: That sounds better than fast. B: Much better.

Notice where the adverbs sit: *speaks English well · works hard · reads everything slowly. They come after the verb, or after the whole object — never between them.

English	بالعربي
He speaks English well.	بيتكلم إنجليزي كويس
He works hard.	بيشتغل بجد
carefully	بعناية
slowly	ببطء

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second pass: learners underline every adverb and mark what comes immediately before it. The position rule emerges from the data rather than being announced.

 DECODE IT — القاعدة
1) The rule: adjective + -ly.

Adjective	Adverb
quick	quick ly
careful	carefull ly
quiet	quiet ly
bad	bad ly

Two spelling changes:

-y → -ily	happy → happily · easy → easily
-ble → -bly	possible → possibly

2) Three irregulars — no -ly at all.

Adjective	Adverb
good	well	She sings well. fast	fast	He drives fast. hard	hard	They work hard.

⚠ دي الغلطة الكلاسيكية: good صفة، و well هي الظرف. بنقول I speak English well مش English good.

3) One word to be careful with: hardly exists, but it does not mean hard.

	Means
He works hard.	a lot 💪
He hardly works.	almost never ❌

⚠ دي فخ حقيقي: hardly معناها "تقريبًا مش"، فهي عكس hard بالظبط. متبنيهاش بالقاعدة.

4) Where it goes: after the verb, or after the whole object.

He speaks well. ✅ · He speaks English well. ✅ · He speaks well English. ❌

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Two minutes forming adverbs, two on good/well, one on hardly, one on position. Do good/well as rapid-fire oral correction — they need to hear themselves say well many times.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
well	كويس (ظرف)	She speaks English well. carefully	بعناية	Drive carefully. quickly	بسرعة	He eats too quickly. slowly	ببطء	Please speak slowly. quietly	بهدوء	She came in quietly. badly	بشكل سيئ	I slept badly. hard	بجد	They work hard. easily	بسهولة	I found it easily. hardly	تقريبًا مش	I hardly know him.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Part 1 — -ly is a real syllable, and it disappears first. Under speed, learners drop it and the adverb turns back into an adjective:

care-ful-ly — three syllables · quick-ly — two · eas-i-ly — three Say carefully and count on your fingers. If you get two, the -ly is being swallowed.

Part 2 — the stress does not move to the adverb. The verb keeps the emphasis:

She SPEAKS English well. ✅ She speaks English WELL. — only if you are correcting someone ولاحظ إن النبرة بتفضل على الفعل. الظرف بييجي بعده هادي، مش مضروب.

And a word worth its own moment: well is one syllable with a clean /w/ — not "vell".

Record & compare: "He works very hard and he speaks English really well."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Finger-counting syllables is the fastest way to expose a swallowed -ly. Two minutes there, two on keeping stress on the verb.

TRAIN — تدرّب*Exercise 1 — make the adverb.

1. slow → _____ 2. happy → _____ 3. good → _____
 2. careful → _____ 5. fast → _____ 6. easy → _____

Exercise 2 — good or well?

1. She's a _____ driver.
 2. She drives _____.
 3. My English isn't very _____.
 4. I don't speak French _____.

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I speak English good. → _____
 2. He speaks well English. → _____
 3. She drives very careful. → _____
 4. He works hardly every day. (he works a lot) → _____
 5. I slept very bad last night. → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. Say how you do three things: drive, work, and speak English.TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: slowly · happily · well · carefully · fast · easily. Ex2: good · well · good · well. Ex3: well · speaks English well · carefully · works hard · slept badly. Ex3.4 is the one to slow down on — ask what the original sentence actually said.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Describe how you do three daily things, and how one person you know does something — four sentences, four adverbs. Use well at least once.

Record it.*TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correctly formed adverbs, correct position after the object, and well used as an adverb rather than good.

📄 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post three sentences about yourself using three different adverbs.
- You do not need to speak fast — you need to speak clearly. Speed is what beginners think fluency is. Clarity is what listeners actually reward. Slow and understood beats fast and repeated.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- adjective + -ly → adverb. happy → happily · easy → easily.
- Irregulars: good → well · fast → fast · hard → hard.
- hardly ≠ hard. He hardly works means almost never.
- Position: after the verb, or after the object. Never speaks well English.
- -ly is a syllable — keep it alive at speed.

✅ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: slowly · happily · well · carefully · fast · easily
- Ex2: 1) good · 2) well · 3) good · 4) well
- Ex3: 1) ...English well. · 2) He speaks English well. · 3) ...very carefully. · 4) He works hard every day. · 5) I slept very badly last night.

USUALLY VS NOW: PRESENT SIMPLE VS CONTINUOUS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 9 · Lesson 3 🕒 ~30 min · 📞 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L02 · Stage-0 U4 & U9
Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit9-people-feelings-everyday.md · S1-U9-L03

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback —. Objectives: contrast habit (present simple) with now (present continuous) · use the time markers · describe what you usually do against what you are doing these days. What is new here is not the continuous — it is temporary. Stage 0 taught the continuous for this second (I'm eating). This lesson extends it to a temporary period: this week I'm working from home. That extension is the whole lesson, and it is the use learners never acquire by themselves. Anchor the choice to the time marker, not to a feeling about the tense. Arabic speakers reliably over-use the simple for now. Usually / every day / always → simple. Now / at the moment / this week / today → continuous. Give them the marker and the tense follows; that is a rule they can actually apply under pressure. The -ing ending is /ɪ/, with no hard /g/. Working, not "workingg". It appears in every sentence of this lesson, so it is worth the four minutes. Support: the sort activity plus the time-marker list. Stretch: add a reason and a feeling about the change. Arabic ~25%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Say what you usually do, and what you're doing right now.
- Talk about a temporary period: these days · this week.
- Choose the tense from the time word. 🗣️

ودي أول مرة تقدر تفرق بين حاجة بتعملها دايماً وحاجة بتعملها الفترة دي بس.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

English forces a choice that Arabic does not always force: is this your life, or is this today? I work in an office is who you are. I'm working from home is this week only. Same job, different sentence.

والمفتاح إنك تسمع كلمة الوقت وتمشي وراها: usually يبقى بسيط، و now أو this week يبقى مستمر. متخاترش بالإحساس.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From Stage 0: two things you do every day (simple), and what your partner is doing right now (continuous).

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. This is the baseline check. If the this second continuous is shaky, fix it here — today builds directly on top of it.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

Catching up with someone (📞 in the portal).

A: What do you do? B: I'm a teacher. I usually work in a school in Giza. A: Usually? B: Well, this month I'm working online — they're repairing the building. At the moment I'm teaching from my bedroom. A: How is that? B: Strange! I normally see thirty students in a room. These days I'm looking at thirty little squares. A: And do you like it? B: Not really. But it's only for a few weeks.

Notice: usually work · normally see — his real life. this month I'm working · at the moment I'm teaching · these days I'm looking — a temporary situation, and every one of them is marked by a time phrase.

English	بالعربي
I usually work in a school.	عادةً بشتغل في مدرسة
This month I'm working online.	الشهر ده بشتغل أونلاين
At the moment...	في الوقت الحالي...
These days...	الأيام دي...

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second pass: learners write the time phrase from each sentence and the tense next to it. The pairing is the takeaway.

🧩 DECODE IT — القاعدة

1) Present simple — your life. What is generally true.

I work in an office. · She drinks tea every morning.

Its time words: usually · normally · always · often · every day · never

2) Present continuous — am/is/are + -ing. Two jobs.

Job	Example
happening this second	I'm talking* to you now.*
happening for a temporary period ★	This week I'm working* from home.*

Its time words: now · right now · at the moment · today · this week · these days

⚠️ الجديد في الدرس هو الثاني: المستمر مش بس للحظة دي، هو كمان لفترة مؤقتة. This month I'm working. online — الشهر ده بس، مش دايماً. ولو الحالة مدتها شهر كامل، برضه مؤقتة؛ المهم إنها مش حياتك العادية وهتنتهي. كلمة الوقت هي اللي بتكشف الفرق.

3) The pair sentence — this is the shape to master.

I usually drive to work, but this week I'm taking the metro.* She normally cooks, but today she's ordering food.*

Habit + but + temporary. One sentence, both tenses, and the contrast does the work.

4) A small warning. Some verbs describe a state, not an action, and they stay simple even with now:

I know him. ✅ · I'm knowing him. ❌ I want coffee. ✅ · I'm wanting coffee. ❌

The common ones: know · want · like · need · understand · have (own)

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Two minutes on the two tenses, two on the temporary use, two on the pair sentence. Keep the stative-verb note to a list of six and move on — recognition is enough at A2.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
usually / normally	عادةً	I usually get up at seven.
every day	كل يوم	I study every day. at the moment	في الوقت الحالي	At the moment I'm studying.
these days	الأيام دي	These days I'm reading more. this week / this month	الأسبوع ده / الشهر ده	This week I'm working late. right now	حالا	He's sleeping right now.
I'm working from home.	بشتغل من البيت	This month I'm working from home.
I know / I want	أعرف / عايز	I know him well.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Part 1 — -ing is /ɪŋ/, and there is no /g/ at the end.

The back of your tongue closes against the soft palate and stays there. You do not release it into a g.

work-ing /'wɜ:kɪŋ/ • go-ing /'gəʊɪŋ/ • do-ing /'du:ɪŋ/

The test: say "sing" and hold the last sound. If you hear "sing-guh", you released it. Freeze instead.

ودي بتغير شكل كلامك كله، لأن كل جملة في الدرس ده فيها -ing.

Part 2 — stress the time marker when you are contrasting. The contrast is the meaning:

I USUALLY drive, but THIS WEEK I'm taking the metro.

Say it once flat, then again with those two phrases pushed. The second version makes the contrast audible without any extra words.

Record & compare: "I usually work in an office, but these days I'm working from home."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Two minutes on /ŋ/ with the hold-and-freeze test, two on contrastive stress. Both are immediately audible in the recording, so flag them there.

TRAIN — تدرّب

Exercise 1 — simple or continuous?

1. I _____ (get up) at six every day.
2. Look — it _____ (rain)!
3. She _____ (usually / take) the bus, but today she _____ (walk).
4. These days I _____ (study) for an exam.
5. He _____ (know) the answer.

Exercise 2 — make a pair sentence. Use usually ... but this week ... for:

1. drive / take the metro
2. cook at home / eat out
3. work in the office / work from home

Exercise 3 — fix the mistake.

1. I am working in a bank. It's my job for ten years. → _____
2. Every day I am going to the gym. → _____
3. I'm wanting a new phone. → _____
4. At the moment I study English. → _____

Exercise 4 — true for you. Two habits, then two things you're doing these days that are not permanent.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: get up · is raining · usually takes / is walking · am studying · knows. Ex3: *I work in a bank · Every day I go · I want · At the moment I'm studying. Ex3.1 is the most useful — a permanent job needs the simple, however "now" it feels.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Say two things you usually do, then two things you're doing these days that will not last. Use a time marker in every sentence.

Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: correct tense for each time marker, clean /η/ endings, and at least one full usually ... but ... pair sentence.

📋 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post: "I usually ___, but these days I'm ___."
- Say your current habit out loud in English. "These days I'm practising every day." Describing the habit in the language you are building is a small thing that makes it feel like yours.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- Simple = your life. Continuous = now, or a temporary period.
- usually · every day · always → simple. now · at the moment · this week · these days → continuous.
- The pair sentence: I usually X, but this week I'm Y-ing.
- know · want · like · need · understand stay simple.
- -ing ends in /η/ — freeze it, do not release a /g/.

✅ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: 1) get up · 2) is raining · 3) usually takes / is walking · 4) am studying · 5) knows
- Ex3: 1) I work in a bank. · 2) Every day I go to the gym. · 3) I want a new phone. · 4) At the moment I'm studying English.

ON THE PHONE & SMALL TALK

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 9 · Lesson 4 ⌚ ~30 min · 📞 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L01–L03 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit9-people-feelings-everyday.md · S1-U9-L04

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Warm-up 4 · Input 6 · Decode 6 · Accent Lab 4 · Train 7 · Your Turn 3 · Feedback —. Objectives: manage a simple phone call · leave or take a message · open, sustain, and close light small talk naturally. Teach chunks, not grammar. A phone call is one of the few situations where people use nearly identical fixed phrases every time. Fluency here comes from retrieving a whole line — Can I speak to...? — not constructing it word by word. The missing visual channel is the difficulty. Learners cannot point, read a face, or repair with a gesture. Give them explicit repair phrases: Could you say that again? Could you speak more slowly? Small talk has a social shape: open → answer + return question → one follow-up → close. Learners who answer How's it going? with Fine and silence are grammatically correct but conversationally unavailable. The return question is the lesson. Support: phone-stage and small-talk phrase cards. Stretch: handle an unavailable person and leave a detailed message with name, number, and reason. Arabic ~20% — fixed English phrases should carry the lesson.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Ask for someone and leave or take a message on the phone.
- Start small talk, ask back, and react naturally.
- Close a conversation without sounding abrupt. 🗣️

المكالمة لديها ترتيب ثابت. لما تحفظ الترتيب، مش محتاج تترجم وإننت بتتكلم.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

On the phone, your English loses its safety net: no face, no pointing, no gesture. But the conversation is more predictable than it feels. Learn its stages and the pressure drops.

Small talk works the same way. It is not empty speech; it is how people signal I am open to talking to you. One returned question changes the whole exchange.

الرد لوحده مش كفاية. جاوب واسأل نفس السؤال للشخص التاني.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن

From L01: say how you feel and ask your partner how they feel. From Unit 1: ask How was your weekend?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Require an answer plus a return question. That interaction pattern becomes today's small-talk engine.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع وشوف

A short phone call (📞 in the portal).

A: Hello, Empire Travel. How can I help? B: Hi. Can I speak to Ms Hassan, please? A: Who's calling, please? B: It's Kareem Ali. A: Thanks. Hold on a moment... I'm sorry, she's not available right now. Can I take a message? B: Yes, please. Could you ask her to call me back about my booking? A: Of course. Does she have your number? B: Yes, she does. Thanks for your help. A: You're welcome. Goodbye.

Later, two colleagues meet:

C: Hey, how's it going? D: Not bad, thanks. How about you? C: Pretty good. How was your weekend? D: Quiet, but nice. I visited my family. What did you do? C: I worked, unfortunately! Anyway, I have to go. Good talking to you. D: You too. See you later.

Notice the work done by fixed lines: the phone call moves through open → ask → message → close. The small talk answer always comes back with a question.

English	بالعربي
Can I speak to...?	ممکن أکلم...؟
Who's calling?	مین بیتکلم؟
Can I take a message?	أبلغه حاجة؟
How's it going?	الدنيا ماشية إزاي؟
Anyway, I have to go.	عمومًا، لازم أمشي

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Play twice. Second pass: learners identify each phone stage and circle every return question. Do not translate every phrase — these are memorize-and-use chunks.

DECODE IT — القاعدة

A phone call has four stages.

Stage	Useful line
1 Open	Hello, this is Noor.
2 Ask	Can I speak to Ahmed, please?
3 Connect or message	Hold on. · Can I take a message?
4 Close	Thanks for your help. Goodbye.

If the person is unavailable:

I'm sorry, she isn't available right now. Could you ask her to call me back? Can I leave a message?

If you did not hear:

Could you say that again? · Could you speak more slowly? · Did you say fifteen or fifty?

استخدام جملة إصلاح مش فشل. دي مهارة المكالمة نفسها. ولو مسمعتش، اطلب الإعادة بدل ما تخمّن وتضيع الرسالة أو الرقم المهم.

Small talk has four moves too.

Move	Example
open	How's it going? · How was your weekend? answer	Not bad. · Pretty good. · A bit busy. ask back ★	How about you? · And you? close	Anyway, I have to go. · Good talking to you.

The rule that makes it a conversation: answer + ask back.

*How's it going? — Pretty good, thanks. How about you?

A one-word answer is not rude, but it closes the door. The returned question keeps it open.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. Keep the phone and small-talk stages visible. Drill complete chunks, then remove one line at a time from the board. Spend the final two minutes forcing answer-plus-return-question pairs.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك

English	بالعربي	Example
Can I speak to...?	ممکن أکلم...؟	Can I speak to Lina?
Who's calling?	مين بيتکلم؟	Who's calling, please?
Hold on.	استنى لحظة	Hold on a moment. available	متاح	He isn't available right now. take / leave a message	ياخد / يسيب رسالة	Can I leave a message?
call me back	يکلمني تاني	Could you ask her to call me back?
How's it going?	أخبارك إيه؟	Hey, how's it going?
How about you?	وانت؟	Not bad. How about you?
Good talking to you.	اتبسّطت بالكلام معاك	Good talking to you. Bye.

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق

Fixed phrases need one rhythm, not one beat per word.

How's it GOing? → /haʊzɪt'gəʊɪŋ/ Can I SPEAK to Ahmed? → the small words compress Could you ask her to CALL me BACK? → stress the action

Say How · is · it · going? with four separate beats. It sounds like a language exercise. Now let the first three words slide together and land on go. That sounds like a greeting.

Friendly intonation rises into the question and relaxes through the answer. A flat How's it going? sounds as if you do not want to know.

Record & compare: "Hi, can I speak to Mariam, please?" Then: "How's it going? Pretty good — how about you?"

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Contrast mechanical word-by-word delivery with chunk rhythm. Prioritise fluent delivery and warmth over analysis; every line here is functional language.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ

Exercise 1 — put the phone call in order.

- a) Can I take a message?
- b) Can I speak to Mr Adel, please?
- c) Thanks for your help. Goodbye.
- d) Hello, this is Rania from Empire English.

Exercise 2 — choose the line.

1. You did not hear the number. → _____
2. The person is not there. Offer to record information. → _____
3. You want the person to contact you later. → _____
4. You need two seconds to connect the call. → _____

Exercise 3 — keep the small talk alive. Add an answer and a return question.

1. How's it going? → _____
2. How was your weekend? → _____

Exercise 4 — close naturally. Replace the abrupt ending.

OK. Bye. → _____

Exercise 5 — role-play. Caller: ask for Salma and leave your name, number, and reason. Receiver: she is not available; take the message. Swap roles.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Ex1: d → b → a → c. Ex2 models: Could you say the number again? · Can I take a message? · Could you ask them to call me back? · Hold on a moment. Ex4: Anyway, I have to go. Good talking to you. In Ex5, remove the phrase card for the second round.

🎤 YOUR TURN — دورك

Make a short phone call: introduce yourself, ask for someone, learn they are unavailable, and leave a message with your name and reason. Close naturally.

🎤 Record it.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Success check: coherent open → ask → message → close, at least three correct fixed phrases, and natural chunk rhythm rather than word-by-word reading.

📄 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post a short phone-call voice note or a small-talk opener, response, return question, and closer.
- Memorise three complete lines, not twelve separate words. Functional English gets fast when the unit of memory is the phrase.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر

- Phone shape: open → ask → connect/message → close.
- Can I speak to...? · Who's calling? · Hold on. · Can I take a message?
- Repair is a skill: Could you say that again?
- Small talk: open → answer + ask back → follow-up → close.
- Anyway, I have to go. Good talking to you. closes without cutting someone off.

✅ SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- Ex1: d → b → a → c
- Ex2: 1) Could you say the number again? · 2) Can I take a message? · 3) Could you ask them to call me back? · 4) Hold on a moment.
- Ex4: Anyway, I have to go. Good talking to you.

 · Prerequisite: L01–L04 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit9-people-feelings-everyday.md · S1-U9-L05

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Warm-up 5 · Model 4 · Checklist 4 · Accent clinic 4 · Rehearse 7 · Record 5 · Feedback 2 · Assign —. Objectives: sustain a roughly two-minute chat · combine feelings, adverbs, and usually-versus-now · ask back, follow up, react, and close naturally · record the Unit-9 milestone. This is the most conversational task in Stage 1. Score interaction as seriously as accuracy. A learner who produces perfect sentences without reacting is delivering parallel monologues, not having a conversation. The partner must introduce one unpredictable detail. Without it, reactions can be memorised. A genuine Really? Why? after new information is stronger evidence of A2 than another correct present-continuous sentence. Do not rescue silence immediately. Give learners two seconds to reach for a follow-up. Interaction needs retrieval time before it becomes automatic. Support: checklist and phrase card. Stretch: sustain beyond two minutes with two genuine follow-ups and no teacher prompt. Arabic ~20% — this should sound like English being used, not displayed.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (MILESTONE)

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Hold a two-minute conversation about your week and how you feel.
- Contrast what you usually do with what you are doing now.
- Ask back, follow up, react, and close naturally.
- Record your Unit-9 milestone. 🎙️

الهدف مش إنك تقول كلام كتير. الهدف إنك تسمع، ترد، وترجع تسأل.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخن (سلسلة)

Rapid chain: a feeling → a personality adjective → an adverb → a usually ... but these days ... sentence → a small-talk opener.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. No repeats. The chain retrieves every lesson before learners combine them under interaction pressure.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A natural chat between two classmates (🗨️ in the portal).

A: Hey, how's it going? B: Pretty good, thanks. How about you? A: A bit tired, honestly. I'm working late this week. B: Really? Why? A: We usually finish at five, but these days we're preparing a big event, so I'm leaving at eight. B: That sounds tiring. Are you enjoying it? A: Actually, yes. My team works really well together, and my manager explains everything clearly. What about you — how's your week going? B: Quiet. I normally study at home, but this week I'm studying with a friend. It's much better. A: Nice! Does your friend study quietly? B: Not at all — she talks constantly! Anyway, I have to go. Good talking to you. A: You too. See you tomorrow.

Notice what makes this a conversation: each person answers, asks back, reacts to new information, and follows it. The grammar is accurate, but the interaction is what keeps the two minutes alive.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Play once without interruption. Second pass: learners count return questions, reactions, and follow-ups. There are no speeches longer than three sentences.

🧩 THE CHECKLIST — تشيك ليست المحادثة

1. ✅ Open naturally — How's it going? · How's your week going?
2. ✅ Name a real feeling and say why
3. ✅ Use one adverb — well · carefully · slowly · clearly
4. ✅ Contrast usually with this week / these days
5. ✅ Ask back — How about you?
6. ✅ React + follow up — Really? Why? · That sounds... · What happened?
7. ✅ Close naturally — Anyway, I have to go. Good talking to you.
8. ★ Handle one detail you did not know before the conversation

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Items 5, 6, and 8 are the assessment heart. Grammar can be rehearsed; interaction only appears when the learner listens and responds.

🎤 ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق

Drill your weakest from this unit:

- feelings carried by pitch — excited should not sound bored
- adjective endings — interested · worried · nervous
- the -ly syllable — carefully · clearly · slowly
- -ing /ŋ/ with no released /g/
- small-talk chunk rhythm — How's it going? · How about you?

Then rehearse one reaction so it sounds real rather than read:

Really? 🗨️ · That sounds exhausting. 🗨️ · What happened? 🗨️

 Record & compare one weak sound and one reaction.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. One personal target per learner. Do not run all five as a class list. The reaction line matters because flat reactions are the main reason a technically correct chat still sounds staged.

YOUR TURN — التسجيل (MILESTONE)

With a partner, hold a chat for about two minutes.

Talk about how you feel, how your week is going, what you usually do, and what is different these days. Use one adverb. Ask back, react to something new, ask a follow-up, and close naturally.

 Record it and keep it. 🏰

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min recording + 2 feedback. Secretly give each partner one detail to introduce — a new job, a bad journey, an exam tomorrow — so the other's reaction cannot be scripted. Allow two seconds before prompting a silence.

Success check (Unit-9): a coherent roughly two-minute chat containing a precise feeling, one correct adverb, a simple/continuous contrast, and visible interaction through asking back, reacting, and following up (rubric: Fluency + Interaction + Pronunciation at A2).

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post the chat or your side of it with the partner questions left in.
- Complete the Unit-9 quiz.

- This week, do not measure success by how long you spoke. Count the moments when you understood something new and responded to it. That is when English becomes conversation.

🧠 REMEMBER — افكر (UNIT 9 WRAP)

- What's someone like? asks about personality; How are they? asks about now.
- -ed is the feeling; -ing causes it: bored / boring.
- adjective + -ly; but good → well · fast → fast · hard → hard.
- Simple for the usual; continuous for now or a temporary period.
- Small talk lives on answer + ask back + react + follow up.
- A natural close is a phrase, not an escape: Anyway, I have to go. Good talking to you.

✅ SELF-CHECK — UNIT 9 MINI-QUIZ

1. What's your manager ____? (personality) → like
2. I'm ____ because this film is _____. (bore) → bored / boring
3. She speaks English _____. (good) → well
4. He works very _____. (hard) → hard
5. I usually ____ in an office, but this week I ____ from home. (work) → work / 'm working
6. At the moment she ____ for an exam. (study) → is studying
7. After "Pretty good, thanks", keep the talk open with: → How about you?
8. Ask to record information for an unavailable person: → Can I take a message?

🎉 UNIT 9 COMPLETE — بقيت بتتجاوز، مش بس بتجاوب

You can describe people and feelings precisely, say how things happen, separate ordinary life from what is temporary, manage a phone call, and sustain a conversation by listening and responding.

Next → Unit 10: Putting It Together. The full A2 campaign: consolidation, real-world missions, and your Stage-1 milestone recording. 🏰

Empire English 🏰 — المستخدم الحقيقي يسمع ويرد، مش بس بيكون جملة

STAGE 1 · UNIT 10

PUTTING IT TOGETHER

👑 UNIT 10 — PUTTING IT TOGETHER

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 10 of 10 Built from: `curriculum/stage1/unit10-putting-it-together.md` (unit map + lessons)

THE FINAL CAMPAIGN — الحملة الأخيرة

Your mission: retrieve the whole stage, repair the patterns that still slip under pressure, complete a full A2 exchange, and record the milestone sample that proves how far you have travelled. مهمتك الأخيرة: تجمع المرحلة كلها في استخدام حقيقي، وتدخل التقييم عارف شكله ومن غير مفاجآت.

This unit adds almost no new language. That is deliberate. Knowledge becomes ability when it can be retrieved, combined, heard, repaired, and used with another person. The final campaign tests exactly that.

أنت مش داخل تجمع قواعد أكثر. أنت داخل تشغل اللي بنيتك كله مع بعض.

THE LESSONS — دروس الوحدة

#	Lesson	The proof
L01	Big Review 1 — past narration	retrieve the full past and connect a 6–8 sentence event
L02	Big Review 2 — range	combine future, comparison, quantity, and advice naturally
L03	Personal Accent Clinic	improve your evidence-based top three and self-repair
L04	The A2 Exchange mock	rehearse narration → role-play → Q&A in the exact format
L05	Stage-1 summative 🎓	demonstrate A2 + record the standard milestone sample

Language spine: the complete Stage-1 range — past · future · comparison · quantity · symptoms and advice · travel functions · feelings and adverbs · routine against temporary change. Accent Lab: personalised top-three clinic, with -ed for everyone and meaning-changing contrasts first. Mindset: from “I studied English” to “I use English.” Arabic support: ~20% in consolidation, fading to ~10% in the English-first finale.

WHAT A2 EVIDENCE LOOKS LIKE — شكل الدليل

A2 is not an error-free performance. Across the whole exchange, the learner can:

- narrate a connected past event
- discuss a future plan

- compare options and talk about quantity
- give advice and distinguish it from necessity or prohibition
- complete an ordinary role-play and handle one complication
- ask, answer, clarify, repair, and keep interaction alive
- remain generally intelligible across the stage's target sounds

The governing threshold and full bands remain in `curriculum/05-assessment-suite.md` ; this wrapper does not replace them.

THE THREE-POINT PROOF TIMELINE — خط إثبات التطور

1. Day 1 — the original standard prompt
2. Stage 0 — the same prompt after A1 foundations
3. Stage 1 — the same prompt plus a past/future extension at A2

Comparison is only fair when prompt and conditions are controlled. Use `curriculum/06-before-after-protocol.md` . Consent to learn, consent to record, and consent to publish are different. The learner controls use of the clip.

THE PRIZE — جائزة المرحلة

- An evidence-based A2 determination.
- Your extended A2 exchange and standard milestone recording.
- A precise handoff to Stage 2: one language/interaction target and one residual pronunciation target.
- Proof that the learner who once named a routine can now move across time, choices, needs, and live interaction.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Unit overview: 5 lessons; L04 ~35 min, L05 ~40 min, plus this wrapper. L01 and L02 are retrieval reviews. Struggle before support is useful. Correct repeated patterns rather than interrupting every slip, and demand connected meaning rather than requirement sentences. L03 must be personalised from evidence. A generic “top three” defeats the design. If tracker evidence is missing, diagnose from the seeded passage before choosing. The target is clarity against the learner's own earlier recording, never native imitation. L04 previews L05 exactly. Keep prompt types, order, and rubric stable. Its output is a maximum of two polish targets, not a premature determination. L05 separates assessment from proof capture. The extended exchange is scored; the standard prompt is a second recording for comparable progress evidence. Follow the assessment suite and before/after protocol, record consent tier, and never treat a green technical check as evidence that a learner met A2. Be exact and warm at once. Evidence-first scoring and humane delivery are not opposites.

STAGE-1 COMPLETION CHECK — تقييم المرحلة

- Quiz: mixed recognition plus short production across all Stage-1 targets.
 - Speaking: extended narration + role-play + Q&A, scored on Fluency, Accuracy, Pronunciation, Range, and Interaction using the committed rubric bands.
 - Proof sample: standard prompt recorded separately under comparable conditions.
 - Tracker: determination, score evidence, clip links, consent tier, and Stage-2 carry-over flags.

BIG REVIEW 1: PAST NARRATION

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 10 · Lesson 1 — RETRIEVAL REVIEW ⌚ ~30 min · 📞 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: Units 1–3 and 8 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit10-putting-it-together.md · S1-U10-L01

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Retrieval 5 · Model 5 · Error check 5 · Accent 5 · Build 6 · Record 3 · Feedback 1. Objectives: retrieve was/were, regular and irregular pasts, and did/didn't · narrate a connected past account · self-correct the three patterned past errors. Retrieval, not re-teaching. Let learners produce before you show anything. A five-second struggle to retrieve took strengthens memory; supplying it immediately does not. Correct patterns, not every slip. Today's three are double-marked past after did, missing or wrong -ed endings, and irregular substitutions. Note anything else for later rather than breaking the story. The output must be connected. Eight accurate but unrelated past sentences do not meet the goal. Sequence and consequence — first, then, because, so, in the end — make narration. Support: retrieval deck + six-slot skeleton. Stretch: include direct speech, a feeling, and answer a follow-up without preparation. Arabic ~20% — reassurance and the error contrast only.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Retrieve the complete Stage-1 past system without notes.
- Tell a connected event in 6–8 sentences.
- Hear and fix your own top three past-tense errors. 🎧

ده مش شرح جديد. النهاردة بتثبت إن الماضي بقى أداة عندك، مش قاعدة بتفتكرها.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

At Stage 0, you could name your routine. Now you can take a listener backwards through time: set the scene, move events in order, explain what did not happen, and say how it ended. That is a different level of control.

الاختبار إن الماضي يشتغل جوه حكاية من غير ما تقف.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخْن (RETRIEVAL SPRINT)

Without opening a lesson, write the past of these verbs in 60 seconds:

go · take · see · come · buy · eat · have · make · get · leave

Then sort five regular verbs by ending: worked · played · wanted · watched · called.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Answers: went, took, saw, came, bought, ate, had, made, got, left. Endings: /t/ worked, watched · /d/ played, called · /ɪd/ wanted. Learners answer before any model appears.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

A connected past account (📞 in the portal).

Last Thursday, I left work late because we had a problem with a customer. I didn't have time to eat, so I bought a sandwich at the station. While I was waiting, I saw an old school friend. We took the same train and talked all the way home. She told me she was starting a new job. In the end, the late train wasn't a disaster — it gave me someone back.

This is not a list. Because explains, so shows the result, while connects two past scenes, and in the end closes the account.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. First listen for the event. Second listen: learners mark irregulars, regulars, a negative, and four connectors. Ask what makes the final sentence feel like an ending.

🧩 THE PAST ERROR CARD — كارت أخطاء الماضي

Error 1 — marking the past twice.

✅ I didn't go. · Where did you go? ❌ I didn't went. · Where did you went?

After did / didn't, the main verb returns to its base. الماضي بيتحط مرة واحدة بس.

Error 2 — using a regular ending on an irregular verb.

✅ went · took · saw · bought · ❌ goed · taked · seed · buyed

Error 3 — losing -ed when the story speeds up.

worked /t/ · played /d/ · wanted /ɪd/

The ending may be small, but it tells the listener when the event happened.

Six slots build the narration:

Slot	Prompt
1	When and where?
2	What was the situation? — was/were
3	What happened first?
4	What happened next, and why?
5	What didn't happen?
6	How did it end or feel?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Learners self-correct the three wrong examples before you explain. Keep the six-slot skeleton visible for Train, then remove the error card during the final recording.

YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك (RETRIEVAL)

Job	Language
set the scene	Last... · Two years ago... · When I was... describe it	There was/were... · It was... move forward	first · then · after that · while explain	because · so
negative / question	didn't + base · Did... + base? close	in the end · finally · the best part was...

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق (PAST ENDINGS)

Sort by the sound, not the spelling:

/t/	/d/	/ɪd/
worked · watched · stopped	played · called · lived	wanted · needed · visited

Rule you can feel:

- /ɪd/ only after a final /t/ or /d/ — it creates an extra syllable.
- /t/ after a voiceless sound.
- /d/ after a voiced sound.

Speed round: teacher says the base; learner says the past and its sound. Then put three into one connected sentence without losing the endings.

النطق مش إضافة تجميلية هنا. لو النهاية اختفت، المستمع ممكن يسمع الحكاية كأنها بتحصل دلوقتي.

 Record & compare: "I worked late, called my friend, and waited at the station."

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Do not ask learners to recite the rule first. Make them sort and say. Include wanted so they preserve the extra syllable and worked so they do not invent one.

TRAIN — البروفة الكاملة

Use a picture sequence or a real prompt. Build one story through the six slots with a partner.

Requirements:

- one was/were scene
- two irregular past verbs
- two audible regular endings
- one didn't + base
- three connectors

Partner listens with the error card and identifies one pattern, not every slip. Tell the story again with the correction.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min. First round with the skeleton, second without it. If feedback becomes a list, stop it and ask for the one error that repeated. Patterned correction transfers; scattered correction does not.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Narrate a real event from the last month in 6–8 connected sentences. Include what happened, one thing that didn't happen, and how it ended.

 Record it, listen once, then correct one sentence if needed.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min + 1 feedback. Success check: connected rather than listed; accurate did/didn't + base; intelligible regular endings; at least two correct irregulars; one self-correction after listening.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post the narration and mark the sentence you corrected yourself.
- Compare it with any Stage-0 recording. Do not ask whether your accent is perfect; ask what you can express now that you could not express then.

REMEMBER — افكر

- did / didn't + base verb — the past appears once.
- Irregulars must be retrieved: went · took · saw · bought.
- -ed has three sounds: /t/, /d/, /ɪd/.
- A story needs sequence and consequence, not just past verbs.
- Self-correction is evidence of control, not evidence of failure.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

1. Where did you went? → Where did you go?
2. I didn't saw him. → I didn't see him.
3. We buyed two tickets. → We bought two tickets.
4. wanted ends in → /ɪd/
5. A connector that shows result → so

Empire English 🏰 — مش بتراجع قاعدة؛ بتسترجع قدرة

BIG REVIEW 2: FUTURE, COMPARISON, QUANTITY & ADVICE

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 10 · Lesson 2 — RETRIEVAL REVIEW 🕒 ~30 min · 📞 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: Units 4–7 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit10-putting-it-together.md · S1-U10-L02

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Retrieval 5 · Model 5 · Error check 5 · Accent 4 · Combine 7 · Record 3 · Feedback 1.

Objectives: retrieve future, comparison, quantity, and advice/obligation · combine at least three areas in one talk · self-correct the top error in each. Combination is the assessment. A learner who can answer four isolated grammar questions has recognition. A learner who can compare two plans, quantify the difference, and advise a friend has usable range. Use error inoculation, not a lecture. Show the five plausible wrong forms — I going to, more big, the most biggest, much people, should to — and make learners repair them from memory. Preserve meaning distinctions: going to plan / will prediction or instant decision; should advice / have to necessity; many count / much uncount. These are choices, not merely forms. Support: mixed retrieval deck + four-part prompt. Stretch: sustain two minutes and include a reasoned recommendation. Arabic ~20%.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Move from now into the future, compare options, talk about quantity, and give advice.
- Combine at least three of those areas naturally.
- Catch the five most persistent Stage-1 errors. 🎧

القوة مش إنك تستخدم قاعدة لوحدها؛ القوة إنك تختار كذا أداة عشان توصل رأي واحد.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Range is what lets a conversation go somewhere. You can now discuss when, which is better, how much, and what someone should do — four jobs that ordinary decisions require every day.

المطلوب دمج الأدوات في كلام واحد.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخْن (SIX-SHOT RETRIEVAL)

Give one original example of each, without notes:

1. a plan with going to

2. a prediction with will
3. a comparative
4. a superlative
5. a count and an uncount quantifier
6. advice with should

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Accept meaning first, then form. Ask one learner to explain why they chose going to rather than will — retrieving the distinction is stronger than repeating it.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

Choosing between two weekend plans (📄 in the portal).

I'm going to take a short trip next weekend, but I haven't chosen between Alexandria and Dahab. Alexandria is closer than Dahab, and there are more trains, so it will probably be easier. Dahab is more expensive, but it has less traffic and the beaches are much quieter. I don't have much time, so I think Alexandria is the better choice this weekend. My friend wants Dahab, but she has to work on Sunday. I think she should save it for a longer holiday.

One decision naturally uses all four areas: a plan, predictions, comparisons, quantities, and advice with a reason.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Learners tally examples by area on first listen. On second, ask which sentence actually makes the recommendation convincing — it is the one that connects limited time to the advice.

🧩 THE FIVE-ERROR CARD — كارت الخمس أخطاء

Repair each before reading the correction.

Wrong	Correct	Why
I going to travel.	I'm* going to travel.*	going to needs be
This one is more big.	This one is bigger.	short adjective + -er
It's the most biggest.	It's the biggest.	one superlative marker
There are much people.	There are many people.	count plural → many
You should to rest.	You should rest.	modal + base verb

خلي عينك على معنى الاختيار كمان: should رأي ونصيحة، لكن have to ضرورة. الشكل الصحيح بمعنى غلط لسه غلط.

The decision map:

Job	Choose
planned before speaking	be going to prediction / instant decision	will compare two / compare with all	comparative / superlative count plural / uncount	many/few / much/little advice / necessity	should / have to

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Learners repair all five aloud, then explain one meaning choice from the map. Do not expand into a full re-teach; any unresolved pattern becomes an individual review target before L05.

✂️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك (COMBINE)

Move	Frame
state the plan	I'm going to... predict	I think it will... compare	X is cheaper / more useful than Y. add degree	much better · a little cheaper quantify	many people · much time · a few options · a little money recommend	I think you should... because... state reality	You have to... · You don't have to...

ACCENT LAB — معمل النطق (THREE CARRY-OVER TARGETS)

1) Long-adjective stress stays inside the adjective:

ex-PEN-sive → more ex-PEN-sive · com-FOR-ta-ble → more com-FOR-ta-ble

Do not stress more and flatten the important word.

2) than begins with /ð/ — tongue lightly between the teeth, voice on:

cheaper than · better than · more useful than

3) have to changes in connected speech:

have to → /'hæftə/ — “hafta” · has to → /'hæstə/

Record & compare: “This plan is more expensive than that one, but we have to choose today.”

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. One minute each, then the combined sentence. The goal is intelligible connected speech, not a performance of isolated sounds.

TRAIN — البروفة الكاملة

Your friend has one free weekend and a limited budget. Compare two plans and recommend one.

Your talk must contain:

- one future plan or prediction
- one comparative and one superlative
- one count or uncount quantity
- one piece of advice with a reason
- one necessity or lack of necessity

Partner listens for combination and checks the five-error card. Swap, then repeat after one correction.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~7 min. Do not let learners deliver five disconnected requirement sentences. Reward language that connects: because, so, but. Ask the partner which structure helped the recommendation rather than merely whether all boxes appeared.

 YOUR TURN — دورك

Talk for about 90 seconds on one decision you are making. Compare the options, mention a limit, say what you are going to do, and give yourself or someone else advice.

 Record it and self-correct one patterned error.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min + 1 feedback. Success check: at least three areas integrated accurately, one reasoned connection, and one self-correction against the five-error card.

 YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post the mixed talk: plan + comparison + quantity + advice.
- Circle the structures after recording, not before. If they are present naturally, you combined them; if you inserted them from a checklist, repeat once and make the meaning lead.

 REMEMBER — افكر

- be going to needs am/is/are; will does not.
- Short adjective + -er; long adjective uses more; never both.
- many/few for count · much/little for uncount.
- should + base = advice · have to + base = necessity.
- Range means combining choices to express one idea.

 SELF-CHECK — صحّح لنفسك

1. I going to call him. → I'm going to call him.
2. This route is more easy. → This route is easier.
3. It's the most cheapest. → It's the cheapest.
4. We don't have many time. → We don't have much time.
5. She should to wait. → She should wait.

6. Advice, not obligation → should

ACCENT CLINIC: FIX YOUR TOP THREE SOUNDS

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 10 · Lesson 3 ⌚ ~30 min · 📞 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: all Stage-1 units Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit10-putting-it-together.md · S1-U10-L03

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~30 min): Identify 4 · Perceive 5 · Re-cue 5 · Produce 9 · Passage 4 · Free speech 2 · Compare 1.

Objectives: identify each learner's top three weak sounds from tracker evidence · improve them from word to connected speech · self-monitor and self-correct. Personalisation is non-negotiable. Do not give every learner the same three sounds. Use actual flags from recordings; if no tracker data exists, diagnose with the passage before selecting targets. One sound improved beats three sounds named. Support learners may work on one high-impact contrast. Stretch learners carry all three into spontaneous speech and self-correct without a prompt.

Honesty guardrail: the target is clearer and more intelligible than the learner's own earlier recording — never “native.” Accent identity is not a defect. The clinic cycle: perceive → locate → produce alone → word → phrase → sentence → spontaneous speech → compare. Skipping perception or comparison turns practice into repetition without evidence. Arabic ~20% — articulation cues may use Arabic; production stays English.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

By the end, you'll be able to:

- Name your three current pronunciation targets from evidence.
- Use a physical cue to improve each one.
- Notice a slip and repair it in connected speech.
- Compare today's recording with your own earlier one. 🎧

هدفك مش تختفي لكنتك. هدفك إن المستمع يفهمك بسهولة، وإنك تعرف تصلح نفسك بعد الكورس.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

A teacher cannot follow you forever. Self-monitoring can. Once you can hear a target, feel its mouth position, and repair it inside a sentence, improvement no longer depends on a course timetable.

المطلوب وضوح أحسن، مش تقليد.

🔄 WARM-UP — سخّن (EVIDENCE FIRST)

Open your tracker or the notes from Units 1–9. Write three specific targets:

not “pronunciation” → final /t/ in can't not “th” → voiced /ð/ in than and this not “endings” → /ɪd/ in wanted and needed

Rank them by impact: which one most often makes a word unclear or changes meaning?

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. If no reliable flags exist, use the seeded passage in Train as a diagnosis. Do not invent data or copy another learner's list.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — اسمع (PERCEPTION BEFORE PRODUCTION)

For each selected target, listen to a correct version and a common substitution. Do not speak yet. Mark which one you hear.

Common target	Contrast
past -ed	worked /t/ · played /d/ · wanted /ɪd/
/θ/ and /ð/	think / sink · then / den
can / can't	/kən/ · /kænt/
/p/ and /b/	pack / back
/v/ and /f/	van / fan
/ŋ/ ending	sing / sing-guh clusters	street / se-treet

If you cannot hear the contrast reliably, slow down there. The mouth cannot consistently repair a difference the ear does not yet track.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Use A/B listening with eyes closed. A target only advances when the learner identifies at least four of five contrasts. Perception failure is information, not failure.

🧩 DECODE IT — الطريقة (PHYSICAL CUE CARDS)

Choose only the cards that match your targets.

Target	Physical cue	Quick test
/θ/-/ð/	tongue tip lightly between teeth; /ð/ adds voice	hand on throat
/p/-/b/	close both lips; /p/ releases air, /b/ adds voice	tissue moves for /p/
/v/-/f/	top teeth touch lower lip; /v/ adds voice	hand on throat can/can't	can't has full /æ/ and a closed final /t/	partner's eyes closed
/ŋ/	back of tongue closes and stays; no released /g/	hold the final sound cluster	build backwards: /t/ → /tr/ → /str/ → street	no inserted vowel
-ed	/ɪd/ after /t,d/; otherwise voice decides /t/ or /d/	touch throat before ending

وقت الكلام، استخدم إشارة جسدية.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Re-cue, do not re-lecture. Learner states the cue and demonstrates the test. The cue must be usable without a mirror or teacher after today.

✂️ YOUR ARSENAL — ذخيرتك (THE REPAIR LANGUAGE)

When you notice...	Do this the word was unclear	pause, repeat the whole phrase , continue
a missing ending	slow the final word, not the whole sentence
a substituted sound	reset the mouth cue, then say the phrase once uncertainty	record two versions and choose by listening repeated failure	step back: sentence → phrase → word → sound

A repair should be small: "I can go — sorry, I can't go — on Tuesday." Correct, then continue. Do not restart the entire answer.

🎤 ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق (THE NINE-MINUTE CORE)

For each target, run the same ladder:

1. Hear the contrast.
2. Set the physical cue.
3. Say the sound alone five times.

4. Say three words.
5. Say one phrase.
6. Say one sentence.
7. Record and compare with the model.
8. Repeat the sentence once, changing only the target.

Required -ed lane for everyone:

/t/: worked · watched · stopped /d/: played · called · lived /ɪd/: wanted · needed · visited

Then personalise lanes two and three from your tracker.

Checkpoint: save the first and final attempt. Improvement you cannot compare is only a feeling.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~9 min. Roughly three minutes per target. Support: six minutes on the highest-impact target, three on -ed. Stretch: final sentence carries all three targets and is produced without a written cue.

TRAIN — تَدْرِبْ (SEEDS PASSAGE)

Read once for meaning, once for targets:

Last Thursday, three friends visited the new theatre. They walked there because the train was faster than the bus. They wanted to leave at ten, but the final act finished late. "I can't miss the last train," said Victor, thinking quickly. They thanked the staff and ran to the station. In the end, they caught it.

Underline words containing your targets. Read again, then speak for one minute about a recent evening without the passage. When you notice a slip, repair the phrase and continue.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min passage + 2 min free speech. The passage seeds -ed, th, can/can't, /v/, /ŋ/ and clusters. Score only each learner's selected targets. Count spontaneous self-repairs as a success.

YOUR TURN — دورك

Record a one-minute account containing all three targets. Listen once and mark:

- one clear gain
- one remaining slip
- one successful self-repair

Keep both the first ladder recording and this final recording.

TEACHER'S EDITION

Success check: clearer production than the learner's own earlier sample, all selected targets attempted in connected speech, and at least one independent notice-or-repair. Update residual flags for Stage 2.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Post a before/after pair for your #1 target sentence.
- Use the five-minute drill for seven days: perceive 1 · cue 1 · ladder 2 · spontaneous sentence 1.
- Carry unresolved targets forward. Completion does not mean pretending a sound is finished.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Clear and intelligible is the goal; “native” is not.
- Compare with your own past recording.
- The ladder: hear → cue → sound → word → phrase → sentence → speech → compare.
- One physical cue survives pressure better than a paragraph of theory.
- Self-correction keeps improvement alive after the teacher is gone.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- ☐ My targets came from evidence, not a generic list.
- ☐ I can identify each contrast by ear.
- ☐ I know one physical cue for each.
- ☐ I saved a first and final recording.
- ☐ I repaired at least one slip without restarting.

PRACTICE CONVERSATION: THE A2 EXCHANGE

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 10 · Lesson 4 — FULL MOCK 🕒 ~35 min · 📺 Recorded + live · Prerequisite: L01–L03

Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit10-putting-it-together.md · S1-U10-L04

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~35 min): Retrieval 5 · Model 5 · Rubric 4 · Accent 3 · Pair mock 10 · Coach mock 6 · Feedback 2.

Objectives: sustain a mixed A2 conversation with narration, role-play, and Q&A · move across tenses and functions · self-assess readiness for L05. Preview the summative exactly. A mock only reduces anxiety if its order, prompt types, and rubric match the real event. Do not make this one harder to “prepare” them or easier to “encourage” them. Low stakes, high honesty. Today produces one short polish list, not a pass/fail label. Name evidence: “Your narration connected six events; repair didn't + base before next lesson.” Score the exchange, not a monologue. Follow-up handling, clarification, and recovery count. A2 does not mean error-free; it means connected and intelligible enough to keep the task moving. Support: full prompt, frames, and two minutes' preparation. Stretch: prompt only, no frames, spontaneous role-play complication. Arabic ~15% — reassurance only; the mock itself is English-first.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك

Today you will complete the exact shape of the A2 speaking assessment:

- Part 1: narrate a past event.
- Part 2: handle a real-world role-play.
- Part 3: answer and ask follow-up questions across time.
- Use the rubric to identify what to polish before L05. 🗣️

دي بروفة بنفس الشكل الحقيقي. الهدف إنك تدخل التقييم عارف الخطوات، مش حافظ الإجابات.

👑 WHY THIS MATTERS — ليه ده مهم

Uncertainty creates more anxiety than difficulty. Once you have moved through the full format, the summative stops being a surprise and becomes one more conversation you know how to handle.

دي بروفة، مش نجاح أو رسوب.

🔄 WARM-UP — سَخِّن (MIXED RETRIEVAL)

Complete four 20-second turns:

1. something you did last weekend
2. a plan for next month
3. advice for someone who is tired
4. a comparison between two places you know

Your partner asks one follow-up after each.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Keep it moving. This warms tense switching and follow-up handling, not topic depth.

💡 WATCH & LISTEN — النموذج

Observe one complete miniature exchange (🗨️ in the portal).

Coach: Tell me about a journey that did not go as planned. Learner: Last month I took a bus to Alexandria. It left late because there was a problem... Coach: What did you do while you were waiting? Learner: I called my friend and bought some coffee. I didn't get angry because I had plenty of time. Coach: Now imagine we are at a ticket office. Buy a return ticket and ask about one rule. Learner: Good morning. Could I have a return ticket to Cairo, please? What time does the last train leave? Coach: It leaves at nine, but you have to book a seat. Learner: That's fine. Do I have to pay now? Coach: Last question: are you going to travel more next year? Learner: Yes, I'm going to visit Aswan. I think it will be quieter than Cairo, and...

The learner does not deliver one perfect speech. They understand a prompt, respond, handle new information, and keep going.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Learners identify the three parts and one example of interaction in each. Ask where the coach introduced information the learner could not have memorised.

🧩 THE A2 RUBRIC CARD — كارت التقييم

Score each dimension 0–5 using evidence from the whole exchange.

Dimension	At-threshold evidence
Fluency	connected short turns; pauses do not repeatedly stop the task
Accuracy	Stage-1 forms usually carry the intended time and meaning
Pronunciation	generally intelligible; key contrasts do not invert meaning
Range	uses past, future, comparison, quantity, and modal/functions as needed
Interaction	understands prompts, asks or answers follow-ups, repairs when needed

A strong A2 answer is not error-free. It is connected, understandable, responsive, and broad enough to complete ordinary tasks.

رکز علی الدلیل، مش الانطباع. بدل "کویس" اکتب: استخدم الماضي وربط الأحداث، أو طلب توضيح وكمل.

Useful recovery lines:

Could you say that again? · Do you mean...? · Let me think for a second. · Sorry, I mean...

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Read the actual rubric bands from the assessment suite when scoring; this card explains the dimensions to learners. Do not invent a new threshold in the room.

ACCENT LAB — عيادة النطق (TOP-ONE TUNE-UP)

Choose the one target from L03 most likely to affect meaning or intelligibility. Run one quick ladder:

word → phrase → assessment sentence → one unrehearsed sentence

Then stop. A three-minute tune-up should settle the mouth, not fill the learner's head with monitoring.

 Record the assessment sentence once. No repeated perfection loop.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Prioritise meaning-changing targets such as can/can't before cosmetic ones. Do not introduce a new sound on mock day.

TRAIN — البروفة الكاملة (PAIR MOCK)

Take turns as learner and assessor.

PART 1 — NARRATION

Tell a connected 6–8 sentence story from one prompt:

- a journey that went wrong
- a day you were proud of
- a time you helped someone

Assessor asks two follow-ups.

PART 2 — ROLE-PLAY

Choose one:

- buy a ticket; one option is sold out
- describe symptoms at a pharmacy and ask what to do
- order for two people; one item is unavailable
- ask directions, then clarify one step

Assessor introduces one complication.

PART 3 — Q&A

Answer across time: one question about your routine, one about a future plan, and one comparison or opinion. Ask one question back.

Use the rubric card for one evidence note + one next action per partner.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~10 min. Five minutes each. Keep assessor behaviour consistent: two narration follow-ups, one role-play complication, three mixed questions. Frames are permitted for the support route, not read as a script.

YOUR TURN — دورك (COACH MOCK)

Complete one full mock with the coach, or observe one learner while scoring independently with the rubric.

Optional recording for private comparison — this is not the milestone clip.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~6 min + 2 feedback. Compare observer scores to the coach's evidence. Give a maximum of two polish targets: one language/interaction target and one clarity target. Success check: sustains all three parts at or near A2 threshold, uses a recovery strategy if needed, and leaves with a specific, manageable L05 plan.

YOUR ORDERS — مهمتك

- Complete the rubric self-assessment using evidence, not feelings.
- Prepare topic ideas, not memorised answers.
- Practise only your two polish targets. Last-minute review of the whole stage increases noise and reduces control.

REMEMBER — افكر

- Format: narration → role-play → mixed Q&A.
- The rubric measures Fluency · Accuracy · Pronunciation · Range · Interaction.
- A2 is connected and intelligible, not error-free.
- Repair lines are part of interaction, not an escape from it.
- The summative is the same shape as today; there is no trap waiting.

SELF-CHECK — صحّ لنفسك

- ☐ I completed all three parts.
- ☐ I answered an unprepared follow-up.
- ☐ I handled a complication in the role-play.
- ☐ I used or could use a recovery phrase.
- ☐ My two polish targets are specific and manageable.

STAGE-1 SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT + A2 MILESTONE SAMPLE 🎓

Empire English · Stage 1 — Citizen (A2) · Unit 10 · Lesson 5 — STAGE FINALE ⌚ ~40 min · 📞 Live recorded assessment ·
 Prerequisite: L01–L04 Built from: curriculum/stage1/unit10-putting-it-together.md · S1-U10-L05

TEACHER'S EDITION

At a glance (~40 min): Settle 4 · Quiz 10 · Setup 3 · Accent 2 · A2 exchange 8 · Standard sample 5 · Feedback 3 · Queue 2. Objectives: demonstrate the A2 exit criteria · complete the Stage-1 summative quiz and extended speaking task · record the standard-prompt A2 milestone sample for the three-point proof timeline. Use the governing documents: curriculum/05-assessment-suite.md for rubric bands and determination; curriculum/06-before-after-protocol.md for the standard prompt, recording conditions, storage, and consent. This lesson does not invent replacements. The assessment and proof sample are different recordings. The extended A2 exchange determines performance; the standard prompt enables fair Day-1 → Stage-0 → A2 comparison. Keep both. Consent is granular and revocable. Course participation never implies permission to publish. Record the consent tier; without publication consent, retain or delete according to the protocol and use privately only where authorised. Clear, not native. Pronunciation is scored for intelligibility. Accent identity is never a pass criterion. Arabic ~10% — reassurance and safety-critical consent only.

🎯 YOUR CONQUEST — هدفك (STAGE FINALE)

Today you will:

- complete the Stage-1 summative quiz
- complete the A2 speaking exchange: narration + role-play + Q&A
- record the standard A2 milestone sample
- receive an evidence-based A2 determination and your next targets

النهاردة مش فسخ. دي لحظة إثبات وتوثيق للمسافة اللي قطعناها.

1 SETTLE — اهدأ

Take one breath. You have already completed this format in L04.

This is a milestone, not a filter. A result describes today's evidence and the next useful step. It does not describe your intelligence, effort, or worth.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~4 min. Confirm the sequence and answer procedural questions only. Do not coach content. Verify recording works and confirm consent/storage before capture begins.

2 THE SUMMATIVE QUIZ — الاختبار

Complete the Stage-1 quiz independently. It samples recognition and short production across:

- was/were, regular and irregular past, did/didn't
- going to / will
- comparatives and superlatives
- count/uncount quantity and restaurant language
- symptoms, should, have to / don't have to / can't
- travel requests and booking
- feelings, adverbs, and simple-versus-continuous

TEACHER'S EDITION

~10 min. Use the committed portal/Google Form instrument and its set band. Preserve raw result and production responses. A quiz command exiting successfully is not evidence of speaking ability; it is one component only.

3 SPEAKING TASK SETUP — شكل المحادثة

You will complete three connected parts:

1. Narration: a past event, 6–8 connected sentences, then follow-ups.
2. Role-play: one ordinary A2 situation with an unexpected complication.
3. Q&A: plans, comparison, advice, routine/current change; ask one question back.

The five dimensions are Fluency • Accuracy • Pronunciation • Range • Interaction.

You may ask for repetition or clarification. That is assessed interaction, not lost marks.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. Explain only the format and rubric. Support route may use brief preparation notes while still covering every criterion; record that accommodation with the result.

4 ACCENT TUNE-UP — تجهيز الصوت

Use your L03 cue for your single highest-impact target:

sound → word → one phrase → stop

Do not attempt to monitor every sound during the task. Meaning and interaction come first.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~2 min. No new correction. Settle one established cue, then remove the practice card.

5 THE A2 SPEAKING EXCHANGE — المحادثة

PART A — NARRATION

Tell me about a trip, problem, or important day from the past. Set the scene, connect events, include one negative, and say how it ended.

PART B — ROLE-PLAY

The assessor selects one: ticket office · pharmacy · restaurant · directions. Complete the task and respond to one complication.

PART C — Q&A

Discuss a future plan, compare two options, give advice with a reason, describe a routine and what is different now, then ask one question back.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~8 min, recorded. Follow the assessment suite's prompt and scoring procedure. Do not silently simplify after one error or escalate after strong performance. Score the whole sample against the five rubric dimensions and preserve evidence notes.

6 THE A2 MILESTONE SAMPLE — تسجيل التطور 🎬

Record the standard prompt under the before/after protocol's comparable conditions:

“Tell me about yourself, your family, and your typical day.”

Then add the Stage-1 extension:

“Tell me about something you did recently and one plan you have for the future.”

Speak naturally. Do not memorise or read a script. This recording is for comparison with your Day-1 and Stage-0 samples, not for changing the assessment result.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~5 min. Capture as a separate file. Match prompt and conditions as closely as the protocol requires. Log file link, date, level point, and consent tier. Never publish, edit into marketing, or transfer beyond that tier without explicit authorisation.

7 RESULT & FEEDBACK — النتيجة

The coach gives:

1. the rubric evidence in all five dimensions
2. the A2 determination using the assessment suite's threshold
3. two specific wins, quoted from the performance
4. one language/interaction target for Stage 2
5. one residual pronunciation target from the tracker

النتيجة مبنية على دليل النهاردة. ولو في جزء محتاج إعادة، ده مسار عمل واضح، مش حكم عليك.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~3 min. State evidence before labels. Do not round up for motivation or down for strictness. If evidence is insufficient or a technical failure affected capture, record that and reschedule the affected component.

8 SAVE, CONSENT & QUEUE — الحفظ والخطوة الجاية

COMPLETION CHECKLIST

- ☐ Summative quiz score and responses saved.
- ☐ Extended A2 exchange recorded and scored on all five dimensions.
- ☐ Standard milestone prompt recorded separately.
- ☐ A2 determination and evidence notes entered in the Cohort Tracker.
- ☐ Consent tier, storage link, and any publication restriction recorded.
- ☐ Residual structure and weak-sound flags carried to Stage 2.
- ☐ Learner received the result and next action.

YOUR NEXT CAMPAIGN

Stage 2 moves toward B1: longer stories, opinions with reasons, present perfect against past, conditionals, relative clauses, and greater independence when the conversation becomes unpredictable.

TEACHER'S EDITION

~2 min. Pair the Day-1, Stage-0, and A2 samples privately where consent permits. The three-point timeline is proof of development, not permission to publish. Set one concrete B1 goal with the learner.

REMEMBER — افكر

- You moved from describing a day to narrating, comparing, planning, advising, and handling complications.
- A2 means connected, intelligible everyday communication — not perfection.
- Self-repair and clarification are signs that you can keep communication alive.
- Your recording is evidence of progress; your consent controls how it may be used.
- This is a milestone on the route, not the end of the route.

EMPIRE SIGN-OFF

Citizen → A2 milestone reached when the evidence meets the standard. You did not collect rules. You built enough control to use English across time, choices, needs, and real interaction. Keep the recording. Let the evidence speak. Then begin the next climb. 🏰
